managers are often unsure how to effectively manage their department's fiscal affairs The Jossey Bass Academic Administrator's Guide to Budgets and Financial Management is specifically designed for administrators who need guidance for managing the fiscal resources of a department or unit Using this book administrators can learn to better understand the broad fiscal context of their institutions and thereby master their own role and function within the institution

Retaining African Americans in Higher Education Lee Jones, 2023-07-21 Retention of African Americans on campus is a burning issue for the black community and a moral and financial one for predominantly white institutions of higher education This book offers fresh insights and new strategies developed by fifteen scholars concerned by the new climate in which affirmative action is being challenged and eliminated This is the first book devoted specifically to retention of African Americans in higher education and is unique in addressing the distinct but inter-related concerns of all three affected constituencies students faculty and administrators Each is considered in a separate section The student section shifts attention from to paraphrase McNairy fixing the student to focussing on higher education's need to examine and where appropriate revise policies curriculum support services and campus climate Responding to the new agenda shaped by the opponents of affirmative action but rejecting the defensive x percent solutions espoused by its proponents this book puts forward new solutions that will provoke debate Section II begins with a survey of the literature on African American administrators and presents a Delphi study of twelve administrators to provide an understanding of pathways and barriers to success The contributors then consider the importance of developing community support and creating alliances the role of mentoring and the setting of clear expectations between the individual and the institution Starting with the recognition that African Americans represent less than five percent of full time faculty the chapters in the final section examine the effects of the dismantling of affirmative action the consequences of faculty salaries trailing more lucrative non academic employment the declining enrollment of students of color the politics of promotion and tenure and issues of identity and culture The book concludes by stressing the roles that parents faculty and administrators must play to empower African American students to take responsibility for their own academic performance This is a compelling controversial and constructive contribution to an issue of national importance

Scholarship for Sustaining Service-Learning and Civic Engagement Shelley H. Billig, Melody A. Bowdon, Barbara A. Holland, 2008-11-01 This eighth volume in the Advances in Service Learning Research series includes eight essays selected from manuscripts submitted by participants in the seventh annual conference of the International Association of Research in Service Learning and Community Engagement held in Tampa Florida in October 2007 The volume builds upon the theme of that conference Sustainability and Scholarship Research and the K 20 Continuum bringing together the work of scholars from K 12 and higher education to argue for the connection between rigorous and purposeful research and sustainable service learning and civic engagement Articles range from models for program level assessment to examples of significant field based research projects to approaches to advance discipline based sustainable impacts to connections between civic education and sustainable communities Voices of community partners students faculty members administrators and discipline based organizations are part of the conversation and each of the essays raises important challenges for future research that can help to shape document and sustain the important impacts of work in this field

General Education and the Development of Global Citizenship in Hong Kong, Taiwan and Mainland China Jun Xing, 2013 General Education has taken center stage in the greater China area Hong Kong Taiwan and mainland China because of a number of important developments First globalization has created both opportunities and challenges for college students When they graduate and enter the real world they must have the cultural sensitivities and social skills in addition to their professional training to compete in a knowledge based global economy Equally significant for institutions of higher education pressing global problems challenge traditional disciplines and demand new forms of learning that reshapes the boundaries of knowledge In response to those rapidly changing dynamics general education has taken an increasingly important role in undergraduate education As the first English publication on the subject this anthology brings together a distinguished group of General Education scholars and teachers from Hong Kong Taiwan and mainland China
