Guernsey, a family sociologist, explore the connections that produce the marvelous, complicated and often contorted human family. The central thesis of the book is that God has placed human persons in a created order for which the covenant love of God provides the fundamental paradigm for parenting, sexuality and marriage and the formation of family life. From the perspective of the church as the new family of God, the human family is liberated from its own failures and fears and each person is affirmed as having a place in God's kingdom. Through Jesus Christ, to whom we are connected by grace, we are all brothers and sisters. We are family.

Adoptive Youth Ministry (Youth, Family, and Culture) Chap Clark, 2016-01-26 Kids desperately need healthy, committed adults who can help them thrive in their faith and become active participants in the life of the church. The book shows readers how to integrate emerging generations into the family of faith, helping young adults become active participants in God's redemptive community.
