Politics In The Congo Decolonization And Independence:

Politics in Congo Crawford Young, 2015-12-08 The process of decolonization the development of the nationalist movement and the salient aspects of the emerging post independence policy in the Congo since 1954 are studied Special emphasis is given to the forces set loose by the Leopoldville explosion Originally published in 1965 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Politics in the Congo: Decolonization and Independence Crawford Young, 1965 Politics in the Congo: decolonization and independence, Princeton, N.J., Princet Crawford Young, Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 5, A Bibliographic Guide to Colonialism in Sub-Saharan Africa L. H. Gann, Peter Duignan, 1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism Global Geopolitical Power and African Political and Economic Institutions John James Quinn, 2015-12-30 Global Geopolitical Power and African Political and Economic Institutions When Elephants Fight describes the emergence and nature of the prevailing African political and economic institutions in two periods In the first most countries adopted political and economic institutions that funneled significant levels of political and economic power to the political elites usually through one or no party military political systems inward oriented development policies and or state led and often state owned industrialization In the second period most countries adopted institutions that diluted the overarching political and economic power of ruling elites through the adoption of de jure multiparty electoral systems more outward oriented trade policies and the privatization of many state owned or controlled sectors though significant political and economic power remains in their hands The choices made in each period were consistent with prevailing ideas on governance and development the self interests of political elites and the perceived availability of support or autonomy vis vis domestic regional and international sources of power at the time This book illustrates how these two region wide shifts in prevailing political and economic institutions and practices of Africa can be linked to two prior global geopolitical realignments the end of WWII with the ensuing American and Soviet led bipolar system and the end of the Cold War with American primacy Each period featured changed or newly empowered international and regional leaders with competing national priorities within new intellectual and geopolitical climates altering the opportunities and constraints for African leaders in instituting or maintaining particular political and economic institutions or practices The economic and political institutions of Africa that emerged did so as a result of a complex mix of contending domestic regional and international forces material and intellectual all which were themselves greatly transformed in the wake of these two global geopolitical realignments Longman Companion to European Decolonisation in the Twentieth Century Muriel E. Chamberlain, 2014-06-11 This new Companion brings together in one single volume all the essential facts and figures relating to European decolonisation in the twentieth century Professor Chamberlain has taken each European empire in turn the British French Dutch Portuguese Spanish Belgian and Italian and for each one she has provided a detailed chronology of the process of decolonisation in the individual states

Regime Change and Succession Politics in Africa Maurice Nyamanga Amutabi, Shadrack Wanjala Nasong'o, 2013 Bringing together scholars from a wide array of disciplines including anthropology economics history sociology and political science this volume addresses the problems of the regime change and state failure in Africa in the context of the global economy but from a specifically African perspective arguing that the underdevelopment of the African economy is linked to the underdevelopment of the continent's nation states

Gender and the Political Economy of Conflict in Africa Meredith Turshen, 2016-01-29 Violence affects the economy of production and the ecology of reproduction the production of economic goods and services and the generational reproduction of workers the regeneration of the capacity to work and maintenance of workers on a daily basis and the renewal of culture and society through community relations and the education of children Gender and the Political Economy of Conflict in Africa explores the persistence of violence in conflict zones in Africa using a political economy framework This framework employs an analysis of violence on both edges of the spectrum a macro economic analysis of violence against workers and a micro political analysis of the violence in women's reproductive lives These analyses come together to create a new explanation of why violence persists a new political economy of violence against women and a new theoretical understanding of the relation between production and reproduction Three case studies are discussed the Democratic Republic of the Congo violence in an era of conflict Sierra Leone violence post conflict and Tanzania which has not seen armed conflict on the mainland This book fills a significant gap on the political economy of war and women gender for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as researchers in African Studies Gender Studies and Peace and Conflict Studies

The Politics of Governance Lucy Koechlin, Till Förster, 2014-11-13 How do government arrangements emerge When and how does individual agency turn into collective agency How do sensory experiences of violence instability etc affect the configuration of governance arrangements When why and how are governance arrangements institutionalized This book seeks to contribute to a non normative conceptualization of the emergence and transformation of government arrangements and addresses the under theorization of actors and agency in conventional governance theories The editors and contributors theorize the concept of governance more concretely by analyzing the key actors and arrangements that define states of governance across different places and by examining its performance and development in particular settings and time periods Each contribution to the edited volume is based on a case study drawn from Africa though the book argues that the core issues identified remain the same across the world though in different empirical contexts The contributions also range across key disciplines from anthropology to sociology to political science This ground breaking volume addresses governance arrangements discusses how social actors form such arrangements and concludes by synthesizing an actor centered understanding of political articulation to a general theory of governance Scholars across disciplines such as political science development studies African studies and sociology will find the book insightful

