Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1968     Sixteenth Census of the United States, 1940, 1942

National Union Catalog, 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases     Childe Hassam, American Impressionist Helene Barbara Weinberg, 2004 This illustrated publication accompanies a major exhibition at the Metropolitan Museum the first retrospective presentation of Hassam's work in a museum since 1972 Unique to this volume are an account of Hassam's lifelong campaign to market his art a study of the frames he selected and designed for his paintings and an unprecedented lifetime exhibition record Included in addition are a checklist of works in the exhibition and a chronology of Hassam's life All works in the exhibition as well as comparative materials are reproduced BOOK JACKET     In Pursuit of Beauty Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1986 This project is the first comprehensive study of a phenomenon that not only dominated the American arts of the 1870s and 1880s but also helped set the course of such later developments in the United States as the Arts and Crafts movement the indigenous interpretation of Art Nouveau and even the rise of modernism In fact the early history of the Metropolitan its founding its sponsorship of a school of industrial design and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals In Pursuit of Beauty Americans and the Aesthetic Movement comprised some 175 objects including furniture metalwork stained glass ceramics textiles wallpaper painting and sculpture Some of these had rarely been displayed others although familiar were being shown in new and even startling contexts The exhibition and catalogue are arranged thematically to illustrate both the major styles of a visually rich movement and the ideas that generated its diversity From publisher's description     Bradstreet's, 1887     The National Union Catalogs, 1963-, 1964     The National union catalog, 1968-1972, 1973     The Yankee Guide to the New England Countryside, 1972     Leonard's Annual Price Index of Art Auctions, 1990     NEW TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-10-25 Now the beloved Apostle states clearly that if we love God we will obey His commands And those commands are not difficult for us to obey After all He came to be the Savior of the world So three things show us clearly that Jesus came from God Those things are the Holy Spirit the water of Jesus baptism and the blood of His death on the cross Therefore everyone who believes in Jesus the Son of God will know that what God says is true But anyone who does not believe in God is saying that God tells lies They just do not believe the message that God told us clearly about His Son You don't want to be one of those people Truly we can trust God to help us when we turn to Him We know that He will hear us When we ask for anything that He wants us to have He listens to us This is especially true when we see another Christian doing something bad this is what we should do If it is a sin that does not cause death pray that God will help him Then God will help that person to live forever with Him We should settle it in our minds that nobody who has become a child of God continues to do wrong things Instead the Son of God keeps them safe so that Satan cannot do anything to keep them from going to heaven So I beg you says John do not put anything in this world or of this world before God

Slavery and Class in the American South William L. Andrews,2019-01-02 The distinction among slaves is as marked as the classes of society are in any aristocratic community Some refusing to associate with others whom they deem to be beneath them in point of character color condition or the superior importance of their respective masters Henry Bibb fugitive slave editor and antislavery activist stated this in his Narrative of the Life and Adventures of Henry Bibb 1849 In William L Andrews s magisterial study of an entire generation of slave narrators more than 60 mid nineteenth century narratives reveal how work family skills and connections made for social and economic differences among the enslaved of the South Slave narrators disclosed class based reasons for violence that broke out between impudent gentleman and lady slaves and their resentful mean masters Andrews s far reaching book shows that status and class played key roles in the self and social awareness and in the processes of liberation portrayed in the narratives of the most celebrated fugitives from U S slavery such as Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs William Wells Brown and William and Ellen Craft Slavery and Class in the American South explains why social and economic distinctions developed and how they functioned among the enslaved Noting that the majority of the slave narrators came from the higher echelons of the enslaved Andrews also pays close attention to the narratives that have received the least notice from scholars those from the most exploited class the field hands By examining the lives of the most and least acclaimed heroes and heroines of the slave narrative Andrews shows how the dividing edge of social class cut two ways sometimes separating upper and lower strata of slaves to their enslavers advantage but at other times fueling pride aspiration and a sense of just deserts among some of the enslaved that could be satisfied by nothing less than complete freedom The culmination of a career spent studying African American literature this comprehensive study of the antebellum slave narrative offers a ground breaking consideration of a unique genre of American literature      Catalogue of Printed Maps, Charts and Plans British Museum. Map Room,1967      Catalog of the Avery Memorial Architectural Library of Columbia University Avery Library,1968      My Thoughts Be Bloody Nora Titone,2010-10-19 Historian Nora Titone takes a fresh look at the strange and startling history of the Booth brothers answering the question of why one became the nineteenth century s brightest most beloved star and the other became the most notorious assassin in American history The scene of John Wilkes Booth shooting Abraham Lincoln in Ford s Theatre is among the most vivid and indelible images in American history The literal story of what happened on April 14 1865 is familiar Lincoln was killed by John Wilkes Booth a lunatic enraged by the Union victory and the prospect of black citizenship Yet who Booth really was besides a killer is less well known The magnitude of his crime has obscured for generations a startling personal story that was integral to his motivation My Thoughts Be Bloody a sweeping family saga revives an extraordinary figure whose name has been missing until now from the story of President Lincoln's death Edwin Booth John Wilkes's older brother by four years was in his day the biggest star of the American stage Without an account of Edwin Booth author Nora Titone argues the real story of Lincoln's assassin has never been told Using an array of private letters diaries and reminiscences of the Booth family Titone has uncovered a hidden history that reveals the reasons why John Wilkes Booth became this country's most notorious assassin The details of the conspiracy to kill Lincoln have been well documented elsewhere My Thoughts Be Bloody tells a new story one that explains for the first time why Lincoln's assassin decided to conspire against the president in the first place and sets that decision in the context of a bitterly divided family and nation By the end of this riveting journey readers will see Abraham Lincoln's death less as the result of the war between the North and South and more as the climax of a dark struggle between two brothers who never wore the uniform of soldiers except on stage
