Politics Of Multiple Belonging:

The Politics of Multiple Belonging Flemming Christiansen, Ulf Hedetoft, 2004 This international collection examines how ethnic identity and belonging are created and used politically in Europe and East Asia The contributors respond to debates about whether and how regional supranational transnational and multicultural identities may compromise nation states and how nation states deal with such centrifugal forces The issues are discussed from various perspectives diasporic communities the State and its role in inventing and influencing national belonging and societies and communities with a strongly engineered multicultural structure Two central theoretical chapters examine the current debates on belonging and multiculturalism bringing together this complex field and developing new perspectives In particular the volume improves our understanding of how people belong in different contexts by examining how they give shape to belonging it is possible to understand how these diverse trends cohere within nation states and across continents The Situated Politics of Belonging

Nira Yuval-Davis, Kalpana Kannabiran, Ulrike Vieten, 2006-08-10 Offers a collection of essays examining the racialized and gendered effects of contemporary politics of belonging This work is useful to scholars working in the areas of multiculturalism globalisation and culture race and ethnic studies gender studies and studies of post partition societies

The Politics of Belonging Nira Yuval-Davis, 2011-11-04 This is an in depth examination of a slippery and contradictory subject Knowledge alone is not enough for this type of project It takes breaking out of narrow conceptual cages and unsettling what we think of as stable meanings The author brings all of this to life in often unforgettable ways Saskia Sassen Professor Columbia University National identities were once taken largely for granted in social science Now they are part of an even more complex politics of belonging that challenges both public affairs and the categories of social science Nira Yuval Davis offers a nuanced account that will be important for scholars and all those concerned with contemporary politics Craig Calhoun Director LSE This is a cutting edge investigation of the challenging debates around belonging and the politics of belonging Alongside the hegemonic forms of citizenship and nationalism which have tended to dominate our recent political and social history Nira Yuval Davis examines alternative contemporary political projects of belonging constructed around the notions of religion cosmopolitanism and the feminist ethics of care The book also explores the effects of globalization mass migration the rise of both fundamentalist and human rights movements on such politics of belonging as well as some of its racialized and gendered dimensions A special space is given to the various feminist political movements that have been engaged as part of or in resistance to the political projects of belonging Yuval Davis deconstructs notions of national and ethnic and interrogates the effects that different political projects of belonging have on members of these collectivities who are differentially located socially economically and politically Bondage of Boundaries and Identity Politics in

Postcolonial Africa Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Sabelo J., Mhlanga, Brilliant, 2013-10-20 What has confounded African efforts to create cohesive prosperous and just states in postcolonial Africa What has been the long term impact of the Berlin Conference of 1884 5 on African unity and African statehood Why is postcolonial Africa haunted by various ethno national conflicts Is secession and irredentism the solution Can we talk of ethno futures for Africa These are the kinds of fundamental questions that this important book addresses Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni and Brilliant Mhlenga s book introduces the metaphor of the northern problem to dramatise the fact that there is no major African postcolonial state that does not enclose within its borders a disgruntled minority that is complaining of marginalization domination and suppression The irony is that in 1963 at the formation of the OAU postcolonial African leaders embraced the boundaries arbitrarily drawn by European colonialists and institutionalised the principle of inviolability of boundaries thereby contributing to the problem of ethno national conflicts The successful struggle for independence of the Eritrean people and the secession of South Sudan in 2011 have encouraged other dominated and marginalised groups throughout Africa to view secession as an option Ndlovu Gatsheni and Mhlenga successfully assembled competent African scholars to deal exhaustively with various empirical cases of ethno national conflicts throughout the African continent as well as engaging with such pertinent issues as Pan Africanism as a panacea to these problems This important book delves deeper into complex issues of space languages conflict security nation building war on terror secession migration citizenship militias liberation violence and Pan Africanism

Cultural Change in Post-Migrant Societies Wiebke

Sievers,2023-12-11 This open access book links the artistic and cultural turn in migration studies to the larger struggle for narrative and cultural change in European migration societies It proposes theoretical and methodological approaches that highlight how ideas of change expressed in artistic and cultural practices spread and lead to wider cultural change The book also looks at the slow processes of change in large cultural institutions that emerged at a time when culture was nationalised It explains how individual and group activities can have an impact beyond their immediate surroundings Finally the book discusses how migration researchers have cooperated with arts and cultural producers and used artistic means to increase the effect of their research in the wider public As such the book provides a great resource for graduate students and researchers in the social sciences and the humanities who have an interest in migration studies and want to move beyond interpreting the world towards changing it

