Preemptive Love Jeremy Courtney, 2014-09-02 The founder of the Preemptive Love Coalition an organization based in Iraq that provides heart surgeries to Iraqi children and trains local doctors and nurses presents an account of lifesaving and peacemaking in this war torn country Preemptive Love Jeremy Courtney, 2013-10 The founder of the Preemptive Love Coalition an organization based in Iraq that provides heart surgeries to Iraqi children and trains local doctors and nurses presents an account of lifesaving and peacemaking in this war torn country Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt, 2020 Love's Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard's discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness Throughout the book the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives including Helen Prejean's Dead Man Walking Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger's South of Forgiveness and Ian McEwan's Atonement Keats and Philosophy Shahidha Kazi Bari, 2012-09-10 John Keats remains one of the most familiar and beloved of English poets but has received surprisingly little critical attention in recent years This study is a fresh contribution to Keats criticism and Romantic scholarship positioning Keats as a figure of philosophical interest who warrants renewed attention Exploring Keats's own Romantic accounts of feeling and thinking this study draws a connection between poetry and the phenomenological branches of modern philosophy The study takes Keats's poetic evocation of touching hands wandering feet beating hearts and breathing bodies as a descriptive elaboration of consciousness and a phenomenological account of experience The philosophical terms of analysis adopted here challenge the orthodoxies of Keats scholarship traditionally characterised by the careful historicisation of a limited canon The philosophical framework of analysis enhances the readings put forward while Keats's poems in turn serve to give fuller expression of those ideas themselves Using Keats as a particular case this book also demonstrates the ways in which theory and philosophy supplement literary scholarship Preemptive Strike J.

Akoroda, 2004 Epistemic Authority Linda Trinkaus Zagzebski, 2015 Gives an extended argument for epistemic authority from the implications of reflective self consciousness Epistemic authority is compatible with autonomy but epistemic self reliance is incoherent The book argues that epistemic and emotional self trust are rational and inescapable that consistent self trust commits us to trust in others and that among those we are committed to trusting are some whom we ought to treat as epistemic authorities modelled on the well known principles of authority of Joseph Raz Some of these authorities can be in the moral and religious domains The book investigates the way the problem of disagreement between communities or between the self and others is a conflict within self trust and argue against communal self reliance on the same grounds as the book uses in arguing against individual self reliance The book explains how any change in belief is justified by the conscientious judgment that the change will survive future conscientious self reflection The book concludes with an account of autonomy Informaci n de la editorial Home thoughts, by C. 2nd ser., by C (Mrs. James Farley Cox). Maria McIntosh Cox, 1902 Shakespeare, Love and Language David Schalkwyk, 2018-01-25 What is the nature of romantic love and erotic desire in Shakespeare's work In this erudite and yet accessible study David Schalkwyk addresses this question by exploring the historical contexts theory and philosophy of love Close readings of Shakespeare's plays and poems are delivered through the lens of historical texts from Plato to Montaigne and modern writers including Jacques Lacan Jean Luc Marion Ludwig Wittgenstein Jacques Derrida Alain Badiou and Stanley Cavell Through these studies it is argued that Shakespeare has no single or overarching concept of love and that in Shakespeare's work love is not an emotion Rather it is a form of action and disposition to be expressed and negotiated linguistically Abridgment of the Debates of Congress, from 1789 to 1856: Dec. 16, 1839-March 3, 1843 , 1860
