Cinema, Politics, and Society in America Philip Davies, Brian Neve, 1981 The Politics of Hollywood Cinema R. Rushton, 2016-04-12 The Politics of Hollywood Cinema radically transforms our understanding of cinema s potential to be politically engaging and challenging Examining several films from Hollywood s classical era including Marked Woman Mr Smith Goes to Washington Born Yesterday On the Waterfront and It Should Happen to You alongside contemporary theories of democracy advanced by Ernesto Laclau Chantal Mouffe Claude Lefort tienne Balibar and Jacques Ranci re Richard Rushton argues that popular films can offer complex subtle relevant and controversial approaches to democracy and politics

Politics and Film Daniel P. Franklin, 2016-07-18 Politics and Film examines popular movies and television shows as indicators of social and political trends to explore the political culture of the United States Updated to include the popular and controversial movies and shows American Sniper House of Cards Orange Is the New Black and Twelve Years a Slave the second edition investigates popular conceptions of government the military intelligence and terrorism punishment and policing providing valuable insights for students of film and American politics alike

Contemporary Political Cinema Holtmeier Matthew Holtmeier,2019-01-03 The political films that have emerged on the global film festival circuit since the 1990s mark a shift in cinematic strategies for critically addressing dominant militant or otherwise repressive ideologies From a focus on the representation of oppression in films like The Battle of Algiers films such as Timbuktu Nobody Knows About Persian Cats and Chop Shop now contribute to the active formation of political characters and viewers a form not fully realized until the 21st century due to shifts in information technologies and resulting political organization This book demonstrates that a contemporary form of political cinema has emerged centered on the production of subjectivity and networks of protest which depicts the active formation of political identities that resonates with off screen protest movements

Movies and Politics James E. Combs,2013-12-17 Collecting together some of the best thinking about the relationship between movies and politics this book originally published in 1993 encourages an awareness of the political dimension of film both for film scholars and those entering the film industry Eight essays are grouped into four parts addressing political ideology and movie narrative political myth in the movies political history and movie culture and political communication and the movies An introductory essay as well as prefatory remarks to each of the four parts brings additional insight and perspective and puts the essays into context

American Politics in Hollywood Film Ian Scott,2011-05-06 In this second edition of American Politics in Hollywood Film Ian Scott takes up his analysis of political content and ideology through movies and contends that American culture and the institutional process continues to be portrayed debated and influen

Politics Goes to the Movies Robert Kolker,2018-03-14 Politics Goes to the Movies introduces the topic of political representation and ideology by analyzing some of the most important politically themed films across the history of cinema in a refreshing and concise volume Offering a survey of political cinema from 1915 to present day topics include propaganda Communism Fascism revolutionary cinema and contemporary documentary Using individual case studies that begin with The Birth of a Nation and end with O J Made in America the book introduces how various strands of international politics have been woven through the fabric of cinema by contextualizing each film in its particular historical moment In addition Robert Kolker offers formal analyses that explore not only overtly political themes but also how the structural properties of a film can themselves be political how political films are made politically Including films produced across Europe North Africa the US and Latin America this accessible and engaging book is an ideal introductory text for students of political cinema

