Politics Of Peace In Mozambique Post Conflict Democratization 1992 2000:

The Politics of Peace in Mozambique Carrie Manning, 2002-11-30 Manning examines issues of democratization and conflict resolution through the lens of the Mozambican experience from 1992 2000 Since the end of the Cold War a formal democratization process has been at the center of virtually every negotiated peace agreement to end a civil conflict Nearly a decade after the Rome peace accord put an end to 16 years of civil war Mozambique stands out as one of the world's most unlikely postwar democratization success stories What accounts for the durability of the postwar political settlement What lessons does the Mozambican experience hold for other such cases Relying on original research conducted in Mozambique between 1994 and 1999 Manning argues that the country's relatively successful postwar political settlement depends upon the ability of the system to accommodate conflicting notions of democratic and system legitimacy through routine recourse to processes of sustained elite bargaining which supplement formal democratic institutions In building her case Manning provides a thorough and provocative analysis of the country's civil conflict presents ground breaking work on the transformation of the Renamo rebel group into a political party and the separation of the Relimo party state into its respective components and he presents a clear eyed analysis of the lessons and limits of Mozambique's postwar success Of particular interest to scholars students and policymakers involved with democratization conflict resolution and southern African politics

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Peace and Conflict Studies Oliver P. Richmond, Gëzim Visoka, 2022-06-21 This encyclopaedia provides a comprehensive overview of major theories and approaches to the study of peace and conflict across different humanities and social sciences disciplines Peace and conflict studies PCS is one of the major sub disciplines of international studies including political science and international relations and has emerged from a need to understand war related systems and concepts and how to respond to it afterward As a living reference work easily discoverable and searchable the Palgrave Encyclopedia of Peace and Conflict Studies offers solid material for understanding the foundational historical and contemporary themes concepts theories events organisations and frameworks concerning peace conflict security rights institutions and development The Palgrave Encyclopaedia of Peace and Conflict Studies brings together leading and emerging scholars from different disciplines to provide the most comprehensive and up to date resource on peace and conflict studies ever produced

Explaining Postconflict Reconstruction Desha M. Girod, 2015 The international community has donated nearly one trillion dollars during the last four decades to reconstruct post conflict countries Where did the money go This book argues that foreign aid only fosters reconstruction when post conflict leaders are desperate for income and thus depend on aid that comes with reconstruction strings attached

The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues

The African Affairs Reader Nic Cheeseman,Lindsay Whitfield,Carl Death,2017-05-19 African Affairs is the top journal in African Studies and has been for some time This book draws together some of the most influential important and thought provoking articles published in its pages over the last decade In doing so it collates essential cutting edge research on Africa and makes it easily available for students teachers and researchers alike The African Affairs Reader is broken down into four sections that cover some of the biggest themes and questions facing the continent today including the African State the Political Economy of Development Africa s Relationship with the World and Elections Representation Democracy Within each section articles deal with some of the most significant recent trends and events such as the prospects for democratization in Ghana and Nigeria the factors underpinning Rwanda s economic success the rise of political corruption in South Africa the spread of the drugs trade the struggle against gender based violence and the growing influence of China Each section is introduced by a new purpose written essay by the journal s editors that explains the evolution of the wider debate highlights key contributions and suggests new ways in which the discussion can be taken forward Taken together the essays and articles included in the volume provide both a coherent introduction to the study of Africa and a compelling commentary on the current state of play on the continent

Nationalism and Territoriality in Barue and Mozambique André Van Dokkum,2020-05-06 Nationalism as an ideology coupling self conscious peoples to fixed territories is often seen as emerging from European historical developments also in postcolonial countries outside Europe Andr van Dokkum s Nationalism and Territoriality in Barue and Mozambique shows that this view is not universally true The precolonial Kingdom of Barue in what is now Mozambique showed characteristics generally associated with nationalism giving the country great resilience against colonial encroachment Postcolonial Mozambique on the other hand has so far not succeeded in creating national coherence The former anti colonial organization and now party in power Frelimo has always stressed national unity but only under its own guidance paradoxically producing disunity

