Praying The Word An Introduction To Lectio Divina Cistercian Studies Series:

Praying the Word Enzo Bianchi, 1998 Scripture brings the Word of God to us when we read and welcome it in faith as the Word which comes from God and leads to God Scripture is the means by which we live in God The ancient monastic and patristic way of reading Scripture involves reflection meditation and prayer It is listening to the Word allowing the Word to become active in our lives It is in the words of Saint Jerome opening our sails to the Holy Spirit without knowing on what shores we will land Lectio Matters Mary Margaret Funk, 2013-02-01 Lectio divina is a way of praying by sustained immersion into a revelatory text While Scripture is the classic place of encounter with God the text could also be the book of life or the book of nature In Lectio Matters respected spiritual guide Meg Funk accompanies the reader in exploring the various levels of lectio divina as taught by the ancient church writers and by sharing her own long experience By means of this wisdom both ancient and new lectio divina can become our burning bush a real encounter with the living God in which we take off our sandals and bow our brow to the ground Understanding the Medieval Meditative Ascent Robert

McMahon, 2006 The Confessions Proslogion and Consolation of philosophy like the Divine comedy all enact Platonist accents These accents generate implied meditative meanings which scholars have explored only in part Each work calls us to read forward on its journey to understanding and to meditate backwards on the stages of the ascent and the relations between them Augustine Anselm Boethius and Dante wrote for readers experienced in meditating on the Bible adept at exploring relations between far distant passages They designed these works as spiritual exercises for the same kind of reading and meditations This book uses literary analysis to discover new philosophical meaning in these works Book jacket Tools Matter Mary Margaret Funk, 2013-02 Rev ed of Tools matter for practicing the spiritual life Lectio Divina as

Contemplative Pedagogy Mary Keator, 2017-12-14 Offering an original application of the ancient monastic practice of lectio divina to the humanities this book demonstrates the need for further emphasis on deep reading reflection and contemplation in contemporary university classrooms Each chapter provides readers with an historical overview of the four movements of this monastic method lectio reading meditatio interpreting oratio responding and contemplatio experiencing wisdom and suggests ways to incorporate these practices in humanites courses Keator demonstrates that the lectio divina method is a viable pedagogical tool to guide students slowly and methodically through literary texts and into a subjective experience of wisdom and meaning The American Benedictine Review, 2016 Ordo et Sanctitas: The Franciscan Spiritual Journey in Theology and Hagiography, 2017-06-01 This volume Ordo et Sanctitas The Franciscan Spiritual Journey in Theology and Hagiography which celebrates the life and legacy of J A Wayne Hellmann is comprised of articles written by colleagues former students and associates The authors were invited to contribute their own articles within three broad categories corresponding with the areas in which Wayne has made a longstanding scholarly contribution Franciscan hagiographical texts especially Thomas of Celano medieval theology and the Bonaventurian theological tradition and the retrieval of the

Franciscan tradition in a contemporary context All of the essays in the volume build upon and expand in new directions the contributions of our honoree in these areas Contributors are Regis J Armstrong Joshua C Benson Michael Blastic Joseph Chinnici Michael F Cusato Jacques Dalarun J Isaac Goff Jay M Hammond Timothy J Johnson John Kruse Steven J McMichael Juliet Mousseau William Short Laura Smit and Katherine Wrisley Shelby

