Politics Of Atrocity And Reconciliation From Terror To Trauma:

1990, Skaar, Siri Gloppen, Astri Suhrke, 2005-01-01 The past two decades have witnessed the end of several civil wars and authoritarian regimes The global media brings the height of the conflicts to an international audience but as the wars end and tensions resolve the media turns away neglecting the often painful and slow process of reconciliation In this volume experts with both practical and policy experience in international conflict explore how societies confront and negotiate a repressive past characterized by gross human rights violations Grounding readers in theoretical approaches the book explores contemporary experiences of reconciliation in Africa Latin America Europe and Asia Electoral Politics in Zimbabwe, Vol II Esther Mavengano, Sophia Chirongoma, 2023-08-08 Volume two of Electoral Politics in Zimbabwe The 2023 Election and Beyond argues that research into Zimbabwe s politics is multifaceted and topical particularly because for more than two decades now this Southern African state has been dogged by multiple problems including hyperinflation drought escalating poverty levels extremely high unemployment rates and political instabilities The volume s overall goal is to ignite intellectual discussions and practical action towards turning the political wheels that have been in place for decades The first segment examines the interface between gender and electoral politics in Zimbabwe The second part discusses the role of the media in Zimbabwe s electoral politics The third section reflects on the role of traditional leaders and religious discourses in Zimbabwe s electoral politics The book will be a key resource to colleges universities and organisations in Zimbabwe the Southern Africa region and even beyond Rethinking Insecurity, War and Violence Damian Grenfell, Paul James, 2008-07-25 Rethinking Insecurity War and Violence Beyond Savage Globalization is a collection of essays by scholars intent on rethinking the mainstream security paradigms Overall this collection is intended to provide a broad and systematic analysis of the long term sources of political military and cultural insecurity from the local to the global The book provides a stronger basis for understanding the causes of conflict and violence in the world today one that adds a different dimension to the dominant focus on finding proximate causes and making quick responses Too often the arenas of violence have been represented as if they have been triggered by reassertions of traditional and tribal forms of identity primordial and irrational assertions of politics Such ideas about the sources of insecurity have become entrenched in a wide variety of media sources and have framed both government policies and academic arguments Rather than treating the sources of insecurity as a retreat from modernity this book complicates the patterns of global insecurity to a degree that takes the debates simply beyond assumptions that we are witnessing a savage return to a bloody and tribalized world It will be of particular interest to students and scholars of international relations security studies gender studies and globalization studies New Zealand's empire Katie Pickles, Catharine Coleborne, 2015-11-01 Both colonial and postcolonial historical approaches often sideline New Zealand as a peripheral player This book redresses the balance and evaluates its role as an imperial power as both a powerful imperial envoy and a significant presence in the Pacific region The Politics and Philosophy of Michael Oakeshott Stuart Isaacs, 2006-09-27 Michael Oakeshott was a leading Political theorist described by The Telegraph in 1990 as the greatest political philosopher in the Anglo Saxon tradition since Mill or even Burke There has been sustained interest in his work and a developing body of literature over recent years This book offers a clearly written and accessible critical analysis it presents complex theories and concepts in a way that will introduce new readers to Oakeshott s work and at the same time offers a fresh approach for those already familiar with his philosophy The Politics and Philosophy of Michael Oakeshott reveals how his work relates to contemporary political philosophy for example Arendt Rorty Rawls and moreover how it links to broader debates within philosophy and the social sciences and building upon the work of Devigne through to postmodernism This book brings together the disparate influences that have at various times been associated with Oakeshott s work and draws from a number of essays which have been published posthumously Referring to these and other more well known texts the author makes sense of the many dimensions of Oakeshott s work by placing a moral concern as central to his system of thought All in all this book considers the recently published lesser known essays as well as the latest secondary appraisals of Oakeshott s work which sets his thought in the contemporary political environment of the twenty first century This much needed text will be of great interest to students and researchers in political science and philosophy The Penitent State Paul Muldoon, 2023-09-15 This book asks a deceptively simple question what are states actually doing when they do penance for past injustices Why are these penitential gestures especially the gesture of apology becoming so ubiquitous and what implications do they carry for the way power is exercised Drawing on the work of Schmitt Foucault and Agamben the book argues that there is more at stake in sovereign acts of repentance and redress than either the recognition of the victims or the legitimacy of the state Driven it suggests by an interest in healing such acts testify to a new biopolitical raison d tat in which the management of trauma emerges as a critical expression of attempts to regulate the life of the population The Penitent State seeks to show that the key issue created by the age of apology is not whether sovereign acts of repentance and redress are sincere or insincere but whether the political measures licensed in the name of healing deserve to be regarded as either restorative or just Torture and Peacebuilding in Indonesia Budi Hernawan, 2017-10-25 State sponsored torture and peacebuilding encapsulate the essence of many of the current conflicts in Indonesia Papua in particular provides a thought provoking example of the intricacy and complexity of building peace amidst enduring conflict and violence This book examines the complex power relations that have constructed the gruesome picture of the fifty year practice of torture in Papua as well as the ongoing Papuan peacebuilding movements that resist the domineering power of the Indonesian state over Papuans Conceptualising theatres of torture and peace the book argues that torture in Papua is performed in public by the Indonesian state in order to communicate its policy of terror towards Papuans it is not meant for extracting information gaining confessions or exacting punishment A Torture Dataset is provided codifying evidence from a broad range of cases collected through sensitive interviews In examining the data the author crafts a new more holistic framework for analyzing cases of torture and employs an interdisciplinary approach integrating three different theories Foucault's theory of governmentality and sovereignty Kristeva's theory of abjection and Metz's theory of memoria passionis the memory of suffering The book successfully establishes a new understanding of torture as public theatre and offers a new perspective of strengthening the existing Papuan peacebuilding framework of Papua Land of Peace It will be of interest to academics working on Southeast Asian Studies Peace and Conflict Studies Transitional Justice Peacebuilding Human Rights and Anthropology of Violence

