New Creation In Paul's Letters And Thought:

New Creation in Paul's Letters and Thought Moyer V. Hubbard, 2002-07-11 As a biblical motif new creation resonates throughout the pages of the Jewish and Christian scriptures and occupies a central place in the apostle Paul's vision of the Christian life. Yet the biblical and extra-biblical occurrences of this theme vary widely in meaning referring to either a new cosmos, a new community, or a new individual. Beginning with the Old Testament and working through the important texts of Second Temple Judaism, Moyer V. Hubbard focuses on how the motif functions in the argument strategy and literary structure of these documents, highlighting its role as the solution to the perceived plight. He then explores in detail which senses of the term Paul intends in Galatians 6:15 and 2 Corinthians 5:17, concluding that new creation in Paul's letters describes the Spirit-wrought newness of the person in Christ and is fundamentally anthropological in orientation.

The Principle of the New Era in Galatians Ho-Hyung Cho, 2023-05-11 This book is placed within broader scholarship's trajectory by explaining that in Gal 6:2 refers to principle, unwritten law, rather than written law such as the Mosaic law, and another law. Because diachronically and synchronically had various meanings in history, the context in which it is found is significant. Given the context of Galatians while Paul negatively depicts as the written Mosaic law throughout the letter, he positively uses it as a device for striking the ears of the Galatians in the verse. Remarkably 6:2 is in 5:13, 6:10 called paraenesis, namely exhortations that they should perform with the Christian principle of life made by the Spirit. Being led by the Spirit is the sine qua non for believers in Christ. All indications surrounding 6:2 show that the phrase in 6:2 means the principle created by Christ that is keeping in step with the Spirit. This principle results from the new era inaugurated by the crucified and risen Christ. In 6:2 Paul exhorts the people of the new era to conform to the new era's principle created by Christ.

Christ and the New Creation Matthew Y. Emerson, 2013-04-10 In Christ and the New Creation, Matthew Emerson takes a fresh approach to understanding New Testament theology by using a canonical methodology. Although typically confined to Old Testament theology, Emerson sees fruitfulness in applying this method to New Testament theology as well. Instead of a thematic or book-by-book analysis, Emerson attempts to trace the primary theological message of the New Testament through paying attention to its narrative and canonical shape. He concludes that the order of the books of the New Testament emphasizes the story of Christ's inauguration, commissioning, and consummation of the new creation.

Essays in Faith and Learning Michael Bollenbaugh, Steven N. Goetz, 2015-12-07 This book represents the collected thinking of a few people who have had strong personal connections to Dr. Song Nai Rhee. Because the integration of faith and learning is a core value held by Dr. Rhee, the various authors have written essays on this topic in honor of his life and work. Such a book is typically referred to as a Festschrift, a celebratory writing given for a special person. Dr. Rhee's robust career at Northwest Christian College University is celebrated by the essays brought together in this book. All the authors have known Dr. Rhee as students or as academic colleagues or both. What they write about ranges from topics found in biblical literature to expressly theological ideas to matters that are eminently practical Yet each essay is held in place by its relevancy to the ongoing conversations about how faith and learning are integrated in the context of the Christian liberal arts university More important each author has a deep and abiding respect for Dr Song Nai Rhee His teaching and mentoring at Northwest Christian College University have left an indelible mark on each of their lives

Paul and the Hope of Glory Constantine R. Campbell, 2020-11-24 A Unique Study of Pauline Eschatology that Is Both Exegetical and Theological One of the trajectories coming out of Constantine Campbell's award winning book Paul and Union with Christ is the significance of eschatology for the apostle Along with union with Christ eschatology is a feature of Paul's thinking that affects virtually everything else While union with Christ is the webbing that joins Paul's thought together eschatology provides the shape of his thought and thus gives shape to his teaching about justification resurrection the cross ethics and so forth There is considerable debate however about Paul's eschatology asking whether he is a covenant or an apocalyptic theologian In Paul and the Hope of Glory Campbell conducts a thorough exegetical study of the relevant elements of Paul's eschatological language metaphors and images including parousia the last day inheritance hope and others He examines each passage in context aiming to build inductively an overall sense of Paul's thinking The results of this exegetical study then feed into a theological study that demonstrates the integration of Paul's eschatological thought into his overall theological framework The study is comprised of three parts The first part introduces the key issues both exegetical and theological and sets the parameters and methodology of the book It also offers an historical survey of the scholarly work produced on Paul's eschatology through the twentieth century to the present day The second part contains the detailed exegetical analysis with chapters on each important Pauline phrase metaphor and image related to eschatology The third part turns its attention to theological synthesis It recapitulates relevant conclusions from the evidence adduced in part two and launches into theological discussion engaging current issues and debates This volume combines high level scholarship and a concern for practical application of a topic currently debated in the academy and the church More than a monograph this book is a helpful reference tool for students scholars and pastors to consult its treatment of any particular instance of any phrase or metaphor that relates to eschatology in Paul's thinking