Authentically African Sarah Van Beurden,2015-11-25 Together the Royal Museum for Central Africa in Tervuren Belgium and the Institut des Mus es Nationaux du Zaire IMNZ in the Congo have defined and marketed Congolese art and culture In Authentically African Sarah Van Beurden traces the relationship between the possession definition and display of art and the construction of cultural authenticity and political legitimacy from the late colonial until the postcolonial era Her study of the interconnected histories of these two institutions is the first history of an art museum in Africa and the only work of its kind in English Drawing on Flemish language sources other scholars have been unable to access Van Beurden illuminates the politics of museum collections showing how the IMNZ became a showpiece in Mobutu s effort to revive authentic African culture She reconstructs debates between Belgian and Congolese museum professionals revealing how the dynamics of decolonization played out in the fields of the museum and international heritage conservation Finally she casts light on the art market showing how the traveling displays put on by the IMNZ helped intensify collectors interest and generate an international market for Congolese art The book contributes to the fields of history art history museum studies and anthropology and challenges existing narratives of Congo s decolonization It tells a new history of decolonization as a struggle over cultural categories the possession of cultural heritage and the right to define and represent cultural identities

A New Paradigm of the African State M. Muiu,G. Martin,2009-01-05 Offers a historical multidisciplinary perspective on African political systems and institutions ranging from Antiquity Egypt Kush and Axum to the present with particular focus on their destruction through successive exogenous processes including the Atlantic slave trade imperialism colonialism and neo colonialism or globalization

Anti-Refugee Violence and African Politics Ato Kwamena Onoma,2013-10-07 Using comparative cases from Guinea Uganda and the Democratic Republic of Congo this study explains why some refugee hosting communities launch large scale attacks on civilian refugees whereas others refrain from such attacks even when encouraged to do so by state officials Ato Kwamena Onoma argues that such outbreaks only happen when states instigate them because of links between a few refugees and opposition groups Locals embrace these attacks when refugees are settled in areas that privilege residence over indigeneity in the distribution of rights ensuring that they live autonomously of local elites The resulting opacity of their lives leads locals to buy into their demonization by the state Locals do not buy into state denunciation of refugees in areas that privilege indigeneity over residence in the distribution of rights because refugees in such areas are subjugated to locals who come to know them very well Onoma reorients the study of refugees back to a focus on the disempowered civilian refugees that constitute the majority of refugees even in cases of severe refugee militarization

The Lumumba Plot Stuart A. Reid, 2014-11-05 The New York Times Book Review Editors Choice A spellbinding work of history that reads like a Cold War spy thriller about the U S sanctioned plot to assassinate the democratically elected leader of the newly independent Congo A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR The New Yorker The Economist Financial Times This is one of the best books I have read in years gripping full of colorful characters and strange plot twists Fareed Zakaria CNN host It was supposed to be a moment of great optimism a cause for jubilation The Congo was at last being set free from Belgium one of seventeen countries to gain independence in 1960 from ruling European powers At the helm as prime minister was charismatic nationalist Patrice Lumumba Just days after the handover however the Congo's new army mutinied Belgian forces intervened and Lumumba turned to the United Nations for help in saving his newborn nation from what the press was already calling the Congo crisis Dag Hammarskjöld the Swedish serving as UN secretary general quickly arranged the organization's biggest peacekeeping mission in history But chaos was still spreading Frustrated with the fecklessness of the UN and spurned by the United States Lumumba then approached the Soviets for help an appeal that set off alarm bells at the CIA To forestall the spread of Communism in Africa the CIA sent word to its station chief in the Congo Larry Devlin Lumumba had to go Within a year

everything would unravel The CIA plot to murder Lumumba would zzzle out but he would be deposed in a CIA backed coup transferred to enemy territory in a CIA approved operation and shot dead by Congolese assassins Hammarskjöld too would die in a mysterious plane crash en route to negotiate a cease re with the Congo's rebellious southeast And a young ambitious military officer named Joseph Mobutu who had once sworn fealty to Lumumba would seize power with U S help and misrule the country for more than three decades For the Congolese people the events of 1960-61 represented the opening chapter of a long horror story For the U S government however they provided a playbook for future interventions

Anatomy of Rebellion Claude E. Welch Jr., 1980-06-30 Anatomy of Rebellion provides an understanding of four rebellions that will make clear the factors that are crucial in the development of other rebellions Seeking a political pattern in the process of rebellion Claude Welch Jr has investigated four large scale rural uprisings that came close to becoming revolutions the Taiping rebellion in China 1850-64 the Telengana uprising in India of 1946-51 the Mau Mau rebellion in Kenya of 1952-56 the Kwilu uprising in Zaire of 1963-65 Weaving the facts of these rebellions with theories about political violence Welch follows the rebellions through the initial stages of discontent to the explosion of violence to the suppression of the uprisings He then challenges explanations of political violence both Marxist and non Marxist that other scholars have proposed Rebellions have not been studied as thoroughly as the major successful revolutions although the frequency of rebellions in the modern world is not likely to diminish Rural dwellers' discontents are still clashing with central governments' ambitions Anatomy of Rebellion clarifies how this volatile type of political violence occurs
