introduce readers to the main themes of Christian ethics and pastoral theology Part two features more than 700 articles arranged alphabetically which are extensively cross referenced to the main themes from publisher The Marketplace Ministry Handbook Robert J. Banks, R. Paul Stevens, 2005 Work has become for many people the central reference point in their lives and the main consumer of their time and energy Whether people have much or little money is what much of life revolves around There is an implicit theology in everyone's attitude to and handling of work This book looks at the relationship between God and the marketplace at work as a spiritual discipline and at how to handle some of the main pressures and dilemmas that arise in a work setting The combined wisdom of dozens of experts makes this volume a great place to start thinking about how Christians should approach subjects such as ADVERTISING BUSINESS ETHICS COMPETITION COMPROMISE CONTRACTS CREDIT DEBT FIRING GOSSIP INSURANCE INTEGRITY INVESTMENT LEADERSHIP LOYALTY MANAGEMENT NEGOTIATING NETWORKING OFFICE POLITICS PROMOTION RETIREMENT SHIFTWORK STEWARDSHIP STRESS STRIKES UNIONS VOLUNTEER WORK WHISTLE BLOWING R Paul Stevens is the David J Brown Family Professor of Marketplace Theology and Leadership at Regent College in Vancouver and the author of many books on marriage work and everyday life His many books include The Other Six Days Liberating the Laity Marriage Spirituality Living the Story and Down to Earth Spirituality Robert Banks is past director and dean of Macquarie Christian Studies Institute in Sydney Australia He has written widely on work community and popular culture including The Tyranny of Time and Redeeming the Routines Christian Ethics (Revised Edition) Wayne Grudem, 2024-09-18 What Does the Bible Teach about How to Live in Today's World How should Christians live when the surrounding culture is increasingly hostile to Christian moral values Granted the Bible is our guide but how can we know if we are interpreting it rightly with regard to ethical questions about wealth and poverty marriage and divorce birth control abortion euthanasia homosexuality ethical business practices environmental stewardship and dozens of other issues And on a very practical level how can we know God's will in the ordinary decisions of life To address questions like these Wayne Grudem author of the bestselling book Systematic Theology draws on 40 years of teaching classes in ethics to write this wide ranging introduction to biblical moral reasoning organized according to the structure of the Ten Commandments He issues a challenging call for Christians to live lives of personal holiness and offers a vision of the Christian life that is full of joy and blessing through living each day in a way that is pleasing to God Written by Wayne Grudem Bestselling author of Systematic Theology and the What the Bible Says About series Biblical and Applicable Teaches readers how to protect 7 central tenets of God's law God's honor human authority life marriage property truth and purity of heart Accessible An ideal textbook for Christian college and seminary ethics classes with straightforward language and a bibliography for the topic at the end of each chapter Replaces ISBN 978 1 4335 4965 6 The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian, James D. Smith III, 2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles African Contextual Realities

Rodney L. Reed, 2018-08-14 Everyone who has eyes to see acknowledges the growing importance of the African church to the future of global Christianity But what does it mean for the church to take root in Africa How should the message of the gospel and the practice of Christianity be contextualized for Africa African Contextual Realities addresses many of the questions surrounding contextualization from a practical point of view and is the fruit of the 6th Annual Conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology held in Nairobi in 2016 The book explores such questions as In what ways should the mission of God be universally recognizable in every cultural context In our efforts to contextualize how do we avoid compromising the very gospel we are to proclaim How can the African church wean itself away from dependency on the Western church How does Christianity speak into some of the cultural and social issues arising out of contemporary African settings issues like widow cleansing Christian Muslim relations and peace building All those who are interested to learn more about the contextualization of African Christianity will find this volume to be an important resource Who Will Care for Grandma?

