Preaching In Today's World:

Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Perry, 1990-03-08 Biblical preaching has not outgrown its usefulness. The methods may vary but the message remains the same. God's challenge and call to the preacher still come through loud and clear. Preach the Word. Lloyd M. Perry's Biblical Preaching for Today's World has been helping pastors and speakers preach the Word since 1973. Although the principles Perry originally established are timeless, the needs and concerns of audiences are always changing. To help pastors preach more effectively to today's congregations, Perry has updated his original manuscript. He offers pastors help in understanding and adjusting to the effects television has had on an audience's listening skills. Historical references throughout each chapter will also help preachers learn from yesterday's teachers and styles. Biblical Preaching for Today's World continues to offer sound, time-tested principles for preaching regardless of the preacher's style. Filled with helpful suggestions, annotated outlines, and solid documentation, it is invaluable reading for all who aspire to preach the Word.

Yesterday's Sermons for Today's World Rev. Eldore F. Messerschmidt, 2022-03-16 This book is a compilation of seventy weekly sermons that follow the Lutheran Church Calendar Year. Written by Reverend Eldore F. Messerschmidt over fifty to sixty years ago, the things he discussed in his sermons back then still pertain to what is happening in our world today. Thus the name Yesterday's Sermons for Today's World. This is a great book for the shut-ins who no longer can attend weekly worship services or for the average person who needs a weekly inspirational pick-me-up.

Expository Preaching in a World of Spiritual Nominalism R. T. Johnson Raih, 2021-10-06 The spiritual decay of nominalism threatens the established church worldwide. While spiritual lethargy is often addressed from the perspective of theology and discipleship, little attention has been given to the role of homiletics in revitalizing a congregation's spiritual health. In this study, Dr. Johnson Raih explores the impact of preaching on members of Baptist churches in Imphal, Manipur, India, from 2000 to 2015. He utilizes interviews and questionnaires from pastors, church leaders, and lay members to assess the presence of nominalism within church congregations along with the effects of various preaching methods on increasing or decreasing spiritual vitality. Combining this qualitative research with scriptural and theological insight, Raih suggests that expository preaching has the power to confront and even eradicate nominalism within the church. He draws on biblical examples along with the methodology of John Stott and Timothy Keller to offer ten practical recommendations for countering nominalism homiletically, whether in Imphal, India, or around the world.

Deep Preaching J. Kent Edwards, 2009-08-01 J. Kent Edwards recalls a story that late pastor J. Vernon McGee told about seeing children in South Africa playing a game of marbles in the dust with real diamonds. The precious stones were being handled with no regard for their true worth. Edwards fears the same thing happens today when preachers offer Scriptural truth to listeners without being completely overwhelmed by its greatness themselves in the process. Deep Preaching is his call to rethink preaching. Edwards helps preachers learn to preach the word in ways that will powerfully change the lives of hearers. He contends that sermons need not settle comfortably on the lives of the listeners like dust on a coffee table He encourages preachers to join him in casting off the lines that moor their ministries to the status quo and make every effort to steer their preaching out of the comfortable shallows He urges them to preach deep sermons rather than superficial ones moving beyond the yawn inspiring to the awe inspiring from the trite to the transforming

Seventy five years ago renowned preacher Harry Emerson Fosdick asked in Harper's Magazine what's the matter with preaching Fosdick's question is even more relevant today as both pastors and laity acknowledge the need for improvement in Sunday morning's sermons And who better for pastors and students to learn from than those who already do it well The contributors to this book are some of the best and most thoughtful preachers in the church and classroom today In their essays they assess the state of preaching today identify a variety of issues that challenge effective preaching and offer helpful suggestions for what can be done to improve preaching In the process they help to define what effective preaching is

A Philosophy of Pastoral Preaching David A. Christensen, 2023-05-26 I am a pastor I preach Doesn't that make me a pastoral preacher Not necessarily Many preach missional rather than pastoral sermons designed to appeal to the unchurched not the church The popularity of regional churches and the global reach of the internet allow preachers to focus their sermons on people they do not know and market a message to an audience they never see Evangelical leaders produce many resources on attractional preaching but who is developing a vision for pastoral preaching David Christensen draws on years of experience to develop a philosophy of pastoral preaching He writes Social media changes the way we preach More and more pastors are preaching clickbait sermons These are sermons designed to get clicks or attract interest rather than teach truth We want catchy titles and clever analogies that will grab people's attention because the digital world is built on attention whatever will get likes or drive outrage However pastoral preaching builds community It is rooted in local soil to the people we know in the place we live We need a philosophy of preaching that shepherds a community of disciples who worship together in one place

Practicing the Preaching Life David B. Ward, 2019-03-19 Preaching is a way of life that can be beautiful and good however It can also be anxious self focused and destructive Preachers and teachers of preaching need a holistic view of preaching that not only paints the way to good preaching but also to good living They need a comprehensive practical theology of preaching that combines the why and the what with the how and whom of preaching Practicing the Preaching Life unites Christian practices contextual virtues and the best of homiletical pedagogy to pave the way to a beautiful preaching life Preaching is best learned as a formative Christian practice embedded within a web of other Christian practices that form a way of life from which great sermons emerge Therefore preaching requires not only a way of speaking well but also a way of living well This embedded nature of preaching requires the enrollment of Christian practices in the formation of the preacher and the pursuit of contextual virtues for preaching that avoid cultural relativism on the one hand and cultural imperialism on the other These requirements lead to a new vision for the preaching classroom the rhythms of the preaching life and the definition of what it means to be a good preacher      Religious Involvement in Hearing Sermons Theo Pleizier, 2010      Preaching Luke-acts Ronald James Allen, 2000 The gospel of Luke and the book of Acts provide researchers with new perspectives on some of the deepest longings of our time the search for a transcendent perspective on the meaning of life yearning for community and other issues that resonate with contemporary concerns In this book Allen raises up common motifs that occur in Luke and Acts and shows how these motifs can be used for effective preaching

