Peace And Security The Next Generation:

Africa's New Peace and Security Architecture J. Gomes Porto, 2016-04-01 This volume offers an informed and critical analysis of the operationalization and institutionalization of the peace and security architecture by the African Union and Africa's Regional Economic Communities RECs. In creating this architecture the African Union and the RECs tread new ground with potentially significant consequences to the lives and livelihoods of millions of Africans who are affected by war and armed conflict. In depth critical chapters inform, clarify and provide key points for reflection on the architecture as a whole as well as on each of the structures currently under implementation. The volume examines the institutions that will carry the mandate forward, raises pertinent research questions for the successful operationalization of the architecture and debates the medium and long term challenges to implementation. Students and researchers of African approaches to peace building, conflict resolution and regional security will benefit from the deep and critical engagement of issues covered in this volume by world renowned scholars and practitioners. Women and Security Governance in Africa 'Funmi Olonisakin, Awino Okech, 2011-01-06 Debates about security governance in Africa and about the place of women within it have moved in parallel despite their interconnection. In this book the authors align the debates, locating African specific and feminist analysis within the security discourse. Militancy and Violence in West Africa James Gow, Funmi Olonisakin, Ernst Dijkhoorn, 2013-07-18 This volume provides a systematic and cross-regional analysis of radicalisation, militancy and violence in West Africa. Concern about terrorism in or from West Africa has been recognised in academic research and the adoption of militarised approaches to addressing it questioned. However, the basis for that questioning, the need to investigate factors such as the historical and socio-economic roots of militancy is not developed nor is it substantiated in existing studies The significant impact of religiously motivated radicalisation and violence in West Africa upon international security makes it essential to understand the issues of militancy and violence in the region In this volume the authors draw upon empirical research in West Africa to develop understanding in these areas Over the course of several chapters written by leading experts in the field the book successfully blends historical and conceptual analysis with new empirical research gathered from focus group discussions and research interviews Each of these core studies is structured around five interrelated issues tracing the antecedents of radicalisation monitoring trends identifying actors anticipating possibilities and analysing the strength of existing preventive mechanisms This book will be of much interest to students of African security African politics radicalisation political Islam war and conflict studies and security studies in general

Conflict, Peace, Security and Development Helen Hintjens, Dubravka Zarkov, 2014-08-13

Whilst classical approaches linked development with peace security has become central to understandings of both war and peacetime This book uniquely reflects on how to deal with the convergence of war and peace in the context of global economic and geo political development It addresses methodological challenges in contemporary approaches to conflict violence security peace and development Two dominant contemporary approaches are selected for debate on methodologies and ethical choices rational choice and identity based theorizing The chapters are arranged as dialogues around contending approaches to better understand how the interlocking fields of violent conflict peace development and security can be researched and understood The book considers how theoretical and methodological approaches relate to different ethical and political choices including around engagement and intervention in the four interwoven fields Theoretical methodological and ethical issues emerge from the critical reviews of academic discourses and case study based chapters from across the world including Sri Lanka Ghana Colombia and Rwanda This book is an invaluable resource for postgraduate students and researchers in Development Studies Conflict Studies Peace Studies and Security Studies

International Security, Peace, Development and Environment - Volume II Ursula Oswald Spring, 2009-08-30

International Security Peace Development and Environment is a component of Encyclopedia of Institutional and

Infrastructural Resources in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on International Security Peace Development and Environment deals in seven parts and two volumes with a myriad of issues of great relevance to our world such as human social gender and environmental security the transition in earth history from the holocene to the anthropocene potentially causing disasters and increasing resource scarcity limits to growth use of natural resources sustainable livelihood and productive system through technology rise of conflicts due to scarce and polluted resources and the concentration of humans in limited spaces of big cities the gender violence peace education and peace teaching as mechanisms to strengthen citizenship and to improve the understanding of cultural diversity mechanisms to strengthen the resistance against monopolist interests in the present global world and whistle blowing as a phenomenon to protect social peace and civil resistance The presentation culminates with a discussion on the means of active nonviolence to reinforce democratic behavior and to reduce tensions and violent outcomes in a complex world These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs

The Relationship between Human Security Discourse and International Law Shireen Daft, 2017-12-01 The concept of human security has emerged in international relations and policy as an idea which not only seeks to relocate the focus of international society on the individual but also challenges the current priorities of the international community In particular it places emphasis on promoting and facilitating a nexus between security development and human rights It is potentially a paradigm in the making gaining considerable momentum within the UN international relations scholarship and regional bodies And yet by and large it continues to be unexplored by the international legal community despite the success of a number of international treaties being attributed to the discourse This book seeks to address this gap and establish the nature of the relationship between human security discourse and international law determining whether human security can meaningfully contribute to the international legal framework To determine this the book analyses the core principles of human security discourse and examines the degree to which they find parallels in the existing normative structure of international law The book examines the how the broad narrow debate that dominates human security discourse has played out in international law making It goes on to consider the processes for the creation of so called human security treaties in order to determine a blueprint for future development of international human security treaty law In concluding Shireen Daft sets out a structured principled approach through which international legal scholarship can engage with human security highlighting the ways in which engagement between the two fields can be sustained

