Praying for a Whole New World William G. Carter, 2000 A history professor told me that the earliest Protestants in America discouraged the celebration of Christmas It s too much fun the Puritans reasoned and the Gospel of Jesus Christ requires our utmost seriousness from the Introduction At a time of year which is often as stressful and exhausting as it is exhilarating William Carter reminds us that while holiday celebrations will fade into winter gloom Jesus Christ the light that casts no shadow remains at the center of our faith and lives This collection of seventeen sermons based on the Revised Common Lectionary is for readers who wish to take the gospel seriously during a season when commercialism and social activities can be overwhelming Carter s messages provide a wonderful interplay between the biblical text and illustrations drawn from contemporary life He brings the sensibilities of an accomplished jazz musician to the lectionary readings creating new melodies that arise from the established material some in counterpoint to the scripture others elaborating upon the original tune The sermons of this outstanding preacher are inspiring reading for both clergy and laypeople Senior pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Clarks Summit Pennsylvania William G Carter has received national recognition for his preaching and writing with sermons and articles appearing in Journal for Preachers Presbyterian Survey Preaching Lectionary Homiletics The Christian Ministry and Best Sermons 7 In 1999 he was selected to preach on The Protestant Hour an international radio ministry that reaches over two million listeners each week He frequently leads workshops for pastors on homiletical themes and practices A graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary Carter serves on the seminary s board of trustees Reverend Carter is also a highly regarded jazz pianist who has studied and performed with such noted artists as Phil Woods and Bob Brookmeyer He has traveled widely presenting contemporary worship services and frequently weaves his music into his ministry American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 You Have Mail from God! Harold C. Warlick, 2000 Bridging the sometimes disparate worlds of prophecy and gospel Hal Warlick s sermons on texts from the Revised Common Lectionary provide illustrations and themes that will enable preachers and lay leaders to clearly communicate the Christian message His work is anchored in sound scholarship yet is written in a flowing easy to understand narrative style that readers will immediately connect with Most of Warlick s seventeen messages are based on passages from the letters of Paul and Warlick finds these epistles to be as relevant today as when they were originally written And since Paul s letters came from someone who daily faced the challenges of running a newly created organization Warlick believes that they are a valuable resource for modern day Christians trying to maintain a community of faith in an interconnected and spiritually struggling world By helping readers to visualize old truths in fresh and exciting ways this volume makes the sometimes overlooked Second Lesson texts a meaningful resource for the season The author of thirteen books as well as over thirty articles and sermons in religious journals and publications Harold C Warlick Jr is Professor of Religion and Minister to the University at High Point University in High Point North Carolina Dr Warlick has served as both Director of Ministerial Studies and Lecturer in Applied Theology at Harvard Divinity School and has pastored churches in South Carolina Texas and North Carolina He holds degrees from Furman University B A Harvard University S T B and Vanderbilt University D Div
