Politics Of Writing Centers:

The Politics of Writing Centers Jane V. Nelson, Kathy Evertz, 2001 This book explores the terrain of power in which writing centers are located Radical Writing Center Praxis Laura Greenfield, 2019-04-15 In Radical Writing Center Praxis Laura Greenfield calls for a paradigm change in writing centers imagining a field whose very reason for being is to facilitate justice and peace The book calls on readers to more critically examine power and agency in writing centers and to imagine new possibilities for the field s theories and practices Large intersecting systems of oppression manifest in the everyday practices of institutions classrooms and writing centers Local practices in turn influence the surrounding world Radical Writing Center Praxis therefore challenges the writing center field to resist assumptions of political neutrality and instead to redefine itself in terms of more explicit ethical commitments In this paradigm it is clear that to engage in anti oppression work is not merely a special interest but rather a vital interest to all Introducing the concepts and vocabulary of radical politics Radical Writing Center Praxis examines the tensions between the field s professed beliefs and everyday practices and offers a process by which the writing center discipline as a whole might rebuild itself anew It will be invaluable to writing center directors tutors scholars and students as well as to administrators and compositionists Writing Centers and the New Racism Laura Greenfield, Karen Rowan, 2011-12-16 Noting a lack of sustained and productive dialogue about race in university writing center scholarship the editors of this volume have created a rich resource for writing center tutors administrators and scholars Motivated by a scholarly interest in race and whiteness studies and by an ethical commitment to anti racism work contributors address a series of related questions How does institutionalized racism in American education shape the culture of literacy and language education in the writing center How does racism operate in the discourses of writing center scholarship lore and how may writing centers be unwittingly complicit in racist practices How can they meaningfully operationalize anti racist work How do they persevere through the difficulty and messiness of negotiating race and racism in their daily practice The conscientious nuanced attention to race in this volume is meant to model what it means to be bold in engagement with these hard questions and to spur the kind of sustained productive multi vocal and challenging dialogue that with a few significant exceptions has been absent from the field Writing Centers and Learning