Dams, Displacement, and the Delusion of Development Allen F. Isaacman,Barbara S. Isaacman,2013-04-10 Cahora Bassa Dam on the Zambezi River built in the early 1970s during the final years of Portuguese rule was the last major infrastructure project constructed in Africa during the turbulent era of decolonization Engineers and hydrologists praised the dam for its technical complexity and the skills required to construct what was then the world s fifth largest mega dam Portuguese colonial officials cited benefits they expected from the dam from expansion of irrigated farming and European settlement to improved transportation throughout the Zambezi River Valley to reduced flooding in this area of unpredictable rainfall The project however actually resulted in cascading layers of human displacement violence and environmental destruction Its electricity benefited few Mozambicans even after the former guerrillas of FRELIMO Frente de Libertação de Moçambique came to power instead it fed industrialization in apartheid South Africa Richard Roberts This in depth study of the region examines the dominant developmentalist narrative that has surrounded the dam chronicles the continual violence that has accompanied its existence and gives voice to previously unheard narratives of forced labor displacement and historical and contemporary life in the dam's shadow

From Bullets to Ballots John Ishiyama, 2018-12-07 In recent years an increasing amount of research has argued that the successful transformation of rebel organization into parties is critical to stable post conflict peace and democratization However the process of the transformation of rebel groups into parties is not well understood Under what conditions do rebel groups transform into parties Or into something else What are the causal mechanisms that lead to the successful transformation of rebel groups into political parties Does the transformation of rebel groups into parties actually contribute to political stability and democratization How does transformation differ from region to region The chapters in this book directly address these questions and include a combination of broader theoretical and empirical chapters coupled with several in depth case studies by some of the most notable scholars in the field It should prove indispensable to students of both civil wars post conflict peace and political parties This book was originally published as a special issue of Democratization

The Routledge Handbook of International Crime and Justice Studies Bruce Arrigo, Heather Bersot, 2013-08-15 This book presents the enduring debates and emerging challenges in crime and justice studies from an international and multi disciplinary perspective

Political Science in Africa, 2023-12-28 Bringing together African and international scholars this book gives an account of the present state of the discipline of political science in Africa generating insights into its present and future trajectories and assessing the freedom with which it is practiced Tackling subjects including the decolonization of the discipline political scientists as public intellectuals and the teaching of political science this diverse range of perspectives paints a detailed picture of the impact and relevance of the political science discipline on the continent during the struggles for democratization and the influence it continues to exert today

Sustainable Food Futures Jessica Duncan, Megan Bailey, 2017-08-04 Securing sustainable food for everyone is one of the world's most pressing challenges but research policy and programmes remain fragmented and effective solutions have been slow to emerge This book takes on these challenges by proposing a range of solutions that can advance pathways towards sustainable food futures Complete with recipes this book is structured so that readers are taken in a logical progression through discussions of solutions highlighting the need to recognise the importance of place and the importance of participation and to challenge dominant descriptions of markets through to re designing food systems The solutions presented in this book are based on real world cases but discussions remain deliberately broad to encourage thinking in new ways Cases are drawn from Africa Asia Europe and North and South America The book is of relevance to those interested in sustainable food futures and can serve as a supplementary textbook for a wide range of courses in food studies and related disciplines The Winds of History Andreas Zeman,2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dur e Contrary to persistent clich s of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people s room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside African Citizenship Aspirations Catarina Antunes Gomes,Cesaltina Abreu,2018-12-07 This collective work aims to critically reflect upon contemporary citizenship aspirations and practices in sub Saharan Africa Focusing on different realities such as Angola Mozambique and the Great Lakes region it tries to unveil multiple historical commonalities especially those arising from shared experiences of postcolonial violence and vulnerability Thus albeit the social realities under scrutiny cannot stand for the complexity of the Continent the studies here gathered enlighten similar processes that can be identified in many other African contexts That is certainly the case of the proliferation of religious manifestations and democratic demands that are currently being articulated in different countries such as Burundi Central African Republic Ethiopia Sudan Uganda and Nigeria One such commonality can be referred to as a quest for being Indeed this quest for being has always underpinned African discourses and practices either in postcolonial approaches either in intellectual traditions either in popular productions These multiple practices reveal how in certain circumstances identity as a product of historical wills of knowledge power and truth can be questioned as a site of possession and entrapment How is one to be beyond colonial possession Or beyond postcolonial authoritarian rule Or beyond eurocentrism African quests for being have always been quests for freedom And they impose a debate on regimes of citizenship Active citizenship is not merely a by product of formal political systems it is one that challenges them from the outside while actualizing the lessons of historical liberation struggles As times goes by the right to be still stands The chapters of this book were originally published as a special issue in Citizenship Studies Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures - Continental Europe and its Empires Prem Poddar,2011-09-21 The first reference work to provide an integrated and authoritative body of information about the political cultural and economic contexts of postcolonial literatures that have their provenance in the major European Empires of Belgium Denmark France G The Politics of Peace in Mozambique Carrie

