

The background of the slide is a photograph of a vast, straight road stretching from the foreground into the distance, leading towards a range of mountains under a dramatic, orange-hued sunset sky. The road is flanked by fields and appears to be a major thoroughfare. The sky is filled with soft, glowing clouds, and the overall atmosphere is one of grandeur and hope.

Great preaching always

12 Essential Skills for Great Preaching Wayne McDill, 2006-07-01 In this newly expanded second edition of 12 Essential Skills for Great Preaching Dr Wayne McDill draws on decades of experience as a preacher and homiletics professor to inspire other preachers to live up to their God given potential Here are twelve proven ways to pack more content and effectiveness into every sermon covering all of the bases from general preparation to the end result of increasing each listener's faith Recent seminary graduates and seasoned pastors alike will identify skills that need personal improvement and McDill encourages them to strengthen such areas at their own pace and in whatever order they feel is best Every chapter in this new edition has been revised and updated Also included are additional worksheet helps and sermon examples Thoughts on Preaching James Waddel Alexander, 1861 Preaching and Preachers D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones, 2012-01-24 Some may object to my dogmatic assertions but I do not apologize for them Every preacher should believe strongly in his own method and if I cannot persuade all of the rightness of mine I can at least stimulate them to think and to consider other possibilities I can say quite honestly that I would not cross the road to listen to myself preaching and the preachers whom I have enjoyed most have been very different indeed in their method and style But my business is not to describe them but to state what I believe to be right however imperfectly I have put my own precepts into practice I can only hope that the result will be of some help and especially to young preachers called to this greatest of all tasks and especially in these sad and evil times With many others I pray that The Lord of the harvest may thrust forth many mighty preachers to proclaim the unsearchable riches of Christ     The Golden Age of Preaching Dr. Robert Henry, 2005-08-15 To measure the impact of a minister's preaching one must first examine the societal context in which the ministry took place For example what would lead a minister of the Gospel to roar from the pulpit as did Joseph Parker of City Temple London God damn the Sultan The first section of The Golden Age of Preaching is given to the study of the times in which nine prominent British preachers ministered Understanding the times helps one to comprehend why crowds flocked to hear these men preach and why their sermons were printed in newspapers on Monday Furthermore to assess the preaching of a man one needs to take into account the life and manner of the man himself The Men Who Moved the Masses includes biographical sketches of nine selected preachers Alexander McLaren Robert William Dale Henry Parry Liddon at St Paul's London Joseph Parker Charles Haddon Spurgeon Alexander Whyte Frederick Brotherton Meyer John Henry Jowett and George Campbell Morgan These were men though hampered by various medical problems and personality shortcomings who led thousands to faith in their day The final section attempts to answer the question Why by identifying those homiletical characteristics of their preaching which they had in common resulting in such uncommon impact upon the masses Those qualities are not confined to their era alone They are perpetual applicable to any age to any culture Preachers and seminarians who dare to sit at the feet and learn from these preaching giants of the past will find their own preaching power lifted onto a new plain to the benefit of all who hear them

Eslinger, 2002 The book is a follow up to Eslinger's earlier A New Hearing the standard text on the varieties of homiletical method since its publication in 1987 BOOK JACKET     Thoughts on preaching [ed. by S.D.
