China Germany Malaysia South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States The contributions embrace a mix of theoretical and practical reflections written by academics lecturers and practitioners alike The focus lies on business events such as trade fairs conventions and corporate events Some very specifically describe a certain trend or development others focus on overall trends The handbook is divided into four chapters Following an introductory chapter on the event market the second chapter focuses on the event market in China from a global perspective The third chapter reflects on management aspects in China s event industry The fourth and final chapter addresses the issue of educating professionals for the event industry

Rural Electrification and Electro-farming ,1929 The Exhibitionist Nichola Reeder,Steve Reeder,2019-05-16

A practical and inspiring guide to executing effective trade shows that attract and convert high quality leads into profitable sales Organisations regularly waste vast amounts of money time and effort attending the wrong shows planning them poorly and failing to follow up leading to an almost zero return on investment The Exhibitionist gives exhibitors an end to end guide covering all aspects of best practice trade show execution including budgeting researching the right show selecting and training staff and post show contact strategy amongst many other elements to build the confidence and skills required for delivering more effective events Through a series of three modules planning implementation and evaluation The Exhibitionist guides readers through the linear process of delivering a commercially measurable trade show This is a practical journey which alongside the theory uses case studies and examples to bring the key points to life Rather than just giving readers the answer The Exhibitionist provides the stimulus and inspiration to arrive at the right decisions for each organisation s specific trade show needs The Exhibitionist directs you through the minimum requirements to deliver an effective trade show but also discusses more advanced elements such as media management speaker platforms and digital engagement that will enhance the basic delivery for more experienced exhibitors
