Douglas Saltmarshe

Politics Of Language In Socialist Albania:

The Politics of Language in Socialist Albania Arshi Pipa, 1989 A systematic analysis of the transformation and utilization of language as an instrument of communist politics in Albania Political Independence with Linguistic Servitude Samuel Gyasi Obeng, Beverly Hartford, 2002 This book addresses important issues to the democratisation and development initiatives of developing countries In many former colonies the government remains centralised and many in the population are unable to fully participate in its functioning A critical difference between being a subject and a citizen is the ability to partake in governance Such involvement requires knowledge literacy and the availability of literature in local and national languages This book challenges policy makers and scholars to find creative ways of fostering political empowerment through developing language programmes The Politics of Language and Nationalism in Modern Central Europe T.

Kamusella, 2008-12-16 This work focuses on the ideological intertwining between Czech Magyar Polish and Slovak and the corresponding nationalisms steeped in these languages The analysis is set against the earlier political and ideological history of these languages and the panorama of the emergence and political uses of other languages of the region Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume One , 2013-07-15 Modern Balkan history has traditionally been studied by national historians in terms of separate national histories taking place within bounded state territories The authors in this volume take a different approach They all seek to treat the modern history of the region from a transnational and relational perspective in terms of shared and connected as well as entangled histories transfers and crossings This goes along with an interest in the way ideas institutions and techniques were selected transferred and adapted to Balkan conditions and how they interacted with those conditions The volume also invites reflection on the interacting entities in the very process of their creation and consecutive transformations rather than taking them as givens Contributors include Alexander Vezhenkov Constantin Iordachi Raymond Detrez Ronelle Alexander Roumen Daskalov and Tchavdar Marinov The Albanians Miranda Vickers, 2011-01-28 This is the first full account of a country that following decades of isolation has undergone unprecedented changes to its political system the collapse of communism the progression to multi party elections and the upheaval that followed the March 1997 uprising Miranda Vickers traces the history of the Albanian people from the Ottoman period to the formation of the Albanian Communist Party She considers the charismatic leadership of Enver Hoxha Albania's relationship with Tito and the alliance with the Soviet Union and then China and the long period of isolation Newly revised for this paperback edition The Albanians considers the gradual process of reform and the fragility of the Albanian experiment with democracy and includes a dramatic account of the days leading up to Sali Berisha's resignation of the presidency It has now been updated to cover the fight for independence in Kosovo and the progress of Albania's application to join the EU

Identity in a Post-communist Balkan State Douglas Saltmarsh, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 In seeking to better understand post communist identity change this book presents an analysis based on the study of everyday life in two villages in northern Albania The author describes the villages from the perspective of community economic activity and relations with the state The book applies theories relating identity and civil society to the social economic and political realities associated with post communist transformation By describing village life in northern Albania at the close of the 20th century it aims to complement the anthropological work undertaken by Edith Durham in the early 1900s and by Margaret Hasluck in the 1930s Beyond Eurocentrism Peter Gran,1996 Employing the approaches of Gramsci and Foucault Gran proposes a reconceptualisation of world history He challenges the convention of relying on totalitarian or democratic functions of a particular state to explain relationships of authority and resistance in a number of national contexts

Diplomacy and Crisis Management in the Balkans Gazmen Xhudo,2016-07-27 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall observers and players of American foreign policy have been wrestling with what US policy is and more importantly what it should be in the post Cold War era The breakdown of communism in the East has coincided with the outbreak of warfare in the former Yugoslavia to add a new sense of urgency for those seeking a direction for US foreign policy This work seeks to demonstrate how reactive rather than proactive measures by the US in both democracy promotion and in crisis management have been short sighted resulting in the present failure Eastern Europe Since 1970 Bulent Gokay,2015-12-22 From the hardening grip of Soviet domination under Brezhnev to the collapse of communism and its aftermath Bulent Gokay provides the essential introduction to Eastern Europe in the last quarter of the twentieth century The Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968 spelt the end of reformist communism and the tightening of Soviet control throughout Eastern Europe In spite of this several countries within the Soviet Bloc managed to retain varying degrees of independence over the next two decades Focusing on the struggle towards economic and social modernisation in the region and the competing influences of East and West in a dangerous Cold War Bulent Gokay shows how individual circumstances and diverse national characteristics made a uniform application of the Soviet model impossible and charts the growing resistance to domination and the momentous events which finally toppled Soviet power in the region Language and Nationalism in Europe Stephen Barbour,Cathie Carmichael,2000-12-14 This book examines the role of language in the present and past creation of social cultural and national identities in Europe It considers the way in which language may sometimes reinforce national identity as in England while tending to subvert the nation state as in the United Kingdom After an introduction describing the interactive roles of language ethnicity culture and institutions in the character and formation of nationalism and identity the book considers their different manifestations throughout Europe Chapters are devoted to Britain and Ireland France Spain and Portugal Scandinavia the Netherlands and Belgium Germany Austria Switzerland and Luxembourg Italy Hungary Poland Slovakia and the Czech Republic Bulgaria Bosnia Hercegovina Albania Slovenia Romania Croatia Macedonia Serbia Montenegro and Kosovo Greece and Turkey the Ukraine Belarus Moldova the Baltic States and the Russian Federation The book concludes with a consideration of the current relative status of the languages of Europe and how these and the identities they reflect are changing and evolving Kosovo Dr Denisa Kostovicova,2005-10-09 Kosovo The Politics of Identity and Space explores the Albanian Serbian confrontation after Slobodan Milosevic s rise to power and the policy of repression in Kosovo through the lens of the Kosovo education system The argument is woven around the story of imposed ethnic segregation in Kosovo s education and its impact on the emergence of exclusive notions of nation and homeland among the Serbian and Albanian youth in the 1990s The book also critically explores the wider context of the Albanian non violent resistance including the emergence of the parallel state and its weaknesses Kosovo The Politics of Identity and Space not only provides an insight into events that led to the bloodshed in Kosovo in the late 1990s but also shows that the legacy of segregation is one of the major challenges the international community faces in its efforts to establish an integrated multi ethnic society in the territory

