Preaching Moment:

The Preaching Moment Charles L. Bartow, 1980 In a balanced blending of the practical the theoretical and the theological Charles L Bartow explores the basic techniques of preaching      On Preaching H B Charles Jr, 2014-04-15 Preaching Magazine s 2015 Book of the Year On Preaching is a masterful resource that will refresh your soul and revitalize your preaching ministry Drawing upon Scripture and years of experience as a preacher H B Charles offers a practical resource for pastors seminarians church planters and Bible teachers that is full of energy and wonderfully enjoyable He gives tips like Avoid indecent exposure get your wife s permission before using your family in the message and Illustrate A good illustration is like a window on a house It helps your listeners see in or out Written in a very clear and concise manner this resource is formatted into 30 short chapters that can easily be read as a devotional On Preaching will encourage seasoned preachers to dig deeper into the basics as they pause and reflect on the effectiveness of their ministry It will also serve as a spring board for those who are just beginning a preaching ministry      A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture s diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation      What's Right with Preaching Today? Mike Graves, Andre Resner, 2021-03-09 In 1928 when Riverside Church NYC pastor Harry Emerson Fosdick asked the question in Harpers Magazine What s the Matter with Preaching Today he did not know that one response to that question had just entered the world in Humboldt Tennessee Fred B Craddock revolutionized preaching theory and practice by flipping pulpit logic from deductive to inductive often called the preaching as storytelling revolution and in so doing brought renewed interest and impact to the practice of preaching effectively rescuing it from an often tedious and moralizing fate With Fred preaching was anything but boring Rather it was an exciting and enlightening ride that led to the renewal of faith To honor Craddock s legacy Mike Graves and Andr Resner invited ten leading voices in homiletics to identify something that is right about preaching today In addition they issued a call to a wide variety of people to contribute stories about Fred's impact on their lives and ministries Twenty seven remembrances of Fred are included here throughout the book If you appreciate effective and engaging preaching as either a preacher or listener the essays and remembrances here will speak to you and provide encouragement about preaching's present and future With contributions from Ronald J Allen Barbara K Lundblad Alyce McKenzie Debra J Mumford Luke Powery Andre Resner Richard Ward Dawn Ottoni Wilhelm Paul Scott Wilson

Delivering the Sermon Teresa L. Fry Brown, 2008-10-01 In Delivering the Sermon Teresa Fry Brown introduces preachers to the effective use of voice and body in the animation of the word in the preaching moment Combining the latest research in communications speech pathology and homiletics with her own experience as a speech language pathologist Fry Brown creatively empowers preachers to improve their effectiveness in proclamation Practical suggestions and exercises for enhancing voice diction and nonverbal engagement of the listener useable by groups or individuals are included in each chapter

Prophetic Preaching Ian S. Markham, Crystal J. Hardin, 2020-03-17 A collection of provocative inspiring and thoughtful essays about the place of politics in the pulpit This book is the first collection of essays to explore the question is there room for politics from the pulpit In response to an increasingly polarized society preachers grapple with the call to witness a unifying Truth in a world where truth appears subjective While many congregations respond positively to social and political themes in sermons others do not Episcopalians in the conservative minority may be uncomfortable with political themed preaching while liberal Episcopalians demand a political message from the pulpit What is a preacher to do when the Episcopal Church is no more immune to the temptation of polarization than the secular world Contributors to this volume serve in a variety of contexts and bring with them their own distinct styles and visions Anyone with an interest in the practical implications addressing the current political climate from the pulpit will find these essays provocative inspiring and thoughtful Contributors Samuel G Chandler Sarah T Condon Alex Dyer Crystal J Hardin Ruthanna Hooke Mark Jefferson Russell J Levenson Jr Ian Markham Phoebe Roaf Stephanie Spellers Samuel Wells