The Other Side of Absence Betty O'Neill, 2020-08-05 Betty O'Neill grew up knowing very little about her father Antoni She knew that he had fled Poland after World War Two that he had disappeared overnight when she was just an infant and that his brief reappearance when she was a young adult had been a harrowing painful ordeal Fifty five years after he deserted her family Betty is determined to find out more What drove him to abandon them twice What was his story Who was Antoni Jagielski Her search for truth takes Betty to Poland where she unexpectedly inherits a family apartment from the half sister she never knew a time capsule of her father's life Sifting through photos and letters she begins to piece together a picture of her father as a Polish resistance fighter a survivor of Auschwitz and Gusen concentration camps an exile in post war England and a migrant to Australia But the deeper she searches the darker the revelations about her father become as Betty is faced with disturbing truths buried within her family Honest compelling and meticulously researched The Other Side of Absence is an elegant debut memoir of resilience and strength and of a daughter reconciling the damage that families inherit from war

Life Writing and Politics of Memory in Eastern Europe Simona Mitroiu, 2015-08-25 This volume addresses the issues of remembering and performing the past in Eastern European ex communist states in the context of multiplication of the voices of the past The book analyzes the various ways in which memory and remembrance operate it does so by using different methods of recollecting the past from oral history to cultural and historical institutions and by drawing on various political and cultural theories and concepts Through well documented case studies the volume showcases the plurality of approaches available for analyzing the relationship between memory and narrative from an interdisciplinary and international perspective

The SAGE Handbook of Globalization Manfred Steger, Paul Battersby, Joseph Siracusa, 2014-05-22 Global studies is a fresh and dynamic discipline area that promises to reinvigorate undergraduate and postgraduate education in the social sciences and humanities In the Australian context the interdisciplinary pedagogy that defines global studies is gaining wider acceptance as a coherent and necessary approach to the study of global change Through the Global Studies Consortium GSC this new discipline is forming around an impressive body of international scholars who define their expertise in global terms The GSC paves the way for the expansion of global studies programs internationally and for the development of teaching and research collaboration on a global scale Mark Juergensmeyer and Helmut Anheier's forthcoming Encyclopaedia of Global Studies with SAGE is evidence of this growing international collaboration while the work of Professor Manfred Steger exemplifies the flourishing academic literature on globalization RMIT University's Global Cities Institute represents a substantial institutional investment in interdisciplinary research into the social and environmental implications of globalization in which it leads the way internationally Given these developments the time is right for a book series that draws together diverse scholarship in global studies This Handbook allows for extended treatment of critical issues that are of major interest to researchers and students in this emerging field The topics covered speak to an interdisciplinary approach to the study of global issues that reaches well beyond the confines of international relations and political science to encompass sociology anthropology history media and cultural studies economics and governance environmental sustainability international law and criminal justice Specially commissioned chapters explore diverse subjects from a global vantage point and all deliberately cohere around core global concerns of narrative praxis space and place This integrated approach sets the Handbook apart from its competitors and distinguishes Global Studies as the most equipped academic discipline with which to address the scope and pace of global change in the 21st century

French Orientalist Literature in Algeria, 1845-1882 Sage Goellner, 2018-03-06 This book applies the growing theoretical field of hauntology to a body of literature which has previously been examined through the lenses of Orientalism and exoticism Through a chronological study and close readings of the writings of Thophile Gautier Eugène Fromentin Gustave Flaubert and Pierre Loti the project identifies haunting echoes within the texts which demonstrate an ambivalence of attitudes towards colonialism and which undermine any claim towards a monolithic imperialist French ideology Whereas hauntological theory has been used to illuminate literature from the Francophone post colonial period it has not yet been applied to texts produced during the French colonial period The originality of this project thus lies in the application of Derridean hauntological theory to works from an earlier period each of which in one way or another addresses the theme of colonial violence By revisiting four classic works of colonial Orientalism with haunting as a principal theme this analysis provides a critical witnessing of France's violent colonization of Algeria that demonstrates France's latent anxieties about the colonial project at the time