Evangelistic Preaching That Connects Craig A. Loscalzo, 1995-10-24 Craig A Loscalzo shows how to develop evangelistic sermons that will appeal to today's audiences He includes a rationale for evangelistic preaching sample sermons and lots of practical advice      How to Preach and Teach the Old Testament for All Its Worth Christopher J. H. Wright, 2016-04-19 Many preachers ignore preaching from the Old Testament because they feel it is outdated in light of the New Testament and difficult to expound On the other hand some preachers will preach from the Old Testament frequently but fail to handle it correctly turning it into moralistic rules or symbolic lessons for our spiritual life In How to Preach and Teach the Old Testament for All Its Worth Christopher J H Wright proclaims that preachers must not ignore the Old Testament It is the Word of God The Old Testament lays the foundation for our faith and it was the Bible that Jesus read and used Looking first at why we should preach from the Old Testament the author moves on to show the reader how they can preach from it Covering the History Law Prophets Psalms and Wisdom Literature interspersed with practical checklists exercises and sermons Wright provides an essential guide on how to handle the Old Testament responsibly

Ancient-Future Evangelism Robert E. Webber, 2003-11 Feel like the church is a mile wide but only an inch deep Robert Webber offers the remedy by translating evangelism wisdom from the past into the future      A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation      The Cambridge Companion to Joseph

Ratzinger Daniel Cardó,Uwe Michael Lang,2023-12-21 Among the most important modern Catholic thinkers Joseph Ratzinger later Pope Benedict XVI fundamentally shaped Christian theology in the 20th and early 21st centuries His collaborations and debates with figures such as Henri de Lubac Karl Rahner Jean Dani lou Hans K ng Hans Urs von Balthasar and J rgen Habermas reflect the key role he has played in the development of Christian life and doctrine The Cambridge Companion to Joseph Ratzinger conveys the depth and breadth of his significant legacy to contemporary Catholic theology and culture With contributions from an international team of scholars the volume assesses Ratzinger s theological synthesis in response to contemporary challenges that Christianity faces It surveys the major themes and topics that Ratzinger explored and highlights aspects of the ideas that he developed in his engagement with a wide variety of intellectual and religious currents Collectively the essays in this volume demonstrate how Ratzinger s epochal contributions to Christian thought will reverberate for generations to come

A Legacy of Preaching: Two-Volume Set---Apostles to the Present Day Zondervan,2018-12-11 A Legacy of Preaching Two Volume Set Apostles to the Present Day explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history allowing these preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives theologies and methods of preaching Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the history of preaching This diverse collection of familiar and lesser known individuals provides a detailed and fascinating look at what it has meant to communicate the gospel over the past two thousand years By looking at how the gospel has been communicated over time and across different cultures pastors scholars and homiletics students can enrich their own understanding and practice of preaching for application today Volume One covers the period from the apostles to the Puritans and profiles thirty preachers including Origen of Alexandria by Stephen O Presley John Chrysostom by Paul A Hartog Augustine of Hippo by Edward L Smither Gregory the Great by W Brian Shelton Bernard of Clairvaux by Elizabeth Hoare Francis of Assisi by Timothy D Holder Saint Bonaventure by G R Evans Meister Eckhart by Daniel Farca John Huss by Mark A Howell Martin Luther by Robert Kolb John Calvin by Anthony N S Lane Jonathan Edwards by Gerald R McDermott John Wesley by Michael Pasquarello III George Whitefield by Bill Curtis and Timothy McKnight and many more Volume Two covers the period from the Enlightenment to the present day and profiles thirty one preachers including Catherine Booth by Roger J Green Charles Haddon Spurgeon by Thomas J Nettles Henry Ward Beecher by Michael Duduit John Albert Broadus by Hershael W York D L Moody by Gregg L Quiggle Billy Sunday by Kristopher K Barnett Karl Barth by William H Willimon Dietrich Bonhoeffer by Keith W Clements D Martyn Lloyd Jones by Carl Trueman John Stott by Greg R Scharf Harry Emerson Fosdick by Dwayne Milioni Aimee Semple McPherson by Aaron

Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len Hansen, 2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in poverty and privilege empire and oppression migration and enclaves seeking war and peace justice and injustice reconciliation and revenge During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life's contradictions A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising shocking ways It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort

What's Right with Preaching Today? Mike Graves, Andre Resner, 2021-03-09 In 1928 when Riverside Church NYC pastor Harry Emerson Fosdick asked the question in Harpers Magazine What's the Matter with Preaching Today he did not know that one response to that question had just entered the world in Humboldt Tennessee Fred B Craddock revolutionized preaching theory and practice by flipping pulpit logic from deductive to inductive often called the preaching as storytelling revolution and in so doing brought renewed interest and impact to the practice of preaching effectively rescuing it from an often tedious and moralizing fate With Fred preaching was anything but boring Rather it was an exciting and enlightening ride that led to the renewal of faith To honor Craddock's legacy Mike Graves and Andr Resner invited ten leading voices in homiletics to identify something that is right about preaching today In addition they issued a call to a wide variety of people to contribute stories about Fred's impact on their lives and ministries Twenty seven remembrances of Fred are included here throughout the book If you appreciate effective and engaging preaching as either a preacher or listener the essays and remembrances here will speak to you and provide encouragement about preaching s present and future With contributions from Ronald J Allen Barbara K Lundblad Alyce McKenzie Debra J Mumford Luke Powery Andre Resner Richard Ward Dawn Ottoni Wilhelm Paul Scott Wilson

Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book s wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry
