New Directions 53:

New Directions 53 James Laughlin, Peter Glassgold, Griselda Jackson Ohannessian, 1989-10 The fifty third number of New Directions an annual literary magazine in book form presents writing from around the world Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1954 Includes Part 1A Number 1 Books January June and Part 1B Number 1 Pamphlets Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June Tennessee Williams Robert Gross, 2014-09-19 Tennessee Williams plays are performed around the world and are staples of the standard American repertory His famous portrayals of women engage feminist critics and as America's leading gay playwright from the repressive postwar period through Stonewall to the growth of gay liberation he represents an important and controversial figure for queer theorists Gross and his contributors have included all of his plays a chronology introduction and bibliography

In Focus United States. Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration, 1980 Really New Directions in Evaluation: Young Evaluators' Perspectives Sandra Mathison, 2011-10-18 From the Editor This issue of New Directions for Evaluation NDE marks a milestone the 25th anniversary of the American Evaluation Association AEA NDE is an official publication of AEA and has been a crucial means for the Association to foster and promote the professionalization of evaluation through thematic discussions of theory and practice in evaluation NDE was first published in 1978 under the name New Directions for Program Evaluation although the title became New Directions for Evaluation in 1995 in acknowledgment of the broader scope of evaluation The current issue of NDE on the 25th anniversary of AEA looks not back but ahead Because NDE is a thematic and guest edited journal it tends to favor more mature self assured voices in evaluation The journal format does not lend itself easily to showcasing the voices of novice evaluators those just entering the field and who will be the next generation of evaluation practitioners and theoreticians As such NDE has chosen on this anniversary to highlight those voices Included are a number of chapters that build on what evaluation has already learned from other disciplines by introducing us to new possibilities We are also challenged in the chapters to think about techniques or methods we use both at a practical and conceptual level Some chapters raise questions about who evaluators are how they interact with others and the roles they assume in their practice Some young evaluators are confronting in various ways conundrums in thinking about and doing evaluation within organizations either from an external or internal perspective And issues in using technology in evaluation or challenges in evaluating technology are considered New Directions in the Russellian Theory of Time Emiliano Boccardi, L. Nathan Oaklander, Erwin Tegtmeier, 2024-11-28 The main debates in the philosophy of time have centred on whether A theory with events ordered by pastness presentness and futurity or B theory ordered by earlier than or later than are equally fundamental Emiliano Boccardi L. Nathan Oaklander and Erwin Tegtmeier instead uphold the Russellian theory or R theory and consider not only the fundamental differences but also its superiority They argue McTaggart's misinterpretation of Russell has led to a false dichotomy between the A and B theories while exploring the connection between temporal relations temporal facts and time In defence of the R theory they argue how it offers a metaphysical explanation of the nature of time in addition to investigating whether ontological theories of time can be considered from a moral or existential point of view Using an ontological approach this volume clarifies what is mistaken about both theories can only be resolved by adopting a Russellian philosophy reaching beyond the A theory vs B theory debate

Maps of Experience Andie Diane Palmer, 2005-01-01 In many North American indigenous cultures history and stories are passed down not by the written word but by oral tradition In Maps of Experience Andie Diane Palmer draws on stories recorded during travels through Secwepemc or Shuswap hunting and gathering territory with members of the Alkali Lake Reserve in Interior British Columbia Palmer examines how the various kinds of talk allow knowledge to be carried forward reconstituted reflected upon enriched and ultimately relocated by and for new interlocutors in new experiences and places Maps of Experience demonstrates how the Secwepemc engagement in the traditional practices of hunting and gathering create shared lived experiences between individuals while recreating a known social context in which existing knowledge of the land may be effectively shared and acted upon When the narratives of fellow travellers are pooled through discursive exchange they serve as what can be considered a map of experience providing the basis of shared understanding and social relationship to territory Palmer's analysis of ways of listening and conveying information within the Alkali Lake community brings new insights into indigenous language and culture as well as to the study of oral history ethnohistory experimental ethnography and discourse analysis

Come Now, Let Us Argue It Out Jon Burrow-Branine, 2021-11 Jon Burrow Branine challenges common narratives about what it means to be LGBTQ and Christian in the contemporary United States

In Focus, 1980

The Courage for Truth Thomas Merton, 1993 From 1948 when he first wrote to Evelyn Waugh who was editing The Seven Storey Mountain for publication in England until his death in 1968 Thomas Merton corresponded with writers around the world developing an ever widening circle of friends in Europe the Soviet Union South and North America Merton wrote and heard from many prominent writers of the stature of Waugh Jacques Maritain Czeslaw Milosz Boris Pasternak James Baldwin Walker Percy Henry Miller and Victoria Ocampo He also corresponded with and encouraged newer writers in Latin America like Ernesto Cardenal Merton sensed in these writers a hope for the future of humanity and believed that the courage for truth was their special gift Writing to Jose Coronel Urtecho Merton asserted that poets remain almost the only ones who have anything to say They have the courage to disbelieve what is shouted with the greatest amount of noise from every loudspeaker Courage rooted in true freedom is evident in Merton's own life He shared with his literary friends his concerns about war violence and repression racism and injustice and all forms of human aggression Forbidden to publish on the subject of war by his superiors he obeyed but continued to circulate his famous Cold War Letters He did not hesitate to criticize his church when he saw there was more concern for the institutional structure than there was for people Merton especially admired those who had the courage to write under oppression like Pasternak