Affective Communities in World Politics Emma Hutchison, 2016-03-11 Emotions underpin how political communities are formed and function Nowhere is this more pronounced than in times of trauma The emotions associated with suffering caused by war terrorism natural disasters famine and poverty can play a pivotal role in shaping communities and orientating their politics This book investigates how affective communities emerge after trauma Drawing on several case studies and an unusually broad set of interdisciplinary sources it examines the role played by representations from media images to historical narratives and political speeches Representations of traumatic events are crucial because they generate socially embedded emotional meanings which in turn enable direct victims and distant witnesses to share the injury as well as the associated loss in a manner that affirms a particular notion of collective identity While ensuing political orders often re-establish old patterns traumatic events can also generate new emotional cultures that genuinely transform national and transnational communities New Perceptions of the Vietnam War Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen, 2014-12-12 The effects of the War outside present day Vietnam are ongoing Substantial Vietnamese communities in countries that participated in the conflict are contributing to renewed interpretations of it This collection of new essays explores changes in perceptions of the war and the Vietnamese diaspora examining history politics biography and literature with Vietnamese American Australian and French scholars providing new insights Twelve essays cover South Vietnamese leadership and policies women and civilians veterans overseas smaller allies in the war Australia accounts by U S Australian and South Vietnamese servicemen as well as those of Indigenous soldiers from the U S and Australia memorials and commemorations and the legacy of war on individual lives and government policy Families of the Missing Simon Robins, 2013-05-29 Families of the Missing interrogates the current practice of transitional justice from the viewpoint of the families of those disappeared and missing as a result of conflict and political violence Studying the needs of families of the missing in two contexts Nepal and Timor Leste the practice of transitional justice is seen to be rooted in discourses that are alien to predominantly poor and rural victims of violence and that are driven by elites with agendas that diverge from those of the victims In contrast to the legalist orientation of the global transitional justice project victims do not see judicial process as a priority Rather they urgently seek an answer concerning the fate of the missing and to retrieve human remains As important are livelihood issues where families are struggling to cope with the loss of breadwinners and seek support to ensure economic security Although rights are the product of a discourse that claims to be global and universal needs are necessarily local and particular the product of culture and context And it is from this perspective that this volume seeks both to understand the limitations of transitional justice processes in addressing the priorities of victims and to provide the basis of an emancipatory victim centred approach to transitional justice The Gender of Reparations Ruth Rubio-Marin, 2009-07-31 This text articulates approaches to gender in the design and implementation of reparations for victims of human rights violations Archives for Maintaining Community and Society in the Digital Age Keiji Fujiyoshi, 2020-12-12 This book explores how a society accepts and utilizes a system of archives to improve the quality of people s lives at each level of community organization and government This is the first book that examines the political economic and social background that has prevented the development of archival systems in Japan in comparison with other societies of different cultures such as the United States Romania India and Korea An archival system is an indispensable tool to live in the present and create a future by sharing an understanding of the past For that reason this book considers what respecting the past means from the point of view that people experience in their workplace to reconcile tragic experiences such as conflict injustice or corruption Then the book shows how a system of archives plays a significant role in a democratic society because it serves as a foundation of evidence based decision making for a specific group or the public Thus this volume provides guidance for ways that a society can build a common understanding of the importance of sharing the past to maintain community and society The Tabloid Terrorist A. Spencer, 2010-04-14 This book introduces a constructivist approach to the study of terrorism and shows how language in the media affects our perceptions of terrorists and how particular constructions of terrorist automatically make certain counter terrorism policies possible logical and seemingly appropriate Violence and Non-Violence in Africa Pal Ahluwalia, Louise Bethlehem, Ruth Ginio, 2007-03-12 This unique volume seeks both to historicize and to deconstruct the pervasive almost ritualistic association of Africa with forms of terrorism as well as extreme violence the latter bordering on and including genocide Africa is tendentiously associated with violence in the popular and academic imagination alike Written by leading authorities in postcolonial studies and African history as well as highly promising emergent scholars this book highlights political social and cultural processes in Africa which incite violence or which facilitate its negotiation or negation through non violent social practice The chapters cover diverse historical periods ranging from fourteenth century Ethiopia and early twentieth century Cameroon to contemporary analyses set in Kenya Tanzania Nigeria Cameroon the Ivory Coast and South Africa It makes a crucial contribution to a revitalized understanding of the social and historical coordinates of violence or its absence in African settings Violence and Non Violence in Africa will be of interest to students and scholars of African history and anthropology colonialism and post colonialism political science and Africanist cultural studies The Rule of Violence Salwa Ismail, 2018-08-23 Provides an original analysis of the routine and spectacular forms of violence deployed by the Asad regime in Syria over the last four decades