Manning,2002-11-30 Selected bibliography pp 217 224 Religion and Health Care in East Africa Robert B Lloyd,Melissa Haussman,Patrick James,2019-03-13 What social factors contribute to the tragic state of health care in Africa Focusing on East African societies this book is the first to investigate what role religion plays in health care in African cultures Taking into account the geopolitical and economic environments of the region the authors examine the roles played by individual and group beliefs government policies and pressure from the Millennium Development Goals in affecting health outcomes Informed by existing related studies and on the ground interviews with individuals and organizations in Uganda Mozambique and Ethiopia this interdisciplinary book will form an invaluable resource for scholars seeking to better understand the links between society multi level state instruments and health care in East Africa Ending Africa's Wars Roy May,2016-04-29 Post colonial Africa has seemingly been in an intractable state of conflict and war for a considerable period of time This volume explores the process by which these wars were ended discusses the lessons learnt and examines the sustainability of recently reconciled conflicts to see how far peace solutions are permanent in this region Ending Africa's Wars is an important and timely book for all those interested in conflict democracy international organizations civil society refugees gender and the economic reconstruction of Africa Mother Africa, Father Marx Hilary Owen,2007 This book is the first work in the English language to discuss the participation of women writers in the narrative construction of Mozambican nationhood over the last half century Covering the rise of anti colonial nationalism in the 1950s the advent of the Marxist Leninist Republic in the 1970s the war that followed independence in the 1980s and the transition to democracy and the neo liberal economy in the 1990s the volume focuses on four representative women writers who belong to distinct but overlapping periods and work in different genres Dealing with Noemia de Sousa's poetry Lina Magaia's testimonial writings Lilia Momple's short fiction and Paulina Chiziane's novels the result is a close reading of the ways in which women have narrated and counter narrated Mozambican nationhood to take account of the gendered power relations that traditionally underpin national community as imagined by men Women, Migration & the Cashew Economy in Southern Mozambique 1945-1975 Jeanne Penvenne,2015 Analyses the lives and livelihoods of the female cashew shellers in Mozambique's capital in the colonial era during which the industry grew to be a major export and relates how the women played a fundamental but previously underappreciated role in the colony's economy Strengthening Peace in Post-Civil War States Matthew Hoddie,Caroline A. Hartzell,2010-09-30 Among the more frequent and most devastating of conflicts civil wars from Yugoslavia to Congo frequently reignite and even spill over into the international sphere Given the inherent fragility of civil war peace agreements innovative approaches must be taken to ensure the successful resolution of these conflicts Strengthening Peace in Post Civil War States provides both analytical frameworks and a series of critical case studies demonstrating the effectiveness of a range of strategies for keeping the peace Coeditors Matthew Hoddie and Caroline A Hartzell here contend that lasting peace relies on aligning the self interest of individuals and communities with the society wide goal of ending war if citizens and groups have a stake in peace they will seek to maintain and defend it The rest of the contributors explore two complementary approaches toward achieving this goal restructuring domestic institutions and soft intervention Some essays examine the first tactic which involves reforming governments that failed to prevent war while others discuss the second an umbrella term for a number of non military strategies for outside actors to assist in keeping the peace
