Politics And Public Policy In Kenya And Tanzania:

Politics and Public Policy in Kenya and Tanzania Joel D. Barkan, 1984 Politics, Public Policy and Social Protection in Africa Nicholas Awortwi, Emmanuel Aiyede, 2017-05-08 Africa is now in a much improved position to support its poor and vulnerable people. It has more money, more policy commitment and abundant intervention programmes. Yet the number of citizens living lives of desperation or at risk of destitution is at an all time high and still rising. What is turning such positive prospects into such a disappointing result? Politics, Public Policy and Social Protection in Africa reveals key answers drawing on empirical studies of cash transfer programmes in Botswana, Ghana, Kenya, Nigeria and Uganda. Social cash transfer might be the most effective safety net formula to emerge so far. The country chapters in this book explore why it works and how it might be harnessed for poverty alleviation. The studies uncover the very different motives of donors, politicians and the poor themselves for making it their preferred choice, why governments are not expanding the donor driven pilot programmes as expected and why ruling elites are not trying to help or hinder a concept which on the face of it could derail one of their most lucrative gravy trains. This book will be of value and interest to researchers and students of African politics, African social policy and sociology as well as policy maker and donors.

Beyond Capitalism versus Socialism in Kenya and Tanzania Joel D. Barkan, 1994 Beyond Capitalism Vs. Socialism in Kenya and Tanzania Joel D. Barkan, 1994 Explores how Tanzania and Kenya often regarded as paradigms of capitalist and socialist development in Africa have responded to the challenges they face such as population growth, mounting external debt and structural adjustment by modifying their original approach to development.

State Politics and Public Policy in Eastern Africa Gedion Onyango, 2023-03-22 This book analyses major themes in twenty first century east African politics. Predominantly authored by researchers and academics from the region, it examines recent political developments, public policy and governance across east and southern African countries. The book advocates for a regionally focused comparative approach across Africa, arguing that it provides a greater level of analysis than a complete continental study. Adopting a multidisciplinary approach, it covers numerous topics relating to politics, public policy, state and nation building in Africa. Filling an important void in current literature, the book will appeal to academics, practitioners, politicians and students of politics, public policy and governance. Chapter 16 and 20 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com.

Kenya's and Zambia's Relations with China 1949-2019 Jodie Yuzhou Sun, 2023 Examines the history of post colonial Kenya's and Zambia's relations with the People's Republic of China from ideological, political, economic and social perspectives. Africa has become a major platform from which to analyse and understand China's growing influence in the global South. Yet the impact of their historical relationship has been largely overlooked. Through the triangulation of the global Cold War, African history and Chinese history, this study provides a detailed analysis of China-Africa relations in the second half of the 20th century. Examining the encounters, conflicts and dynamics of China-Kenya-Zambia relations from the 1950s until the present as well as the basis on which historical narratives have been constructed the book presents two contrasting state perspectives underlining the concept of African agency Driven by a class based analysis of world revolution Communist China s foreign policy did not distinguish significantly between Kenya and Zambia Both countries sought ideological and material support from China in the years after their independence The Kenya African National Union under both Jomo Kenyatta and Daniel Moi pursued a consistently pragmatic foreign agenda and despite political tensions and ideological rifts with China since the mid 1960s Sino Kenyan trade has continued to grow steadily In contrast China Zambia relations under Kenneth Kaunda were cordial despite their political differences Zambian leaders maintained a relatively high consensus that any alleged Chinese Communist threat would not be allowed to fuel power struggles within their United National Independence Party Challenging both the widely accepted role of China Africa s historical lineage as well as the tendency to assume uniformity in China s relationships across the continent the author explains the development of these relationships and sheds light on the historical underpinnings or lack thereof on contemporary China Africa relations

Political Development and the New Realism in Sub-Saharan Africa David Ernest Apter, Carl Gustav Rosberg, 1994 Since the 1950s David Apter and Carl Rosenberg have been among the leading American scholars in African Studies In this volume they along with other major specialists in the field explore the new configurations of African politics With tentative efforts at a revival of democracy now taking place it seems appropriate to reassess the theoretical debates and empirical themes that have characterized postwar Sub Saharan African politics Focusing on new realism that has emerged among Africanists since the dismantling of colonial rule the essays are presented as a corrective both to the initial euphoria informing African studies and to the later tendency to place blame for all Africa s political and economic difficulties on the receding specter of colonial oppression

Economic Growth and Measurement Reconsidered in Botswana, Kenya, Tanzania, and Zambia, 1965-1995 Morten Jerven, 2014-03 A study of how growth is measured in Botswana Kenya Tanzania and Zambia It looks at average economic growth GDP measurements and the association or lack thereof between economic growth and orthodox economic policies

Regimes in Tropical Africa Ruth Berins Collier, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982