God in Paul's Letters Timothy Milinovich, Normand Bonneau, Robert F. O'Toole S. J., 2023-06-29 In Pauline studies where Christological questions have often carried the day Paul's understanding of God is emerging to play an equally important role What did it mean to the apostle that God is sovereign Lord of history and creation This volume explores the various ways that the theme of God is foundational to Paul's seven undisputed letters with attention to the diverse perspectives of each letter In addition the volume offers essays on overarching topics such as epistemology and the new creation that Paul describes in his writing The authors engage as well challenging questions including Paul's views on evangelizing all people Jew and Gentile alike Readers will come away with a deeper appreciation for both the theology and the Christology of Paul whose understanding of God provides the key to the salvific plan realized in Christ

Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies, Issue 5.1 Daniel S.

Diffey, Ryan A. Brandt, Justin McLendon, 2020-05-19 The Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies JBTS is an academic journal focused on the fields of Bible and Theology from an inter denominational point of view The journal is comprised of an editorial board of scholars that represent several academic institutions throughout the world JBTS is concerned with presenting high level original scholarship in an approachable way Academic journals are often written by scholars for other scholars They are technical in nature assuming a robust knowledge of the field There are fewer journals that seek to introduce biblical and theological scholarship that is also accessible to students JBTS seeks to provide high level scholarship and research to both scholars and students which results in original scholarship that is readable and accessible As an inter denominational journal JBTS is broadly evangelical We accept contributions in all theological disciplines from any evangelical perspective In particular we encourage articles and book reviews within the fields of Old Testament New Testament Biblical Theology Church History Systematic Theology Practical Theology Philosophical Theology Philosophy and Ethics Paul and Matthew Among Jews and Gentiles Ronald Charles, 2020-12-10 Terence L Donaldson s scholarship in the field of New Testament studies is vital as he has pressed scholars to pay closer attention to the complex relations between early Christ followers who were mostly non Jews and the Jewish matrix from which the narrative of the Christian proclamation comes from This volume allows prominent New Testament scholars to engage Donaldson s contributions both to sharpen some of his conclusions and to honour him for his work These essays are located at the intersections of three bodies of literature Matthew Paul and Second Temple Jewish Literature and themes and questions that have been central to Donaldson s work Christian Judaism and the Parting of the Ways Gentiles in Judaism and early Christianity Anti Judaism in early Christianity With contributions ranging from remapping Paul within Jewish ideologies and Paul among friends and enemies to socio cultural readings of Matthew and construction of Christian Identity through stereotypes of the Scribes and Pharisees this book provides a multi scholar tribute to Donaldson s accomplishments Hope Lichner Milos, 2021-06-14 In our times hope is called into question The disintegration of economic systems of states and societies families friendships distrust in political structures forces us to ask if hope has disappeared from the experience of today s men and women In August 2019 up to 240 participants met at the international theological congress in Bratislava Slovakia The main lectures congress sections and workshops aimed to provide a space for thinking about the central theme of hope in relation to philosophy politics pedagogy social work charity interreligious dialogue and ecumenism The Holy Spirit and Ethics in Paul Volker Rabens, 2013 Volker Rabens answers the question of how according to the apostle Paul the Holy Spirit enables religious ethical life In the first part of the book the author discusses the established view that the Spirit is a material substance which transforms people ontologically by virtue of its physical nature In order to assess this Stoic reading of Paul the author examines all the passages from the Hebrew Bible early Judaism Hellenism and Paul that have been put forward in support of this concept of ethical enabling He concludes that there is no textual evidence in early Judaism or Paul that the Spirit was conceived as a material substance Furthermore none of these or any of the Graeco Roman writings show that ethical living derives from the transformation of the substance of the person that is imbued with a physical Spirit The second part of the study offers a fresh approach to the ethical work of the Spirit which is based on a relational concept of Paul s theology Rabens argues that it is primarily through initiating and sustaining an intimate relationship with God the Father Jesus Christ and with the community of faith that the Spirit transforms and empowers people for ethical living The author establishes this thesis on the basis of an exegetical study of a variety of passages from the Pauline corpus In addition he demonstrates that Paul lived in a context in which this dynamic of ethical empowering was part of the religious framework of various Jewish groups