Brent R. Kelly, 2009-01-01 It is amazing to realize that much of the Western medical community is in a love hate relationship with the economics of medicine Quality Adjusted Life Years QALYs is one of the primary methods of guiding many medical decision makers in the allocation of limited medical resources Herein lies the problem of medicine and economics It seems that deciding who will receive limited medical resources is a task filled with moral and ethical difficulties even for those depending on the information obtained from QALY calculations These moral and ethical difficulties are beyond the scope of sound bites that tout the benefits of universal health care affordable insurance or the safety of the free market economy The breadth of the difficulty is found in the widespread disagreement concerning how the health care system should be distributed or fixed since most will agree that there is a problem with distributing medical resources It seemed obvious that some difficult decisions will need to be made that few are both willing and able to make This difficulty is particularly true in decisions about health care allocation and that is where QALYs have been found useful and problematic Limiting medical care for the elderly based upon their age did not occur until the mid twentieth century possibly because the elderly held a unique position of respect in the Western community It is no longer the case that the elderly are given a unique position of respect and dignity Rather it seems that with the increased use of QALY calculations the elderly are in danger of receiving less medical care than they are warranted It is imperative that Christians respond to the ethical implications of significant models of resource allocation that currently assist decision makers in the allocation process such as QALYs

Life in Transit: Theological and Ethical Contributions on Migration Manitza Kotzé, Riaan Rheeder, 2020-12-31 Migration is an issue that is under discussion worldwide and affects South Africa the United States of America and Germany in a distinctive way This book reflects academically on this significant and topical subject of migration from the often neglected perspective of the fields of theology and Christian ethics While the majority of contributions are from the South African context there are also chapters reflecting on the topic from the other two aforementioned contexts While numerous publications have recently appeared on the subject reflection from theology and Christian ethics are often lacking As such this scholarly publication wants to add ethical value to the local and global conversations on the theme from a theological perspective The book reflects on migration from the perspectives originated in the disciplines of biblical studies the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament systematic theology ecumenical studies Christian ethics practical theology and missiology It presents new and innovative inquiries primarily from a qualitative methodological viewpoint The book unveils new themes for deliberation and provides novel interpretations and insights into existing research Shared Wisdom Pamela

Cooper-White, 2024-11-19 For twenty years clinical pastoral educators congregational caregivers chaplains pastoral psychotherapists and pastoral theologians have turned to Pamela Cooper White's Shared Wisdom to ground their teaching training and understandings of countertransference and how the use of the caregiver's self in turn impacts the relational dynamic between caregivers and care seekers Now Cooper White updates her groundbreaking book to present new insights on how understanding one's own emotional reactions remains a core competency for ministry With precision and depth Cooper White continues to innovate the theory and practice of spiritual care counseling and spiritual psychotherapy This revised and expanded 20th anniversary edition explores current research on countertransference and intersubjectivity mutual influence and unconscious relationships and intercultural and interreligious dynamics in caring relationships Cooper White examines how the relational paradigm for pastoral assessment and theological reflection that she pioneered now has important implications for evolving types of care relationships As she does so she addresses emerging topics such as postcolonial theory spiritual and religious fluidity and gender diversity CPE supervisors pastoral care and counseling educators and practitioners pastoral theology scholars and psychotherapists looking for an in depth understanding of relationality and intersubjectivity will find the 20th anniversary edition of Shared Wisdom a must have resource to build and expand upon a core competency Who's Who in Christianity Lavinia Cohn-Sherbok, 2013-05-13 Who's Who in Christianity

Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace, 2022-08-04 This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman The study situates Chapman's career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism's message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism's method Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism

Christian Ethics and Contemporary Moral Problems Michael C. Banner, 1999-09-28 This book addresses such key ethical issues as euthanasia the environment biotechnology abortion the family sexual ethics and the distribution of health care resources Michael Banner argues that the task of Christian ethics is to understand the world and humankind in the light of the credal affirmations of the Christian faith and to explicate this understanding in its significance for human action through a critical engagement with the concerns claims and problems of other ethics He illustrates both the distinctiveness of Christian convictions in relation to the above issues and also the critical dialogue with practices based on other convictions which this sense of distinctiveness motivates but does not prevent The book's importance lies in its attempt to show the crucial difference which Christian belief makes to an understanding of these issues whilst at the same time demonstrating some of the weaknesses and confusions of certain popular approaches to them