African Political Parties M. A. Mohamed Salih, 2003-02-20 This book interrogates the political health of African political parties and evaluates the theory and practice of party functions ideology and structure Through fresh analysis using a variety of case studies the authors question the democratic credentials of African political parties and propose new methods for achieving inclusive broad based representation Themes include the evolution and institutionalisation of African political parties the unique historical political and social circumstances that shaped their structures and functions In the governance trajectory the authors question the relationship between African political parties and government political parties and representation political parties and electoral systems and political parties and parliament Case studies include Ethiopia Ghana Kenya Botswana Namibia South Africa Tanzania Zambia Zimbabwe and many others Democratic Transitions in East Africa F. Wafula Okumu, 2019-07-16 Originally published in 2004 Genocide in Rwanda massive floods of refugees and displaced people in the Horn of Africa violent civil wars in the West African countries of Sierra Leone and Liberia these are testimonies to the tremendous cost to grassroots communities when the authority and legitimacy of national political systems and leaders are called into question The consolidation of democracy represents one tangible strategy to restore authority and legitimacy of political rule providing the peace and security necessary for political enfranchisement and economic opportunity This volume explores the factors that are crucial to the emergence of democratic political systems on the African continent specifically focusing on Kenya Tanzania and Uganda It highlights the political challenges facing these countries during this crucial transition period and provides insights that are applicable to other countries engaged in this process in Africa and beyond

The Shadow of Kenyan Democracy Dominic Burbidge, 2016-03-09 Why has democracy failed to reduce corruption in Kenya Framing the challenge in game theoretical terms Dominic Burbidge examines how mutual expectations between citizens dictate the success or failure of political reforms Since 1992 Kenya has conducted multiparty elections with the hope of promoting accountability and transparency in government This is being undermined by ongoing corruption and an increasingly centralised state response to terrorism Providing a nuanced assessment of democracy's difficult road in Kenya Burbidge discusses the independent role being played by widespread social expectations of corruption Through tracking average views of the average person it is possible to identify a threshold beyond which society suffers mutually reinforcing negative social expectations This trend is the shadow of Kenyan democracy and must be treated as a policy challenge on its own terms before institutional reforms will be successful How Autocrats Compete Yonatan L. Morse, 2019 Explains how autocrats compete in unfair elections in Africa and highlights the strengths and weaknesses of modern authoritarianism

The Economic Roots of Conflict and Cooperation in Africa W. Ascher, N. Mirovitskaya, 2013-11-07 This book combines overviews of the nature and causes of inter group violence in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa with a collection of country case studies Both the overview chapter and the case studies trace how economic policy initiatives and consequent changes in the roles and statuses of various groups shape conflict or cooperation Handbook of Political Science Research on Sub-Saharan Africa Mark DeLancey, Mark W. Delancey, 1992-09-21 Covered are general surveys on political and social change in Africa development administration international relations and regional and national analyses A directory of major research centers in sub Saharan Africa and a select bibliography are also provided Democracy and Dictatorship in Ghana and Tanzania R. Pinkney, 1997-05-29 An examination of the evolution of democracy in Ghana and Tanzania following long periods of single party and military rule and looks at the current and potential obstacles to democratic development

After discussing the nature of democracy the author goes on to consider the conditions which have made the emergence of multi party politics possible in Ghana and Tanzania The book looks at the balance of forces between governments and campaigners for pluralist democracy and at the outcomes that emerged

Macro Policies For Appropriate Technology In Developing Countries Frances Stewart,2019-04-23 This book explores the effects of macro policies and determines which policies have best promoted appropriate technology in developing countries It explores the political economy of macro policies examining which groups in society are likely to benefit from alternative policies and technologies

Development Centre Studies Conflict and Growth in Africa Kenya, Tanzania and Uganda Volume 2 Klugman Jeni,Neyapti Bilin,Stewart Frances,1999-11-23 This is a book about conflict It identifies aggravating economic factors proceeds to an appreciation of its economic cost then proposes economic policy changes for Kenya Tanzania and Uganda

Institutions and Democracy in Africa Nic Cheeseman,2018-02-22 Historically African political institutions such as constitutions legislatures and judiciaries have been seen as weak and vulnerable to manipulation leading some to claim that the continent is institutionless However recent developments including the consolidation of presidential term limits in a number of countries demonstrate that this depiction is no longer tenable By drawing attention to how institutions can shape the practice of politics this book demonstrates that electoral commissions economic regulations and systems of land tenure are vital to our understanding of contemporary Africa A series of cutting edge contributions from leading scholars explain how the rules of the game shape political developments across the continent from Kenya to Nigeria and from Benin to South Africa In chapters that cover bureaucracies constitutions elections political parties the police and more the authors argue that a new research agenda is required if we are to better understand the process of democratisation