Territories, Environments, Politics Andrea Mubi Brighenti, Mattias Kärrholm, 2022-04-19 This collection seeks to illustrate the state of the art in territoriological research both empirical and theoretical The volume gathers together a series of original previously unpublished essays exploring the newly emerging territorial formations in culture politics and society While the globalisation debate of the 1990s largely pivoted around a general deterritorialisation hypothesis since the 2000s it has become apparent that rather than effacing territories global connections are added to them and represent a further factor in the increase of territorial complexity Key questions follow such as How can we further the knowledge around territorial complexities and the ways in which different processes of territorialisation co exist and interact integrating scientific advances from a plurality of disciplines Where and what forms does territorial complexity assume and how do complex territories operate in specific instances Which technological political and cultural facets of territories should be tackled to make sense of the life of territories How and by what different or combined methods can we describe territories and do justice to their articulations and meanings How can the territoriological vocabulary relate to contemporary social theory advancements such as ANT the ontological turn the mobilities paradigm sensory urbanism and atmospheres research How can territorial phenomena be studied across disciplinary boundaries Territories Environments Politics casts a fresh perspective onto a number of key contemporary socio spatial phenomena Refraining from the attempt to ossify territoriology into some disciplinary straightjacket the collection aims to illustrate the scope of current territoriological research its domain its promises its theoretical advancements and its methodological reflection in the making Scholars interested in social research will find in this collection a rich and imaginative theoretical methodological toolkit Students in human geography anthropology and sociology socio legal studies architecture and urban planning will find Territories Environments Politics of interest

Europe from Below Tuuli Lähdesmäki, Katja Mäkinen, Viktorija Linda Aldona Čeginskas, Sigrid Kaasik-Krogerus, 2021-03-15 In this book Tuuli Lähdesmäki, Katja Mäkinen, Viktorija L. Čeginskas and Sigrid Kaasik-Krogerus scrutinize how people who participate in cultural initiatives funded and governed by the European Union understand the idea of Europe The book focuses on three cultural initiatives the European Capital of Culture the European Heritage Label and a European Citizen Campus project funded through the Creative Europe programme These initiatives are examined through field studies conducted in 12 countries between 2010 and 2018 The authors describe their approach as ethnography of Europeanization and conceptualize the attempts at Europeanization in the European Union's cultural policy as politics of belonging

The Cultural Politics of COVID-19 John Nguyet Erni, Ted Striphas, 2022-08-22 COVID 19 isn't simply a viral pathogen nor is it strictly speaking the trigger of a global pandemic Since the outbreak began in late 2019 an outpouring of clinical and scientific research together with an array of public health initiatives has sought to understand mitigate or even eradicate the virus This book represents a snapshot of critical responses by researchers from 10 countries and 4 continents in a collective effort to explore how Cultural Studies can contribute to our struggle to persevere in a no normal horizon with no clear end in sight Together the essays address important questions at the intersection of culture power politics and public health What are the possible outlines for the panic pandemic complex How has the pandemic been endowed with meanings and affective registers often at the tipping points where existing social relations and medical understanding were being rapidly displaced by new ones How can societies discover ways of living with through and against COVID that do not simply reproduce existing hierarchies and power relations The 30 essays comprising this collection along with the editors introduction explore the formative period of the COVID pandemic from mid 2020 to mid 2021 They are grouped into three sections Racializations Media Data and

Fragments of the Popular and Un knowing the Pandemic themes that animate but do not exhaust the complex cultural and political life of COVID 19 with respect to identity technology and epistemology No doubt readers will chart their own pathway as the pandemic continues to rage on based on their own unique circumstances This book provides critical intellectual guideposts for the way forward toward an uncertain future without guarantees The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Cultural Studies Politics and Poetics of Belonging Mounir Guirat,2018-04-18 The contributions gathered in this volume bear witness to the fact that belonging is a multi faceted concept that necessitates different and shifting idioms of expression It continually requires reconsideration and redefinition of our affiliations in response to the rapid social cultural and political changes of our world The literary paradigms linguistic practices and cultural formations of belonging testify to the impossibility of confining it to conventional and established structures of knowledge The different reflections on belonging introduced in this book are instrumental in reassessing and remodelling the general assumptions that have informed its definition and representation The current global reality and the self other encounter make inevitable the continuous search for new forms of belonging that are in tune with one s evolving and changing sense of self Theoretically informed by and substantially grounded in lively and heated debates on cultural identity and belonging this book proposes new critical directions in understanding national and transnational belonging

The Price of Belonging: Perspectives from Asia ,2023-04-17 To belong often involves the performance of burdensome obligations the sacrifice or suppression of personal desires for the collective good and the demand for demonstrating lifelong loyalty Belonging may also entail hidden threats risks and pressures that lurk in the corners of familiarity These are the key aspects that The Price of Belonging explores in detail by bringing together nine original ethnographic case studies from across Asia and the Asian diaspora By shedding light on the adverse facets of belonging the book challenges its overly idealistic depictions and offers a differentiated look at this social practice Digital, Political, Radical Natalie Fenton,2018-02-27 Digital Political Radical is a siren call to the field of media and communications and the study of social and political movements We must put the politics of transformation at the very heart of our analyses to meet the global challenges of gross inequality and ever more impoverished democracies Fenton makes an impassioned plea for reinvigorating critical research on digital media such that it can be explanatory practical and normative She dares us to be politically emboldened She urges us to seek out an emancipatory politics that aims to deepen our democratic horizons To ask how can we do democracy better What are the conditions required to live together well Then what is the role of the media and how can we reclaim media power and politics for progressive ends Journeying through a range of protest and political movements Fenton debunks myths of digital media along the way and points us in the direction of newly emergent politics of the Left Digital Political Radical contributes to political debate on contemporary re configurations of radical progressive politics through a consideration of how we experience counter politics in the digital age and how this may influence our
