Studies Asian Politics and Comparative Politics Citizens, Civil Society and Heritage-making in Asia Hsin-Huang Michael Hsiao, Hui Yew-Foong, Philippe Peycam, 2017-06-30 This volume is based on papers from the second in a series of three conferences that deal with the multi scalar processes of heritage making ranging from the local to the national and international levels involving different players with different degrees of agency and interests These players include citizens and civil society the state and international organizations and actors The current volume focuses on the role of citizens and civil society in the politics of heritage making looking at how these players at the grass roots level make sense of the past in the present Who are these local players that seek to define the meaning of heritage in their everyday lives How do they negotiate with the state or contest the influence of the state in determining what their heritage is These and other questions will be taken up in various Asian contexts in this volume to foreground the local dynamics of heritage politics Re-writing Culture in Taiwan , Historical Dictionary of Taiwan (Republic of China) John F. Copper, 2024-11-05 Taiwan is a place of contradictions Its successful economic and political modernization has stimulated the imaginations of most observers Still its nation state status has been constricted and weakened It covets and pursues peace yet it is a vortex actor in global strategic military competition It is small yet its importance far exceeds its size It has long occupied a crucial place in history even though it has not sought this status yet it appears inevitable that it will continue to do so Historical Dictionary of Taiwan Republic of China Fifth Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country s politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Taiwan The Vitality of Taiwan S. Tsang, 2012-09-10 As a country Taiwan is one of the most vibrant exciting colourful and entrepreneurial on earth The contributors reveal what underpins the vitality of Taiwan examining the relevance of its democratic politics civil society and the presence of an existential threat from China as well as the importance of its international business nexus Baptist Identities Ian M. Randall, Toivo Pilli, Anthony R. Cross, 2006-08-01 The authors of the papers published here come from a dozen different countries and represent different expressions of Baptist life The papers were delivered at the third International Conference on Baptist Studies held at the International Baptist Theological Seminary in Prague in July 2003 with the theme Baptist Identities Those who gave presentations explored what factors have contributed to the nature of Baptist distinctiveness in different countries and at different times In some cases the authors have written about their own contexts using specific case studies that relate to particular periods whereas in other cases they range more widely covering several countries and or longer periods of time Topics examined in this volume include theological education women in leadership issues of ethnicity Baptist identity and national consciousness and creeds The regional scope of the Baptist stories that are analyzed includes Africa Asia Australia Eastern and Western Europe and North America At a time when there is considerable discussion throughout the world Baptist community about the nature of Baptist identity this collection of papers by significant historians of Baptist life is an important contribution

The Rise of Progressive Cities East and West Mike Douglass, Romain Garbaye, K. C. Ho, 2019-02-25 This book explores the leading role that cities can play in shaping progressive policies in collaboration with various stakeholders It examines the timing of such shifts to progressivity in cities the interactions that enable progressive actions to be developed and sustained and the challenges and constraints facing progressive cities The book approaches the themes using an array of methods to investigate how progressive city governments emerge what constitutes a progressive city in terms of governance institutions processes and outcomes and whether progressive cities are destined to be ephemeral or if they can be sustained over time With its focus on the emerging role of local governments in shaping city futures this book is useful for students academics government official and policy makers interested in geography sociology urban planning public policy political economy social movements participatory democracy and Asian and European studies

Democracy on Trial Ya-Chung Chuang, 2013-06-07 Democracy on Trial is an attempt to begin to negotiate the problem of writing about and understanding democracy and social movements in Taiwan and what they can tell us about a place and country that for me is both home and the field an object of study and yet also an area of hope and engagement Democracy on Trial is as impressive for its conceptual sophistication as it is for its ethnographic depth Chuang's personal experiences and engagement with the movements he describes and analyzes bring to life the wealth of documentary and ethnographic data The study should be of interest not just to Taiwan scholars and readers but also those interested in issues of democracy in China and East Asia the politics of Taiwan PRC relations and social movement scholars and activists

Looking Through Taiwan Keelung Hong, Stephen O. Murray, 2005-01-01 This analysis of a troubling chapter in American anthropology reveals what happens when anthropologists fail to make fundamental ethnic and political distinctions in their work The authors examine how Taiwanese realities have been represented and misrepresented in American social science literature

The Landscape of Historical Memory Kirk A. Denton, 2021-03-01 The Landscape of Historical Memory explores the place of museums and memorial culture in the contestation over historical memory in post martial law Taiwan The book is particularly oriented toward the role of politics especially political parties in the establishment administration architectural design and historical narratives of museums It is framed around the wrangling between the blue camp the Nationalist Party or KMT and its supporters and the green camp Democratic Progressive Party or DPP and its supporters over what facets of the past should be remembered and how they should be displayed in museums Organized into chapters focused on particular types of museums and memorial spaces such as archaeology museums history museums martyrs shrines war museums memorial halls literature museums ethnology museums and ecomuseums the book presents a broad overview of the state of museums in Taiwan in the past three decades The case of Taiwan museums tells us much about Cold War politics and its legacy in East Asia the role of culture history and memory in shaping identities in the postcolonial landscape of Taiwan the politics of historical memory in an emergent democracy especially in counterpoint to the politics of museums in the People's Republic of China which continues to be an authoritarian single party state and the place of museums in a neoliberal economic climate This book offers unique insight into the configurations of international museum culture as manifested in the sociopolitical landscape of post martial law Taiwan Using case studies filled with telling details Denton analyzes how museums both reflect and initiate cultural change This work adds substantially to Taiwan studies and museology with in depth scholarship and innovative observations presented in a clear and compelling narrative Joseph R Allen University of Minnesota Twin Cities This is a fascinating and meticulously researched survey of Taiwan's museums Denton has produced a book that is both scholarly and highly readable It will appeal to a wide readership encompassing social scientists specializing in Taiwan students of Chinese or East Asian studies observers of Taiwanese politics and the local cultural scene and others besides Edward Vickers Kyushu University

