About the author

Carol Watson is the author of more than 30 books for children, including, 365 Children's Prayers and My Little Christmas Story Book, also published by Lion. She has worked extensively with children as a teacher and an assistant principal, but left teaching to pursue her interest in creating books for children. After working for a number of major international publishers, she became a freelance writer and editor.

Prayers for a Fragile World developed from her discussions with children about prayer and the issues which worry and excite them in today's rapidly changing world.
