Longstreth, 1992-09-25 These essays demonstrate how the historical institutional approach to the study of politics reveals the nature of institutional change and its effect on policy making The Political Ideas of Thorstein Veblen Sidney Plotkin, Rick

Tilman, 2011-12-06 Thorstein Veblen is best known for his authorship of The Theory of the Leisure Class and The Theory of Business Enterprise which made him a celebrated figure in the fields of economics and sociology at the turn of the twentieth century In this book Sidney Plotkin and Rick Tilman argue that in addition to his well known work in these fields Veblen also made important and until now overlooked statements about politics While Veblen's writings seldom mention politics they are saturated with political ideas about the relationship among war executive power and democracy about the similarities between modern executive positions and monarchy about the political influence of corporate power about the symbolism of politics and about many other issues By demonstrating the deep relevance of Veblen's writings to today's political troubles

The Political Ideas of Thorstein Veblen offers an important reconsideration of a major American thinker American Government Alan R. Gitelson, Robert L. Dudley, Melvin J. Dubnick, 2017-01-27 What students think they know about politics is often based on common myths Rather than dismissing those myths as outright falsehoods this text encourages students to confront their preconceived notions in order to think critically about government and politics Clearly and distinctively woven into each chapter the myths and realities theme provides a pedagogical framework that engages students with interesting problems while effectively covering the core concepts of American government Politics and Jobs Margaret

Campbell, 2001-11-30 The creation of temporary independent advisory bodies that give advice to Congress is an important yet under investigated area of congressional delegation With variations to fit the circumstances lawmakers entrust commissions to accomplish diverse goals such as coping with increases in the scope and complexity of legislation forging consensus drafting legislation finessing institutional obstacles coordinating strategy and promoting party unity Campbell investigates why and when Congress formulates policy by commissions rather than by the normal legislative process He shows that many variables go into the decision to entrust those bodies to render non partisan recommendations According to lawmakers and their staff the three primary justifications for choosing to delegate to commission include expertise workload and avoidance Which of these three dominates depends in large part on the politics surrounding a particular issue and the nature of the policy problem The logic of delegation to each of the three commission types is different Which reason dominates depends in large part on the politics surrounding the issue and the nature of the
