Matthew 14 22 23 John R Brokhoff is former Professor of Homiletics Candler School of Theology Emory University Dr Brokhoff is a prolific author whose popular CSS titles include Preaching the Parables volumes A B and C The series on Preaching the Miracles includes cycles A B and C Preaching the Miracles, Series III, Cycle B Harold H. Lentz, 1999 One cannot read the miracles of Christ reported in the gospel of Mark without being convinced of the divinity of Christ John Mark repeatedly records Christ's divine powers over nature illness severe physical handicaps and sin These events in which God's power entered into human situations had profound effects on those who witnessed them and they continue to teach us great spiritual truths today Pastors will find this volume packed with valuable idea starters for their sermons For each miracle in Cycle B Harold Lentz shares background material sermon approaches and several illustrations Instead of wondering What shall I preach on this Sunday you'll be thinking I can't wait to share all this information with my people Harold H Lentz served as pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Ashland Ohio prior to becoming the president of Carthage College in Kenosha Wisconsin As a pastor he increased the active membership of his congregation from 725 to 1 067 His Sunday morning sermons were broadcast and according to surveys were heard by more listeners than popular national preachers As president of Carthage College Lentz oversaw the relocation of its campus from Carthage Illinois to Kenosha Wisconsin This multi million dollar effort resulted in a quadrupling of enrollment The recipient of three honorary degrees Dr Lentz earned his Ph D with honors from Yale University where he was named a University Fellow He also holds degrees from Wittenberg University Hamma School of Theology and Oberlin College This is his fifth publication Ordinary Words, Extraordinary Deeds John W. Wurster, 2003 The stories of Jesus' miracles can be challenging to modern sensibilities conditioned as we are to believe that there must be a logical explanation for water being turned into wine or nets suddenly overflowing with fish But John Wurster suggests that for contemporary preachers and their listeners the most important question raised by these remarkable accounts is not How did they happen but rather What do they mean Ordinary Words Extraordinary Deeds helps answer that question by exploring the theological significance of the nine miracle stories appearing in Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary Each chapter includes the biblical text along with interpretive reflections that set the passage in its literary context and connect it to major themes of the gospel writer There's also a section investigating a variety of preaching possibilities and offering brief thoughts about what these texts tell us about the sacraments since like the miracles the sacraments make grace evident in ways we can touch and feel Specifically geared for the busy pastor with limited time this is an excellent volume packed with valuable idea starters and rich material for sermon development But it's also stimulating reading for anyone who wants greater insight into these marvelous stories of God's power at work Chapter titles include The Star Matthew 2 1 12 Wedding At Cana John 2 1 11 Jesus Transfigured Luke 9 28 36 The Lepers Luke 17 11 19 and five more John W Wurster is a graduate of Trinity University in San Antonio Texas B A summa cum laude Princeton Theological Seminary M Div and Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary D Min Currently the pastor of First Presbyterian Church in

Findlay Ohio Wurster has previously served congregations in Texas Ohio New Jersey and Pennsylvania He is the author of What If What They Say Is True CSS a collection of sermons on prophetic texts Your Faith Has Made You Well Charles L. Aaron, 2005 The moving accounts of Jesus power to cast out demons and heal physical ailments are compelling preaching texts but they also present a tangle of problems This book helps you negotiate a homiletic minefield with a detailed exploration of eleven miracle narratives appearing in Cycle B It s packed with stimulating ideas and illustrations for developing dynamic sermons including a chapter with numerous examples of contemporary miracles and healings This is an admirable example of pastoral theology at its best Aaron s discussions of the historical background and theological significance of each text are thoroughly informed and articulate Equally helpful are the insights he brings to the understanding of the pastoral implications of each text and the strategies appropriate to preaching the text David Bartlett Yale Divinity School Preaching the Miracles Dallas A. Brauninger, 1996 While this book offers information for the sermon writer the design of its contents provides more than the ho hum It avoids presenting a ready made cloak of words for a morning sermon Instead it invites preachers and their audiences to explore the gap between the back then and the now It not only helps answer questions it generates them a crucial element in understanding the miracles of Jesus Five sections are devoted to each of the nine miracles in Cycle B all from Mark Text For easy access the entire lectionary text is provided preventing the need to flip back and forth to the Bible What s Happening This gives a synopsis of points of action within each miracle story By reviewing the story action readers define its movement the conflict and the change or resolution Connecting Points Conversations This section offers the central material of each chapter Here Brauninger engages the preacher in an imaginary exchange before the text is given its usual preparatory attention A visit with main characters and an occasional bystander nudges readers toward stepping into their sandals This section invites the preacher and listening audience This section invites the preacher and the listening audience to ask questions relevant for them thus expanding their questioning and therefore their understanding Words Here significant words are examined While this work is not intended as a scholarly study it assists in placing things in proper context Gospel Parallels This section highlights similarities and differences among parallel stories and other gospels There is also a helpful bibliography included This new series from Brauninger promises to be a favorite among preachers Through it audiences will become aware of how God speaks to them through miracle stories and will enable them to hear their inner voice and more clearly understand it themselves Dallas A Brauninger received her Master of Divinity and Doctor of Divinity degrees from the Chicago Theological Seminary A full time writer Brauninger has served churches in Colorado and Nebraska She and her husband also an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ live in West Point Nebraska This is her seventh book Sermons on the Miracles Charles Haddon Spurgeon, Charles Thomas Cook, 1958 There are Demons in the Sea Carl Hoefler, 1978-06 Christ came to set God s people free from disobedience disease and death and each of the miracle events was not a faith healing but rather a battle won in which Jesus provided a cure from something for something That s the compelling theme of this fascinating study of ten miracle stories from the gospel of Mark featured in Cycle B of the Revised Common Lectionary Whether you re a busy pastor church school teacher discussion leader or just an interested Bible student There Are Demons In The Sea offers valuable and superbly organized background information Hoefler s scholarship perceptive insight and potent illustrative material make this volume an invaluable aid to preaching preparation or scriptural study Chapter titles include The Gordian Knot Mark 1 21 28 The Miracle Of Forgiveness Mark 2 1 12 There Are Demons In The Sea Mark 4 35 41 The Good Grocer Mark 6 30 44 An Exile Of Silence Set Free Mark 7 31 37 and more Richard Carl Hoefler is a former Dean of the Chapel and Professor of Preaching and Worship at Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in Columbia South Carolina The author of ten books Hoefler is a graduate of Wittenberg University Princeton Theological Seminary and Oxford University