The Mind of the Spirit Craig S. Keener, 2016-06-21 Leading Scholar Explores Paul s Teaching on the Mind This major work by a leading New Testament scholar explores an important but neglected area of Pauline theology Paul s teaching about the mind In discussing matters such as the corrupted mind the mind of Christ and the renewal of the mind Paul adapts language from popular intellectual thought in his day but he does so in a way distinctively focused on Christ and Christ s role in the believer s transformation Keener enables readers to understand this thought world so they can interpret Paul s language for contemporary Christian life The book helps overcome a false separation between following the Spirit and using human judgment and provides a new foundation for relating biblical studies and Christian counseling

Stones, Bones, and the Sacred Alan H. Cadwallader, 2016-12-16 A crucial text for any university course on the interaction of archaeology and the Bible The world of early Christians was not a world lived in texts it was a world saturated with material reality and concerns what where and when to eat or drink how to present oneself in the space of bodily life and that of death how to move from one place to another what impacted status or the adjudication of legal charges All these and more controlled so much of life in the ancient world The Christians were not immune from the impact of these realities Sometimes they absorbed their surrounds sometimes they quite explicitly rejected the material practices bearing in on them frequently they modified the practice and the rationale to create a significant Christian alternative The collection of essays in this volume come from a range of international scholars who for all their different interests and critical commitments are yet united in treasuring research into the Greek and Roman worlds in which Christians sought to make their way They offer these essays in honor of one who has made a lifetime s work in mining ancient material culture to extract nuggets of insight into early Christian dining practices

Dennis E Smith Features Rich examples of method in the utilization of ancient material culture for biblical interpretation Thirteen essays with a response from Dennis E Smith Maps diagrams and plates

Paul and the Gift John M. G. Barclay, 2017-09-11 John Barclay explores Pauline theology anew from the perspective of grace Arguing that Paul s theology of grace is best approached in light of ancient notions of gift Barclay describes Paul s relationship to Judaism in a fresh way Barclay focuses on divine gift giving which for Paul he says is focused and fulfilled in the gift of Christ He both offers a new appraisal of Paul s theology of the Christ event as gift as it comes to expression in Galatians and Romans and presents a nuanced and detailed consideration of the history of reception of Paul including Augustine Luther Calvin and Barth

The Spirit in Romans 8 Marcin Kowalski, 2023-12-04 Kowalski addresses the Pauline understanding of the Spirit in Romans 8 as compared to the Stoic idea of pneuma. The author first analyzes the Stoic views on pneuma perceived in a variety of life-giving cognitive, ethical, unifying, reproductive and inspiring functions. The aforementioned features are taken as a starting point for the comparison with Paul, to which however the third element is added: the Jewish texts of the Second Temple period. These include the Old Testament but also The Book of Enoch, The Book of Jubilees, Qumran, The Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs, The Psalms of Solomon, Philo of Alexandria, Flavius Josephus, LAB, Joseph and Aseneth, 4 Book of Ezra and 2 Book of Baruch. Such a rich comparative material contributes to the novelty of the book and enables the reader to discover both the similarities and differences between Paul, Greco-Roman and Jewish authors. The study analyzes Romans 8 in its rhetorical context and brings to light the novelty of the Pauline view of the Spirit. The apostle portrays it in its primary cognitive, ethical and communitarian function of making the believers similar to Christ and inculcating in them the Lord's mindset and attitudes. Paul presents the Spirit as dwelling within a person, similarly to God inhabiting the Jerusalem temple and as the mediator of the resurrected life. In the original Pauline take, the Spirit enables a close union between God and human beings in which the latter keep their freedom and distinctive personal traits.

The Making of Christian Morality David G. Horrell, 2019-01-29 In this volume David Horrell focuses on themes of community ethics and ecology in Paul, moving from the concrete social circumstances in which the earliest Christian communities gathered to the appropriation of Paul's writings in relation to modern ethical challenges. Often questioning established consensus positions, Horrell opens up new perspectives and engages with ongoing debates both in Pauline studies and in contemporary ethics. After covering historical questions about the setting of the Pauline communities, The Making of Christian Morality analyzes Pauline ethics through a detailed study of particular passages. In the third and final section, Horrell brings Pauline thought to bear on contemporary issues and challenges, using the environmental crisis as a case study to demonstrate how Paul's ethics can be appropriated fruitfully in a world so different from Paul's own.