Women in the New Taiwan Catherine Farris, Lee Anru, Murray A. Rubinstein, An East Gate Book, 2020-08-26 Taiwan's rapid socio economic and political transformation has given rise to a gender conscious middle class that is attempting to redefine the roles of women in society to restructure relationship patterns and to organize in groups outside the family unit This book examines internal psychological processes and external societal processes as the feminist movement in Taiwan expands and new gender roles are explored The contributors represent a cross section of different disciplines history anthropology and sociology and different generations of China Taiwan scholars They place the issues facing Taiwan's women's movement in social political and economic contexts The book examines gender relations the role of women in Chinese society and issues related to women in China throughout history Feminism and gender relations are also viewed from the context of film and literature The authors look at the contemporary roles that women play in Taiwan's work force today how the sexes perceive each other in the workplace and more

Dilemmas in Public Management in Greater China and Australia Andrew Podger, Hon S. Chan, Tsai-tsu Su, John Wanna, 2023-07-12 This book draws on more than a decade of workshops organised by the Greater China Australia Dialogue on Public Administration involving scholars and practitioners from Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan and Australia Although these workshops recognised the major differences in the institutional frameworks of these jurisdictions until recently they focused largely on the shared challenges and the diffusion of ideas and approaches As rising international tensions inevitably draw attention to areas where interests and philosophies diverge it is the differences that must now be highlighted Yet despite the tensions this book reveals that these jurisdictions continue to address shared challenges in public administration The book's contributors focus in detail on these four areas 1 intergovernmental relations including the shifting balance between centralisation and decentralisation 2 budgeting and financial management including during and after the COVID 19 pandemic 3 the civil service its capability and its relationship with government and the public 4 service delivery particularly in health and aged care This book is aimed at a wide readership not only at those within the jurisdictions it explores It emphasises the importance of continued engagement in understanding different approaches to public administration confirming fundamental philosophical differences where necessary but also looking for common ground and opportunities for shared learning

Building Temples in China Selina Ching Chan, Graeme Lang, 2014-11-27 Much has been written on how temples are constructed or reconstructed for reviving local religious and communal life or for recycling tradition after the market reforms in China The dynamics between the state and society that lie behind the revival of temples and religious practices initiated by the locals have been well analysed However there is a gap in the literature when it comes to understanding religious revivals that were instead led by local governments This book examines the revival of worship of the Chinese Deity Huang Daxian and the building of many new temples to the god in mainland China over the last 20 years It analyses the role of local governments in initiating temple construction projects in China and how development oriented temple building activities in Mainland China reveal the forces of transnational ties capital markets and identities as temples were built with the hope of developing tourism boosting the local economy and enhancing Chinese identities for Hong Kong worshippers and Taiwanese in response to the reunification of Hong Kong to China Including chapters on local religious memory awakening pilgrimage as a form of tourism women temple managers entrepreneurialism and the religious economy and based on extensive fieldwork Chan and Lang have produced a truly interdisciplinary follow up to The Rise of a Refugee God which will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese religion Chinese culture Asian anthropology cultural heritage and Daoism alike

Encountering Ideas of Place in Education Emma Rawlings Smith, Susan Pike, 2023-12-01 This book draws together theories research and practice on knowledges and pedagogies of place across educational settings Using empirical research on learning across education systems each chapter highlights different concepts of place in various contexts such as environments understandings of place like those experienced by communities and opportunities for embedding place in learning Chapters are co constructed by authors working collaboratively across different contexts tackling key themes such as justice mobilities changes and sustainability through place The book indicates how educators can apply creative approaches to teaching within through and about place in education and will therefore be of relevance to a wider range of academics teachers and practitioners working in early years settings schools universities and other educational context

Haunting Ruins Chiara Calzana, Valentina Gamberi, 2025-03-01 Ruins rubble and decaying material can foster a more layered theory of time change and memory The seven ethnographic case studies in Haunting Ruins trace human engagements with the temporal forces of ruins which can trace the past and transform the present Conjuring environmental humanities the anthropology of history memory and archaeology this book delves into the complex influence of the past on the present and the future and urges scholars to consider ruins as things to think with

Global Futures in East Asia Ann Anagnost, Andrea Arai, Hai Ren, 2013-01-09 The East Asian economic miracle of the twentieth century is now a fond memory What does it mean to be living in post miracle times For the youth of China Taiwan Japan and South Korea the opportunities and challenges of the neoliberal age deeply shaped by global forces in labor markets powerfully frame their life prospects in ways that are barely recognizable to their parents Global Futures in East Asia gathers together ethnographic explorations of what its contributors call projects of life making Here we see youth striving to understand themselves their place in society and their career opportunities in the nation region and world While some express optimism it is clear that many others dread their prospects in the competitive global system in which the failure to thrive is isolating humiliating and possibly even fatal Deeply engaged with some of the most significant theoretical debates in the social sciences in recent years and rich with rare cross national comparisons this collection will be of great interest to all scholars and students interested in the formation of subjects and subjectivities under globalization and neoliberalism

In Search of an Identity Edward Vickers, 2004-03-01 This book traces the influences that have shaped the secondary school history curriculum during Hong Kong's prolonged political transition between the 1960s and the early 21st century focusing especially on the relationship between history teaching and identity formation The author's experience as a local history teacher during the mid 1990s made him conscious of the peculiarities of the history curriculum at the time in particular the neglect of Hong Kong's own history in both syllabuses and textbooks and the unique division between History and the entirely separate subject of Chinese History