ECOWAS and the Dynamics of Conflict and Peace-building Thomas Jaye, Dauda Garuba, 2011-12-15 ECOWAS and the Dynamics of Conflict and Peace building testifies to the fact that we cannot talk of West African affairs more so of conflict and peace building without talking about ECOWAS For over two decades now West Africa has remained one of Africa's most conflict ridden regions It has been a theatre of some of the most atrocious brutalities in the modern world It has nonetheless witnessed one of the most ambitious internal efforts towards finding regional solutions to conflicts through ECOWAS The lead role of ECOMOG the ECOWAS peacekeeping force in search of peaceful solutions to civil wars in Liberia Sierra Leone Guinea Bissau and Cote d'Ivoire has yielded a mix of successes and failures In this book the authors take a candid look at the role that ECOWAS has played and show how the sub regional organisation has stabilised and created new conditions conducive to nation building in a number of cases Conversely the book shows that ECOWAS has aggravated if not created new tensions in yet other cases The comparative advantage that ECOWAS has derived from these experiences is reflected in the various mechanisms protocols and conventions that are now in place to ensure a more comprehensive conflict prevention framework This book provides a nuanced analysis of the above issues and other dynamics of conflicts in the region It also interrogates the roles played by ECOWAS and various other actors in the context of the complex interplay between natural resource governance corruption demography and the youth bulge gender and the conflicting interests of national regional and international players

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1999 Understanding Soft Power in Africa Oluwaseun Tella, 2025-10-21 Negative images of Africa which define the continent as being riven with poverty crime or war are increasingly being challenged Examples of soft power such as Nigeria's Nollywood athletic successes in Kenya Rwanda's commercial diplomacy and South Africa's liberal constitution are all reasserting African agency and shaping more positive understandings of the continent This book considers the role and impact of soft power in the African context and how it relates to the 21st century scramble for Africa Bringing together leading scholars in the field this book delves into various aspects of soft power in Africa shedding light on how the continent's attractiveness is shaped by soft power in the continent's biggest states the small states and also the regional organisations such as the African Union AU Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS Southern African Development Community SADC and East African Community EAC The book then goes on to assess the ways in which great powers most notably China the United States the United Kingdom Brazil and France are themselves deploying soft power in Africa in order to vie for influence resources and strategic advantages Understanding Soft Power in Africa will be an important read for researchers in political science international relations African studies and cultural studies as well as for African policymakers The Chinese and Their Future Zhiling Lin, 1994 Policy analysts and scholars in China Taiwan Hong Kong and the United States discuss the major issues arising in the aftermath of the explosive events in China in 1989 Contributors include Arthur Hummel the former U S ambassador to the People's Republic of China and Ding Mou Shih the representative of the Coordination Council for North American Affairs to the United States Peace Regime Building on the Korean Peninsula and Northeast Asian Security Cooperation Seung-Ho Joo, 2016-05-13 A permanent peace regime on the Korean peninsula has yet to be achieved even though the Korean War came to a halt more than half a century ago Without a peace treaty formally ending the Korean War the two Korean states are technically still at war The current situation on the

Korean peninsula is extremely tense and precarious and tensions and distrust between the two Koreas and between the U S and North Korea escalated in the wake of North Korea s second underground nuclear weapons testing in 2009 The editors of this volume conceptually present a two track inter Korean and international approach to Korean peninsula peace regime building They argue that an inter Korean and international approach should be pursued simultaneously for the construction of a permanent peace regime on the Korean peninsula The contributing authors are established specialists and experts on Korean foreign relations and Northeast Asian international relations As natives of the U S Korea China and Japan they provide objective scholarly and diverse perspectives on the Korean peace regime building Christian Register and Boston Observer ,1925 Daily Graphic Sam Clegg,1992-08-17 Multi-track Diplomacy Between India and Pakistan Manjrika Sewak,2005 This Book Introduces Multi Track Diplomacy As A Conceptual Framework For Building Sustainable Peace And Security Between India And Pakistan Tracing The Evolution Philosophy And Methodology Of Multi Track Diplomacy It Draws Attention To The Role That Civil Society Groups Have Played In Resolving And Transforming Protracted Conflicts This Study Draws Attention To The Challenges That Confront Those Working In The Area Of Multi Track Diplomacy And Makes Recommendations For Strengthening The Role And Impact Of Civil Society Peace Initiatives It Also Includes A Comparative Analysis Of The Non Official Dialogue Process Between The United States And The Former Soviet Union In Order To Extract The Best Practices And Lessons Learned That Might Be Insightful For The Peace Process Between India And Pakistan Realism, Strength, Negotiation ,1984 An anthology of 40 speeches by President Ronald Reagan Vice President George Bush and Secretary of State George Shultz Taken together they represent a comprehensive accounting of the Reagan administration s foreign policy the principles on which it is based its goals and purposes the plans and programs by which it has been advanced and the progress it has made toward achieving its goals The addresses cover each of the regions of the world and the major foreign policy initiatives undertaken by the Reagan administration The Unitarian Register ,1925