Paul and the Power of Grace John M. G. Barclay, 2020-11-10 Paul and the Gift transformed the landscape of Pauline studies upon its publication in 2015. In it, John Barclay led readers through a recontextualized analysis of grace and interrogated Paul's original meaning in declaring it a free gift from God, revealing grace as a multifaceted concept that is socially radical and unconditioned, even if not unconditional. Paul and the Power of Grace offers all of the most significant contributions from Paul and the Gift in a package several hundred pages shorter and more accessible. Additionally, Barclay adds further analysis of the theme of gift and grace in Paul's other letters besides just Romans and Galatians and explores contemporary implications for this new view of grace.

Paul and the Restoration of Humanity in Light of Ancient Jewish Traditions Aaron Sherwood, 2012-10-12 In Paul and The Restoration of Humanity in Light of Ancient Jewish Traditions, Aaron Sherwood questions the assumption of universalism in Pauline thought and finds instead that relevant Pauline traditions depict a partly restricted and particularly Israelite restoration of humanity This important Jewish component of Paul s thought remains largely unrecognized but Pauline and other ancient Jewish traditions consistently present Israel and non Israelites uniting in their worship of Yhwh as the restoration of both Israel and humanity Aaron Sherwood demonstrates in Pauline traditions the same deployment of Israel nations unification as in biblical and post biblical traditions This suggests that rather than secondarily finding space for Gentile justification the restoration of humanity plays a generative role in Paul s theology mission and apostolic self identity

Ontological Aspects of Early Jewish Anthropology Tyson L. Putthoff, 2016-11-28 In Ontological Aspects of Early Jewish Anthropology Tyson L Putthoff explores early Jewish beliefs about how the human self reacts ontologically in God s presence Combining contemporary theory with sound exegesis Putthoff demonstrates that early Jews widely considered the self to be intrinsically malleable such that it mimics the ontological state of the space it inhabits In divine space they believed the self therefore shares in the ontological state of God himself The book is critical for students and scholars alike In putting forth a new framework for conceptualising early Jewish anthropology it challenges scholars to rethink not only what early Jews believed about the self but how we approach the subject in the first place

The Sanctification Connection Keith Kettenring, 2008 This work focuses on progressive sanctification as a divine and human undertaking that provides a motivational setting for the transformation of an individual s life In Christianity sanctification occurs when a person is set apart by God to carry out his will Progressive sanctification is the aspect of sanctification that describes the process of spiritual growth Dr Keith Kettenring s research suggests that believers participate in this process with God in sanctificational synergism Human participation is recognized through an examination of free will and a study of components that contribute to belief and character formation This participation also includes the evaluation of one s capabilities and one s context for spiritual growth The integration of these concepts provides a compatible and useful matrix for a more comprehensive understanding of sanctificational growth The study of the components of human participation is also applied to the believer s personal strategy for sanctificational growth and the church s strategy to aid sanctificational growth through worship and small groups

Sanctification Michael Allen, 2017-10-24 Sanctification the act or process of becoming holy is one of the gifts of the gospel of Jesus Christ but it s often misunderstood by the modern church Sanctification offers a Christ centered and clear account of the doctrine by viewing it within its wider biblical and historical context Churches too often allow their definitions of holiness to be prompted by existential goals or the social mores of the Christian community It s not surprising then that many view holiness as accidental or expendable even as a legalistic posture opposed to the freedom of the gospel and separate from the gift of grace Sanctification part of the New Studies in Dogmatics series defines holiness in theological terms by Providing a framework by discussing the core Christian doctrines associated with it such as the character of God the nature of creation and the covenantal shape of life with God Considering the ways in which the gospel of Jesus not only prompts us to holy action but provides holiness as one of its blessings Attending to the ways in which the gift of sanctification relates to human means so that we can appreciate its connection to human nature responsibility and the pedagogy of exemplars and of law ABOUT THE SERIES New Studies in Dogmatics seeks to retrieve the riches of Christian doctrine for the sake of contemporary theological renewal Following in the tradition of G C Berkouwer s Studies in Dogmatics this series provides thoughtful concise and readable treatments of major theological topics expressing the biblical creedal and confessional shape of Christian doctrine for a contemporary evangelical audience The editors and contributors share a common conviction that the way forward in constructive systematic theology lies in building upon the foundations laid in the church s historic understanding of the Word of God as professed in its creeds councils and confessions and by its most trusted teachers