Arts and Preaching Sunggu A. Yang, 2021-09-03 In our highly sensory and interactive age how might drawing upon various arts music film architecture dramatic performance painting fashion and more expand the aesthetic experience and mode of preaching This book presents a critical practical answer to the question As our society becomes more visually oriented art seeking and body positive the practice of preaching is likewise challenged to demonstrate the mind body word visual and artistic proclamation of the Sacred after all isn't the writing of the Bible itself highly art full and aesthetic In this book Sunggu A Yang a seasoned preacher and experienced teacher of preaching encourages preachers to utilize their unique artistic talents as critical sources of theological and homiletical imagination and as hermeneutical perspectival tools to aid their rigorous exegetical process of interpreting Scripture eventually toward artistic holistic sermon composition and delivery A sample syllabus included in the appendix will greatly assist any preaching instructor who wants to offer a creative course on arts and preaching The Glory of Preaching Darrell W. Johnson, 2010-01-04 Darrell Johnson's book is for any pastor or student who wants to cultivate a deeper pulpit approach one that participates in the transforming mystery of God working through our less than perfect proclamation Here is a solid foundation for preaching the good news as if God was living Jesus was resurrected and the Holy Spirit was faithfully at work among us The Senses of Preaching, 1988-01-01 Written in conversational style The Senses of Preaching is a thought provoking book using anecdotes to take a careful look at the relationship between preachers and congregations Thomas Long provides insight into faith and life as well as preaching and homiletics He offers preachers a better understanding of the whole concept of their craft and complements it with sermon starter ideas This compact volume shows preachers how to develop and implement a preaching experience that encourages the hearing of the gospel Preaching and the Personal J Dwayne Howell, 2014-07-31 Preaching is a very personal process a minister or speaker prepares his or her own sermon and presents it to the congregation Sermons draw upon the Bible as a central source and the source provides a basis of faith for the believing community The preaching event is also personal for the individual members of the congregation who receive the preacher's words based on a biblical text in their own unique way In the synthesis of Biblical text sermon and listener response many testimonies are present Preaching and the Personal is a collection of papers that have been presented at the Society of Biblical Literature These papers encourage and nurture dialogue among scholars who share an interest in the unique theological problems inherent to the relationship between biblical interpretation and proclamation Preaching and the Personal opens a stimulating dialogue in the field

Transforming Preaching Ruthanna Hooke, 2010-04-01 At once travel guide and vision for the future the Transformation series is good news for the Episcopal Church at a time of fast and furious demographic and social change Series contributors recognized experts in their fields analyze our present plight point to the seeds of change already at work transforming the church and outline a positive new way forward What kinds of churches are most ready for transformation What are the essential tools What will give us strength direction and purpose to the journey Each volume of the series will Explain why a changed vision is essential Give robust theological and biblical foundations Offer a guide to best practices and positive trends in churches large and small Describe the necessary tools for change Imagine how transformation will look Preaching is one of the more transformable aspects of the church's life Performance teacher Ruthanna Hooke writing for both clergy and lay leaders delivers the good and bad news about Episcopalians and preaching She explains why preaching is more difficult than ever today and provides essential models and spiritual practices in order to transform both the creators of preaching and its listeners as both participate in sermons Who Is Jesus? Darrell W. Johnson, 2010-09 In this compelling and informative new book trusted author and pastor Rev Darrell W Johnson explores how the New Testament answers life's most important question Who is Jesus Drawing on years of teaching and preaching experience and weaving insightful stories from his own ministry Johnson guides readers through selected passages of Scripture in order to paint a portrait of Jesus that is both contemporary and timeless Darrell W Johnson is senior minister of First Baptist Church in Vancouver Before joining First Baptist in 2009 he was associate professor of pastoral theology at Regent College in Vancouver He served as an adjunct professor of preaching for Fuller Theological Seminary and is the author of several books including Discipleship on the Edge and Fifty Seven Words That Change the World Text Messages John Tucker,2017-12-06 Facebook Twitter Snapchat We live in a rapidly changing world a world that seems to be increasingly inhospitable toward preaching In the face of digital technology social media cultural pluralism and pastoral burnout how can Christian preachers proclaim the gospel faithfully and effectively This book answers that question by bringing together a selection of important voices from across North America Asia and the Pacific It argues that Spirit empowered preaching is characterized by five attributes it opens the Scriptures engages the culture addresses the listener dissects the preacher and elevates the Savior With contributions from authors like William Willimon Darrell Johnson Lynne Baab Robert Smith Jr and Paul Windsor this is an excellent resource for ordained ministers lay preachers theological students and anyone wrestling with the challenge of preaching God s word in a smartphone world Preaching Fred B.
