Preaching Christ in All of Scripture Edmund Clowney, 2003-06-30 Voicing one theme for the entire Bible and structuring all sermons around that idea may seem to be an impossible challenge For veteran pastor and preaching professor Edmund Clowney it will not do to preach a text from either the Old or New Testaments without fully preaching its ultimate and primary focus the person and work of Jesus Christ He writes To see the text in relation to Christ is to see it in its larger context the context of God s purpose in revelation Clowney s rationale for emphasizing Christ s presence in the Old Testament rests on the purpose of the Hebrew Scripture The Old Testament follows God s one great plan for human history and redemption and the plan is not only from him but centers on him his presence in his incarnate Son The witness of the Scriptures to Christ is the reason they were written so it is appropriate to emphasize this element in the Old Testament as well as in the New Testament By offering numerous full length examples of his own sermons that emphasize Christ as the principle theme of Scripture Clowney illustrates for those who will never have the privilege of being his students how they can craft sermons which present Christ as the primary consideration of the text He also offers specific instructions on preparing such a sermon He discusses the personal habits of prayer and Bible study that prepare pastors to seek out Christ s presence Clowney emphasizes the importance of including a specific application in every sermon so that Christ is presented both in what he says and does to reveal himself in the biblical text and in what he says and does to direct Christians lives today Students preparing for the pastorate pastors desiring to increase their emphasis on Christ in their sermons and those seeking Christ s presence in all of Scripture will find a help in Clowney s writings

The methods may vary but the message remains the same. God's challenge and call to the preacher still come through loud and clear. Preach the Word Lloyd M Perry's Biblical Preaching for Today's World has been helping pastors and speakers preach the Word since 1973. Although the principles Perry originally established are timeless, the needs and concerns of audiences are always changing. To help pastors preach more effectively to today's congregations, Perry has updated his original manuscript. He offers pastors help in understanding and adjusting to the effects television has had on an audience's listening skills. Historical references throughout each chapter will also help preachers learn from yesterday's teachers and styles. Biblical Preaching for Today's World continues to offer sound, time-tested principles for preaching regardless of the preacher's style. Filled with helpful suggestions, annotated outlines, and solid documentation, it is invaluable reading for all who aspire to preach the Word.

Invitation to Biblical Preaching, Written in a conversational style with profuse examples to illustrate all concepts. Invitation to Biblical Preaching takes the reader step by step through the entire process of preparing a biblical message from studying a passage with skill and integrity to delivering a message with persuasion, accuracy, passion, and relevance. An experienced pastor and homiletics professor, Donald Sunukjian, provides budding pastors with wise counsel that is sure to stay with them throughout their ministries. Text-Driven Preaching Dr. Daniel L. Akin, David L. Allen, Ned Mathews, 2010-07-01 Ten church and seminary leaders urge pastors to commit to presenting true expository preaching from the pulpit, always making sure God's Word has been spoken in their sermons. The Call of God Reverend Wallace Chappell, 2011-03-28 Wally Chappell has been preaching since his first appointment as Pastor in 1947 while a student in seminary. He was always known as an interesting, challenging preacher who held the interest of his congregation. Many across the years encouraged him to put some sermons in print. He first tried his hand at retirement at 69 but became employed in community relations work for a local mortgage company for five and half years and then came back to full-time church work as a retired associate for pastoral care at First United Methodist Church of Dallas where he remained on staff until 87 years of age. He finally got retirement right. Yes, he said, I was wobbly and fearful. I'd spill communion wine on someone. Friends continued to encourage him to publish, and this book is the result. It is mostly sermons with a eulogy, a devotional, and a couple of stories tossed in. All were delivered at First Methodist Church of Dallas, some in Sunday school classes, retreats, and studies. His engineer background shows in a practical, matter-of-fact approach to spiritual matters. He is known as a clear thinker and a passionate advocate of the Christian Way. He writes for speech, not the written page, and it shows in his syntax. He said, I guess I preach everything I read, sort of trying on the words for oral delivery. And it shows in reading the text. He is a Biblical preacher almost always seeking to develop some passage of scripture The reader will find these messages thought provoking challenging and clear It may help to know there were other Wallace Chappells in the Methodist ministry This is the Texan by birth rearing and service who sees himself a citizen of the world and a lover of mountains