Milosz and Cardenal      Theory of College Student Development Najjian Zhang,Phyllis McCluskey-Titus,Tony W. Cawthon,2022-07-25 The purpose of Theory of College Student Development is to provide readers with new theoretical knowledge or a reminder of the foundational and evolving theories that professionals can utilize for understanding and making sense of students behavior Its primary focus is on the integration of knowledge skills and application of such theories in such a way as to emphasize utility and application A unique component is its emphasis on professional competence professional identity and theoretical application Unlike previously published case study books designed to reach student development theory this text utilizes a single case that allows readers to see how a range of theories are applicable to this one case Theories presented for application include both foundational and evolving theoretical perspectives The twelve chapters have been written by both faculty and practitioners Each coeditor and chapter author brings unique perspectives and lens of viewing theory and application representing their experiences talents and expertise It features authors who represent the best of the best and these authors challenged us to be more innovative as we reimagine the evolution of student development theory The editors had two specific audiences in mind faculty and higher education practitioners With over two hundred graduate preparation programs in the United States most offering a student development theory course this book will help graduate faculty both new and seasoned with a mechanism for teaching theory in a fun relevant and innovative way      New Directions in Wireless Communications Systems Athanasios G. Kanatas,Konstantina S. Nikita,Panagiotis (Takis) Mathiopoulos,2017-10-16 Beyond 2020 wireless communication systems will have to support more than 1 000 times the traffic volume of today s systems This extremely high traffic load is a major issue faced by 5G designers and researchers This challenge will be met by a combination of parallel techniques that will use more spectrum more flexibly realize higher spectral efficiency and densify cells Novel techniques and paradigms must be developed to meet these goals The book addresses diverse key point issues of next generation wireless communications systems and identifies promising solutions The book s core is concentrated to techniques and methods belonging to what is generally called radio access network      House of Cards Robyn Dawes,2009-11-24 Robin Dawes spares no one in this powerful critique of modern psychotherapeutic practice As Dawes points out we have all been swayed by the pop psych view of the world believing for example that self esteem is an essential precursor to being a productive human being that events in one s childhood affect one s fate as an adult and that you have to love yourself before you can love another      Meet the Great Jazz Legends Ronald C. McCurdy, Introduce a new generation of music enthusiasts to 17 legendary jazz artists who have enriched the world with their incredible talents Dr McCurdy s illuminating stories about the lives times and music of these great jazz musicians span the entire twentieth century from early New Orleans Jazz through the Golden Age of Swing plus the avant garde and jazz fusion eras Includes units on Louis Armstrong James P Johnson Duke Ellington Count Basie Benny Goodman Ella Fitzgerald Billie Holiday Charlie Parker Dizzy Gillespie Thelonius Monk Miles Davis Dave Brubeck Clifford Brown John

Kane,Thomas D. Parsons,2017-03-24 Neuropsychology as a field has been slow to embrace and exploit the potential offered by technology to either make the assessment process more efficient or to develop new capabilities that augment the assessment of cognition The Role of Technology in Clinical Neuropsychology details current efforts to use technology to enhance cognitive assessment with an emphasis on developing expanded capabilities for clinical assessment The first sections of the book provide an overview of current approaches to computerized assessment along with newer technologies to assess behavior The next series of chapters explores the use of novel technologies and approaches in cognitive assessment as they relate to developments in telemedicine mobile health and remote monitoring including developing smart environments While still largely office based health care is increasingly moving out of the office with an increased emphasis on connecting patients with providers and providers with other providers remotely Chapters also address the use of technology to enhance cognitive rehabilitation by implementing conceptually based games to teach cognitive strategies and virtual environments to measure outcomes Next the chapters explore the use of virtual reality and scenario based assessment to capture critical aspects of performance not assessed by traditional means and the implementation of neurobiological metrics to enhance patient assessment Chapters also address the use of imaging to better define cognitive skills and assessment methods along with the integration of cognitive assessment with imaging to define the functioning of brain networks The final section of the book discusses the ethical and methodological considerations needed for adopting advanced technologies for neuropsychological assessment Authored by numerous leading figures in the field of neuropsychology this volume emphasizes the critical role that virtual environments neuroimaging and data analytics will play as clinical neuropsychology moves forward in the future A New Direction for China's Defense Industry Evan S. Medeiros,Roger Cliff,Keith Crane,James C. Mulvenon,2005-12-19 Since the early 1980s a prominent and consistent conclusion drawn from research on China s defense industrial complex has been that China s defense production capabilities are rife with weaknesses and limitations This study argues for an alternative approach From the vantage point of 2005 it is time to shift the focus of current research to the gradual improvements in and the future potential of China s defense industrial complex The study found that China's defense sectors are designing and producing a wide range of increasingly advanced weapons that in the short term are relevant to a possible conflict over Taiwan but also to China's long term military presence in Asia Part of a larger RAND Project AIR FORCE study on Chinese military modernization this study examines the current and future capabilities of China's defense industry The goals of this study are to 1