Remapping World Cinema Stephanie Dennison,Song Hwee Lim,2006 Covering a broad scope this collection examines the cinemas of Europe East Asia India Africa and Latin America and will be of interest to scholars and students of film studies cultural studies and postcolonial studies as well as to film enthusiasts keen to explore a wider range of world cinema Jacket Hollywood Mark Wheeler,2006-09-11 At the beginning of the 21st century the US film industry had overtaken aeronautics and car industries to become one of the highest exporters of American products Mark Wheeler's important new book provides both a political history of Hollywood and a reflection on the relationship between cinema and politics in America from 1900 to the present day Wheeler considers the interplay between the movies studios state and national government and cultural policy and legislation with case studies of the censorship that followed in the wake of the Hays Code 1930 and the investigations of the House Committee of Un American Activities HUAC in the 1950s that led to the notorious blacklisting of alleged or known Communist sympathisers His history of political constituencies within Hollywood ranges from the conservative right to the liberal and the communist left from trades unionists to movie moguls The book concludes with a look at the politics of show business addressing links between Hollywood and political activism films such as The Candidate and Bulworth that have themselves engaged with the political process and considering the irony that despite the fact that Hollywood is perceived as a bastion of liberalism the two most famous actors turned politicians have been Ronald Reagan and Arnold Schwarzenegger Here's Looking at You Ernest D. Giglio,2000 In analyzing the relationship between politics portrayed on reel and real Washington politics Giglio politics and American studies Lycoming College Williamsport PA covers issues of the political film from the silent film era through the Red Scare and Vietnam to today Includes bandw film shots and a filmography Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The "Disguised" Political Film in Contemporary Hollywood Despoina-Betty Kaklamanidou,2016-10-20 With strict guidelines on methodology and time frame films produced after September 2001 and a socio semiotic theoretical framework Betty Kaklamanidou unpacks the problematic terms and ideas that go along with defining a new genre Kaklamanidou considers a different sub genre per chapter placing each group of films in their socio historical context to reach conclusions about the production of political films in millennial Hollywood In shifting the terms of the debate The Disguised Political Film in Contemporary Hollywood offers a fresh new approach to the subject of the political film The political film is not a clearly delineated object but rather an elusive one and resistant to clear boundaries So what is a political film Can The Hunger Games 2012 belong to the same category as Lincoln 2012 Is Jarhead 2005 a political movie simply because it is set during the Gulf War but with no reference to the motives of the conflict and or American and Arab relations and thus in the same group of war films such as The Three Kings 1999 another narrative that focuses on the same military conflict but includes direct commentary to governmental and military strategies Are historical films by definition political since the majority deals with significant events and or people in a specific socio cultural landscape Jacques Ranciere and the Politics of Art Cinema James Harvey,2018-07-02 Drawing on case studies of films including Charlie Kaufman's Synecdoche New York Nuri Bilge Ceylan's Climates and John Akomfrah's The Nine Muses this book asks to what extent is politics shaping art cinema

And in turn could art cinema possibly affect the political structure of the world as we know it

Cinema/Politics/Philosophy Nico Baumbach, 2018-09-30 Nico Baumbach revisits the much maligned tradition of seventies film theory to reconsider What does it mean to call cinema political He explores how cinema can condition philosophy through its own means challenging received ideas about what is seeable sayable and doable American Film and Politics from Reagan to Bush Jr. Philip John Davies, Paul Wells, 2002-10-11 Focusing on the two decades leading to the beginning of the 21st century this collection examines central issues in American politics and society through the films of the period Using everything from Oliver Stone to Disney Clint Eastwood to John Sayles Jurassic Park to Dumb and Dumber the international array of authors explore a number of themes These include the cinematic views of political institutions of politically significant places of the projection of major issues such as gender family and race and the cultural politics of the film makers themselves in America at the start of a new century Politics and the Cinema Michael A. Genovese, 1987

Here's Looking at You Ernest D. Giglio, 2010 Now in its third edition Here's Looking at You Hollywood Film and Politics examines the tangled relationship between politics and Hollywood which manifests itself in celebrity involvement in political campaigns and elections and in the overt and covert political messages conveyed by Hollywood films The book's findings contradict the film industry's assertion that it is simply in the entertainment business and examines how while the majority of Hollywood films are strictly commercial ventures hundreds of movies ranging from Birth of a Nation to Capitalism do indeed contain political messages This new edition has been updated with new photos and cartoons and includes two new chapters one on Afghan Iraqi war films and the other on the treatment of race and gender in Hollywood films that are sure to stimulate discussion Here's Looking at You serves as a basic text for political film courses and as a supplement in American government and film studies courses and will also appeal to film buffs and people in the film industry 1968 and Global Cinema Christina Gerhardt, Sara Saljoughi, 2018-10-17 The volume is ideal for graduate and undergraduate courses on the long sixties political cinema 1968 and new waves in art history cultural studies and film and media studies Politics and Film Leif Furhammar, Folke Isaksson, 1971
