The Gift of New Hope [Large Print] Christopher L. Webber, 2018-09-18 The Gift of New Hope originally published in 2015 invites readers to explore their yearning for God's presence through a study of the lectionary Bible readings for Advent and Christmas. Each week's Scriptures call us to praise God as we actively await the coming of Christ and prepare our hearts and lives for his arrival. Through the readings we hear the invitation to claim and celebrate the new hope we have in Jesus Christ. The season of Advent offers opportunities to prepare for God's coming in human form in the infant Jesus and for the fulfillment of God's kingdom with the second coming of Christ. Hope is the focus of Advent worship, study, and prayer. We will discover the light that began in the manger which continues as we look forward with hope to Christ's return. The Gift of New Hope is based on the Revised Common Lectionary scriptures for church year C, the third of a three-year cycle of Bible readings. The study includes commentary and reflection on readings from the Old Testament, the Gospels, and the Epistles. It offers the opportunity to explore these Bible readings in a five-session study. It will help participants understand, appreciate, and engage in meaningful and joyous celebrations of Advent and Christmas and to live each day in God's hope through Jesus Christ.

[Adult Bible Studies Fall 2018 Student \[Large Print\]](#), 2018-07-17 Fall Theme: God's World and God's People. Matthew, Luke, Romans, 2 Corinthians, Colossians, Nehemiah. This fall, our lessons come from the Book of Genesis, the book of beginnings. Through its pages, God is revealed as the Creator, Sustainer, Judge, and Redeemer who brought all things into being. Our lessons survey God's creation of the universe, earth, and people. The writer for the student book is Jack Gilbert; the writer for the teacher book is Von Unruh. God Created the World. The first three lessons in this unit concentrate on God's creating the universe, earth, and people and then declaring all things created good. Although God created and sustains all life, humankind is special to God and unique. Lesson Four explores how God established the institution of marriage and the process of reproduction in order to populate the earth. Lesson Five explains how humankind chose to do wrong and thus introduced sin into God's perfectly created world. God Destroys and Re-Creates. The first two lessons in this unit present Noah and his family as righteous followers of God who help repopulate and restore the earth after the destruction caused by the great Flood. The last two lessons feature the biblical couples Abraham and Sarah and Isaac and Rebekah who worked with God in the cycle of continuing creation. God Blesses and Re-Creates. Regardless. In the last unit, the first lesson explores how God blessed humble Isaac in enemy territory. The next three lessons consider how Jacob deceitfully obtained the blessing God had already destined for him, later established a right relationship with God and finally was blessed by God to marry and produce children with the wife he loved and for whom he long labored Hundreds of thousands of students and teachers use Adult Bible Studies each week in Sunday school classes mid week Bible studies and other small group settings Bible based and Christ focused it is an approved resource by the General Board of Discipleship of the United Methodist Church It is published quarterly Each week s lesson features A purpose statement offering focus and direction for the lesson Printed biblical text from The Common English Bible Reliable and relevant biblical explanation and application A closing prayer guiding personal commitment Free Extras All found at www.adultbiblestudies.com Current Events Supplement The free Current Events Supplement offers a way to connect each week s lesson to a timely event or topic in the news The supplements can enhance all resources using the Uniform Series Register for the Forums at www.adultbiblestudies.com Bold and you can post and read comments about the lessons from other readers
