Prayers From The East:

Prayers from the East Richard Marsh, 2004-01-01 This anthology offers new insight into an ancient form of Christianity still little understood in the West An introduction to the rich diversity of the Eastern Orthodox Churches Egyptian Copts Armenians Syrians Indian Malankara Ethiopian and Eritrean through their distinctive tradition of prayer and worship It provides both a survey of the history and theology of the Eastern Orthodox traditions as well as an anthology of prayers The collection highlights the distinctiveness of Eastern Christian spirituality along with its connections to Western theology and worship A Manual of Eastern Orthodox Prayers Orthodox Eastern Church, 1945 Morning and evening prayers communion prayers selected troparia and prayers for various occasions Prayers from the East Richard Marsh, 2004 This anthology offers new insight into an ancient form of Christianity still little understood in the West An introduction to the rich diversity of the Eastern Orthodox Churches Egyptian Copts Armenians Syrians Indian Malankara Ethiopian and Eritrean through their distinctive tradition of prayer and worship It provides both a survey of the history and theology of the Eastern Orthodox traditions as well as an anthology of prayers The collection highlights the distinctiveness of Eastern Christian spirituality along with its connections to Western theology and worship Prayers from the East Bryan D. Spinks, 1993 Prayer and Worship in Eastern Christianities, 5th to 11th Centuries Brouria Bitton-Ashkelony, Derek Krueger, 2016-10-04 Prayer and Worship in Eastern Christianities 5th to 11th Centuries forges a new conversation about the diversity of Christianities in the medieval eastern Mediterranean centered on the history of practice looking at liturgy performance prayer poetry and the material culture of worship It studies prayer and worship in the variety of Christian communities that thrived from late antiquity to the middle ages Byzantine Orthodoxy Syrian Orthodoxy and the Church of the East Rather than focusing on doctrinal differences and analyzing divergent patterns of thought the essays address common patterns of worship individual and collective prayer hymnography and liturgy as well as the indigenous theories that undergirded Christian practices The volume intervenes in standard academic discourses about Christian difference with an exploration of common patterns of celebration commemoration and self discipline Essays by both established and promising younger scholars interrogate elements of continuity and change over time before and after the rise of Islam both under the control of the Eastern Roman Empire and in the lands of successive caliphates Groups distinct in their allegiances nevertheless shared a common religious heritage and recognized each other even in their differences as kinds of Christianity A series of chapters explore the theory and practice of prayer from Greco Roman late antiquity to the Syriac middle ages highlighting the transmission of monastic discourses about prayer especially among Syrian and Palestinian ascetic teachers Another set of essays examines localization of prayer within churches through inscriptions donations dedications and incubation Other chapters treat the composition and transmission of hymns to adorn the liturgy and articulate the emotions of the Christian calendar structuring liturgical and eschatological time Introduction to Eastern Christian Liturgies Maxwell E.

Johnson, Stefanos Alexopoulos, 2022-02-05 In Introduction to Eastern Christian Liturgies renowned liturgical scholars Stefanos Alexopoulos and Maxwell E Johnson fulfill the need for a new comprehensive and straightforward survey of the liturgical life of the Eastern Christian Churches within the seven distinct liturgical Eastern rites still in existence today Armenian Byzantine Coptic Ethiopic East Syrian West Syrian and Maronite This topical overview covers baptism chrismation Eucharist reconciliation anointing marriage holy orders burial Liturgy of the Hours the liturgical year liturgical ethos and spirituality and offers a brief yet comprehensive bibliography for further study This book will be of special interest to masters level students in liturgy and theology pastoral ministers seeking an introduction to the liturgies of the Christian East and all who seek to increase their knowledge of the liturgical riches of the Christian East Light from the Christian East James R. Payton Jr., 2009-12-14 James R Payton Jr introduces us to Eastern Orthodox history theology and practice For all readers interested in ancient ecumenical Christian theology and spirituality this book is especially open and sympathetic to what evangelicals can learn from orthodoxy The Nonverbal Language of Prayer Uri Ehrlich, 2004 Uri Ehrlich addresses a relatively neglected but central component of the act of prayer its nonverbal aspects represented by such features as the worshiper's gestures attire and shoes and vocal expression In the first part of this book the author engages in a two tiered examination of nine nonverbal elements integral to the rabbinic Amidah prayer a detailed historical geographical consideration of their development followed by an analysis of each gesture's signification the crux of this study Of all the possible models it was the realm of interpersonal communication which had the strongest impact on this consideration of the rabbinic Amidah gesture system The concluding chapters explore the broader rabbinic conception of prayer embodied in these nonverbal modes of expression Unlike mainstream prayer studies which concentrate on the textual and spoken facets of prayer the holistic approach taken here views prayer as a complex of verbal physical spiritual and other attributes
