Removing Politics from the Administration of Justice United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1974

Politics and the Administration of Justice George F. Cole, 1973 Removing Politics from the Administration of Justice United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Separation of Powers, 1974 The Judicial System Carlo Guarnieri, Patrizia Pederzoli, 2020-05-29 This timely book explores the expansion of the role of judges and courts in the political system and the mixed reactions generated by these developments In this comprehensive book Carlo Guarnieri and Patrizia Pederzoli draw on a wealth of experience in teaching and research in the field moving beyond traditional legal analysis and providing a clear concise and all encompassing introduction to the phenomenon of the administration of justice and all of its traits The Oxford Handbook of Administrative Justice Marc Hertogh, Richard Kirkham, Robert Thomas, Joe Tomlinson, 2022 The core animating feature of administrative justice scholarship is the desire to understand how justice is achieved through the delivery of public services and the actions inactions and decision making of administrative bodies The study of administrative justice also encompasses the redress systems by which people can challenge administrative bodies to seek the correction of injustices For a long time now scholars have been interested in administrative justice but without necessarily framing their work as such Rather than existing under the rubric of administrative justice much of the research undertaken has existed within sub categories of disciplines such as law sociology public policy politics and public administration Consequently although aspects of the topic have attracted rich contributions across such disciplines administrative justice has rarely been studied or taught in a manner that integrates these areas of research more systematically This Handbook signals a major change of approach Drawing together a group of world leading scholars of administrative justice from a range of disciplines The Oxford Handbook of Administrative Justice shows how administrative justice is a vibrant complex and contested field that is best understood as an area of inquiry in its own right rather than through traditional disciplinary silos Government and Politics of the Contemporary Middle East Tareq Y. Ismael, Jacqueline S. Ismael, 2012-10-02 This exciting new book for students of Middle Eastern politics provides a comprehensive introduction to the complexities of the region its politics and people Combining a thematic framework for examining patterns of politics with individual chapters dedicated to specific countries the book explores current issues within an historical context Presenting information in an accessible and inclusive format the book offers coverage of the historical influence of colonialism and major world powers on the shaping of the modern Middle East a detailed examination of the legacy of Islam analysis of the political and social aspects of Middle Eastern life alienation between state and society poverty and social inequality ideological crises and renewal case studies on countries in the Northern Belt Turkey and Iran the Fertile Crescent Iraq Syria and Lebanon Israel and Palestine and those West and East of the Red Sea Egypt and the members of the Gulf Cooperation Council extensive pedagogical features including original maps and detailed further reading sections provide essential support for the reader A key introductory text for students of Middle Eastern politics and history at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels this book will also be a significant reference for policy makers and any motivated reader

How are we to assess and evaluate the quality of the tribunal systems that do the day to day work of adjudicating upon the disputes individuals have with government This book examines how the idea of adjudicative quality works in practice by presenting a detailed case study of the tribunal system responsible for determining appeals lodged by foreign nationals who claim that they will be at risk of persecution or ill treatment on return to their country of origin Over recent years the asylum appeal process has become a major area of judicial decision making and the most frequently restructured tribunal system Asylum adjudication is also one of the most difficult areas of decision making in the modern legal system Integrating empirical research with legal analysis this book provides an in depth study of the development and operation of this tribunal system and of asylum decision making The book examines how this particular appeal process seeks to mediate the tension between the competing values under which it operates There are chapters examining the organisation of the tribunal system its procedures the nature of fact finding in asylum cases and the operation of onward rights of challenge An examination as to how the tensions inherent in the idea of administrative justice are manifested in the context of a tribunal system responsible for making potentially life or death decisions this book fills a gap in the literature and will be of value to those interested in administrative law and asylum adjudication Administrative Justice in the 21st Century Michael Harris, Martin Partington, 1999-04-01 The idea of administrative justice is central to the British system of public law more embracing than judicial review or even administrative law itself It embraces all the mechanisms designed to achieve a proper balance between the exercise of public and quasi public power and those affected by the exercise of that power This book contains revised versions of the papers given at the International Conference on Administrative Justice held in Bristol in 1997 Forty years after the publication of the Franks Committee report on Tribunals and Inquiries the conference reflected on developments since then and sought to provoke debate about how the future might unfold Participants included policy makers tribunal chairs and ombudsmen other decision takers as well as academics a formidable combination of expertise in the operation of the administrative justice system Among the themes addressed in the papers are the following the effect of the changing nature of the state on current institutions human rights and administrative justice the relationship between decision taking reviews of decisions and the adjudication of appeals and the overview of administrative justice taking into account lessons from abroad The new millenium provides an opportunity for the reappraisal of the British system of administrative justice this volume presents an indispensable repository of the ideas needed to understand how that system should develop over the coming years Contributors Michael Adler Margaret Allars Dame Elizabeth Anson Lord Archer of Sandwell Michael Barnes Julia Black Christa Christensen David Clark Gwynn Davis Godfrey Cole Suzanne Day Julian Farrand Tamara Goriely Michael Harris Ed Neville Harris Tony Holland Terence Ison Christine Lally Douglas Lewis Rosemary Lyster Aileen McHarg Walter Merricks Linda Mulcahy Stephen Oliver Alan Page Martin Partington Ed David Pearl Jane Pearson Paulyn Marrinan Quinn John Raine Andrew Rein Alan Robertson Roy Sainsbury John Scampion Chris Shepley Caroline Sheppard Patricia Thomas Brian Thompson Nick Wikeley Tom Williams Jane Worthington Richard Young Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States.