The Albanians Edwin E. Jacques,2012-03-21 Historically described as mysterious and xenophobic Albania and its people are little known to most westerners But they are near the center of age old explosive Balkan conflicts With the employment of Albanian French Italian and many other documentary sources the roots of Albanian civilization the struggle of the Albanians to maintain their cultural and linguistic integrity the impact of foreign influence on the country and its recent move toward democracy are all detailed here Ismail Kadare Peter Morgan,2017-07-05 Ismail Kadare has experienced a life of controversy In his own country and internationally he has been both acclaimed as a writer and condemned as a lackey of the Albanian socialist dictatorship Coming of age after occupation and war Kadare b 1936 belonged to the first generation of new Albanians In a land where writers were routinely imprisoned Kadare produced the most brilliant and subversive works to emerge from socialist Eastern Europe His work brings to an end the century whose literary beginnings were marked by the terror to which Kafka gave his name The inaugural award of the International Man Booker Prize for Literature in 2005 marked an important milestone in the global recognition of Kadare Ironic multi layered and imaginative Kadare s writing is profoundly opposed to ideology Through critical analysis of a representative selection of Kadare s works Peter Morgan explains for a wide audience how Kadare survived and wrote in the repressive Albanian Stalinist environment Peter Morgan is Professor of European Studies at the University of Western Australia Founding a Balkan State Robert Clegg

Austin,2012-09-26 Founding a Balkan State examines the pivotal period in Albanian history when the country s fundamental goals and directions were most hotly contested In 1920 liberal Albanian leaders led by the US educated Bishop Fan S Noli began working to introduce democracy to the country hoping that it would lead to modernization prosperity and overturning the legacy of five hundred years of Ottoman rule In 1924 these leaders mounted a successful revolution by 1925 however their forces were in retreat Albania soon slid into dictatorship under Ahmed Bey Zogu first as president then as self proclaimed king Founding a Balkan State provides the only comprehensive assessment in English of these events Robert C Austin first delves into the country s weak domestic and international position both before and after the First World War then assesses the internal and external challenges posed to its state and nation building efforts Austin shrewdly demonstrates how the missed opportunities of Albania's political transition affected the course of Balkan history for decades to come

Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration Elena Marushiakova, 2021-02-03 This collection was inspired by the international conference Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration organized by the Balkan Ethnology Department of the Ethnographic Institute and Museum at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences and realized as project of the European Commission Jean Monnet Action Program for the support of Study and Research Centers The book opens a debate on the changing notions of identity in the region of Central and Eastern Europe on the base of analysis of social developments influenced by EU accession and EU integration process The most important aspect is the analysis of processes of breaking up the borders of national identity and transition towards new forms of transnational identities and emerging of consciousness of All European unity The book has a dual focus on general topics related to the study of national and transnational identities and on the process of European integration It brings together the work of researchers not only from different parts of Europe from France to Russia but from USA and Asia too This book is a starting point for East West discussion and brings new knowledge that will be an invaluable contribution to the common European research area

Ethnic Politics in Eastern Europe: A Guide to Nationality Policies, Organizations and Parties Janusz Bugajski, 2016-09-16 This guide charts national histories and policies relevant statistics and chronologies and the identities programmes and activities of the full spectrum of ethnically based parties and organizations in Central and Eastern Europe

When Languages Collide Brian D. Joseph, 2003 The Walls Behind the Curtain Harold B. Segel, 2012-11-11 Because of their visibility in society and ability to shape public opinion prominent literary figures were among the first targets of Communist repression torture and incarceration Authors such as Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn famously documented the experience of internment in Soviet gulags Little however has been published in the English language on the work of writers imprisoned by other countries of the Soviet bloc For the first time The Walls Behind the Curtain presents a collection of works from East European novelists poets playwrights and essayists who wrote during or after their captivity under communism Harold B Segel paints a backdrop of the political culture and prison and labor camp systems of each country detailing the onerous conditions that writers faced Segel then offers biographical information on each writer and presents excerpts of their writing Notable literary figures included are Vaclav Havel Eva Kanturkova Milan Simecka Adam Michnik Milovan Djilas Paul Goma Tibor Dery and Visar Zhiti as well as many other writers This anthology recovers many of the most important yet overlooked literary voices from the era of Communist occupation Although translated from numerous languages and across varied cultures there is a distinct commonality in the experiences documented by these works The Walls Behind the Curtain serves as a testament to the perseverance of the human spirit and a quest for individual liberty that many writers forfeited their lives for