Meditation and Communion with God John Jefferson Davis,2012-09-13 John Jefferson Davis summons the resources of traditional biblical meditation for a culture lost in the cloud He establishes the trinitarian view of God s real presence in Scripture and then ushers readers through three successive stages of meditation consummating in a method for deep assimilation of the Christian worldview Into God Regis J. Armstrong,2020-08-28 The Itinerarium provides a concise introduction to Bonaventure s theological understanding This new translation presents Latin and English on facing pages followed by an extensive and detailed commentary on the historical scriptural and linguistic contexts of the text and its translation The Living Church ,2001-07 Lectio Divina Duncan Robertson,2011-12-01 During the Middle Ages the act of reading was experienced intensively in the monastic exercise of lectio divina the prayerful scrutiny of passages of Scripture savored in meditation memorized recited and rediscovered in the reader s own religious life The rich literary tradition that arose from this culture includes theoretical writings from the Conferences of John Cassian fifth century through the twelfth century treatises of Hugh of St Victor and the Carthusian Guigo II it also includes compilations literary meditations and scriptural commentary notably on the Song of Songs This study brings medievalist research together with modern theoretical reflections on the act of reading in a consolidation of historical scholarship spirituality and literary criticism Renouncing Violence Mary Margaret Funk,2018-09-25 Written from her deep experience in the monastic tradition Sister Mary Margaret Funk shows us that with faith and our given vocations we are more than strong enough to resist and renounce the violence in the world around us This book offers both for personal use and for the broader community a teaching for our troubled times a teaching that empowers the reader to renounce violence in all its bold and subtle forms As a concrete example Funk retrieves the practice and symbolism of using holy water to bless cleanse and free us from violence wherever it is emerging in our personal lives and in our world This practice has thrived in the monastic tradition and has a language with a voice The Confucian Tradition Guoxiang Peng,2023-05-05 The author reviews the Confucian tradition through the two concepts religion and humanities Chinese scholars always adopt Zongjiao and Renwen from the ancient Chinese documents as the Chinese translation of religion and humanities In respect of their own contexts of culture the Chinese words and the English words share some similarities in meaning but also have some vital differences This book covers the major phases of the development of Confucianism which have a wide historical span from the Pre Qin period to the contemporary era with a focus on Confucianism in Song and Ming dynasties Relevant ideas of modern Western disciplines such as philosophy of religion religious studies and theology are employed by the author as references not criteria to illuminate key ideas in Confucian tradition and highlight the features of Confucianism as a religious or spiritual humanism In some chapters the author compares the eastern thinkers and theories with those western ones      No Peace Without Prayer Timothy Wright,2013

Abbot Timothy Wright proposes sowing a small seed from which might grow a greater respect between the world's two largest religions Christianity and Islam Indeed he believes that the seed has been already planted Christians give unique value to their revealed Scriptures as the Word of God Muslims speak of the Qur'an as God speaking to them In No Peace without Prayer Wright presents the case to establish groups of Christians and Muslims dedicated to sharing their respective Divine Word in ways that enhance the other to gain a greater mutual understanding The key word says Wright is partnership arising from their shared belief in the One God creator of the universe communicating with the human world and merciful to the repentant Back cover      The Oxford Handbook of Christian Monasticism Bernice M. Kaczynski,Thomas Sullivan,2020

The Oxford Handbook of Christian Monasticism addresses for the first time in one volume multiple strands of Christian monastic practice Forty four essays consider historical and thematic aspects of the Catholic Eastern Orthodox Oriental Orthodox Protestant and Anglican traditions as well as contemporary new monasticism      The Language of Poetry as a Form of Prayer Francis X. McAloon,2008 Grounded in the investigative tools of interpretation theory poetic aesthetics and literary criticism this book proposes and employs an interdisciplinary methodology for the analysis of poetic prayer texts focusing upon the poetry of Gerard Manley Hopkins Interspersed throughout the text are brief interchapters which offer practical illustrations of the soli of transformative reading this work proposes      The Use and Abuse of the Bible Henry Wansbrough,2010-02-25 Written in an engaging and entertaining manner this new book from leading Catholic biblical scholar Henry Wansbrough charts the use and abuse of scripture throughout the ages It ranges from the evangelists engagement with the Hebrew Scriptures to the use of the Bible in present day politics perhaps most pertinently in the Israeli Palestinian conflict Wansbrough takes as his starting point Frances Young's The Art of Performance This enables him to creatively display how The Bible is performed differently in different ages Wansbrough demonstrates the variety of these performances and their different emphases in the history of Christianity to glimpse the different ways in which great figures within the Christian tradition have used and abused the Bible Indirectly therefore it attacks the ever present danger of fundamentalism and single minded interpretation of the Bible Viewing the interpretation of the Bible against the background of various historical periods gives a valuable insight into the long and rich history of the Church A final chapter provides a worked example of Lectio Divina providing a window into the author's personal life of praying the Bible      Discovering Multicultural Spirituality Through Taizé Prayer Part 1 H. S. Ryu ,2007-05-07 A DEMONSTRATION PROJECT Submitted to New York Theological Seminary in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

Listening to the Bible Christopher Bryan,2014 Christopher Bryan reflects on the often difficult relationship between academic study of the Bible and the Church and suggests a way forward in which scientific questions are not to be ignored

but in asking them we are not to ignore the texts setting in life which is and has always been the believing community      A 30 Day Retreat William C. Mills, 2010 Ideal for a retreat here are thirty brief meditations on select scripture passages that are meaningful to spiritual growth and fulfillment
