Preaching The Sacrament Of The Word:

Preaching Donald Coggan, 1988      The Preached God Gerhard O. Forde, 2007 The Preached God speaks directly to preachers calling them to deliver the truths of forgiveness life and salvation through both word and sacrament to all who listen

Preaching, Word and Sacrament Nigel Yates, 2009-02-12 This study follows on from Yates standard work Buildings Faith and Worship the Liturgical Arrangement of Anglican Churches 1600 1900 OUP 1991 revised edition 2000 and Liturgical Space in Western Europe since the Reformation Ashgate 2008 to provide the first detailed study of Scottish post Reformation church interiors for fifty years In the intervening period many of the buildings described by George Hay have been demolished converted to non ecclesiastical use or liturgically reordered However this study goes further to include many surviving examples not noted by Hay and extends his work further into the nineteenth century with a detailed study of buildings up to 1860 and with a more general consideration of later nineteenth and early twentieth century church architecture in Scotland The detailed study of developments in Scotland especially those in the Presbyterian churches are set in the context of comparative developments in other parts of Britain and Europe especially those in the Reformed churches of the Netherlands and Switzerland to create a groundbreaking new study by an established author      The Sacrament of the Word Made Flesh Robert J. Stamps, 2013-08-01 Robert Stamps offers us a compelling case for the significance of the theology of Thomas Torrance to current discussions about Trinitarian doctrine and worship He shows that Torrance s Christology and Eucharistic thought validates the Reformed confession of a profound real spiritual presence in the Eucharist This book serves as a helpful introduction to Torrance especially his framing of revelation Moreover it invigorates our understanding of the theological meaning of sacramental devotion Its readers will be stimulated provoked and dare I say inspired by its insights into and critiques of one of the most important and recent Reformed thinkers In sum this is a timely and exciting book It will well serve pastors theologians and thoughtful Christians of many theological perspectives MARK VALERI E T Thompson Professor of Church History Union Theological Seminary Virginia One of the values of this work is that it has deliberately sought not so much to discuss a particular problem or a collection of issues as to identify Torrance as an example of an archetypal Reformed theology of the Eucharist To say that Dr Stamps has been industrious is patently an understatement the truth is that he has been indefatigable in his search for the least morsel that Torrance offers Yet it is not so much as a study of Torrance that this book is to be commended its great value is that it offers a contextualization of Torrance s thinking on the Eucharist in ecclesiology the more general dimension of an incarnational theology as well as his understanding of cosmology and epistemology I hope that Dr Stamps book will not only find grateful readers but will be repaid by profound reflection on this symbol of the heart of faith JOHN HEYWOOD THOMAS Emeritus Professor of Theology University of Nottingham      The Sacramentality of Preaching Todd Townshend, 2009 In the time of the church transformation renewal and the process of coming to faith rely on the symbolic efficacy of speech where God is encountered as a word The

Sacramentality of Preaching examines the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and incorporates it into contemporary homiletical theory in order to bolster and renew Christian proclamation that has an intentionally sacramental character Liturgical preachers will find practical pathways frameworks and common language through the use of this innovative sacramentology

The Sacrament of the Word Donald Coggan,1987 Jesus Christ in the Preaching of Calvin and Schleiermacher Dawn DeVries,2002-03-01 While the effects of historical criticism on theology in the modern period have been well documented their implications for modern preaching have been largely ignored Dawn DeVries examines the content of and reasoning behind the preaching on the Synoptic Gospels by John Calvin and Friedrich Schleiermacher in order to ascertain their responses to the historical Jesus By doing so DeVries demonstrates that the shifting of emphasis in modern preaching from the miraculous aspects of the Gospel narratives to the internal miracles of faith has historical intellectual and spiritual grounding in the work of these classical theologians The Columbia Series in Reformed Theology represents a joint commitment by Columbia Theological Seminary and Westminster John Knox Press to provide theological resources from the Reformed tradition for the church today This series examines theological and ethical issues that confront church and society in our own particular time and place Word and Sacrament Donald Macleod,1960 Essentials of Christian Theology Stanley James Grenz,William Carl Placher,2003-01-01 This splendid introductory textbook for Christian theology presents two essays by leading scholars on each of the major theological questions William Placher provides an excellent discussion of the history and current state of each doctrine while the essays explore the key elements and contemporary issues relating to these important theological concepts Creative Preaching on the Sacraments Craig A. Satterlee,Lester Ruth,2003-10-01 Creative preaching can help you move the sacraments to the center of your congregation s spirituality by making scripture personal experience and the sacraments intersect in such a way that a wealth of meanings surfaces Satterlee and Ruth seek to expand the range of meanings and associations people bring to the sacraments They examine in depth how theology scripture context and timing relate to effective sacramental preaching Six sample sermons are included In Whom Do You Place Your Trust baptismal sermon by Stephen Castleberry The Water of Life baptismal sermon by Heichler The Kiss of Peace exchange of peace sermon by Craig A Satterlee The Ultimate Business Luncheon Communion sermon by Lester Ruth Crumbs Under the Table Communion sermon by Cathy Felber A Short Multisensory Baptismal Sermon adapted from Ambrose Recommended for pastors as a practical guide for preparing sermons that will make the great truths of God visible and tangible in the sacraments Designed especially for clergy chaplains and catechists The Preached God Gerhard O. Forde,2017-01-01 The Preached God speaks directly to preachers calling them to deliver the truths of forgiveness life and salvation through both word and sacrament to all who listen Word and Sacrament Dan Alger,2023-05-01 Anglican church planting veteran Dan Alger shows pastors how the rich traditions of liturgical worship are a gift to the work of starting new churches The Theology of Heinrich Bullinger William Peter Stephens,2019-10-07 W P Stephens last work before his untimely death was a volume on the theology of Heinrich Bullinger This work was virtually fully completed save the chapter on the Lord's Supper and has been edited by Joe Mock and Jim West at the wishes of the author and presents the theology of Bullinger following the same pattern of presentation as Stephens utilized in his work on the Theology of Huldrych Zwingli Each major theological topic is treated and fully described

The Oxford Edition of the Sermons of John Donne, Volume VII Peter McCullough, Erica Longfellow, 2024-12-11 Volume VII of The Oxford Edition of the Sermons of John Donne gathers sermons preached by Donne at different venues for the related liturgical occasions of marriages christenings and the churching of women after childbirth The volume contains ten sermons seven of them undated and in the case of the christening sermons also for parties unknown one of the two churching sermons survives only in an authorially revised state as two separate but obviously coeval sermons Longfellow and McCullough establish that these sermons were preached across almost the whole of Donne's preaching career from among his earliest ca 1615-16 to 1627 four years before his death In each case an authoritative text has been established by freshly collating multiple copies of the seventeenth century print editions as well as multiple manuscript copies which predate the print witnesses For the first time these sermons appear with full critical apparatus The Introduction provides the first dedicated account of the place of sermons in the social liturgical and theological contexts of these occasions in post Reformation England A headnote to each sermon describes its textual state and supplies local historical social and intellectual context and suggestions for further reading Extensive commentaries document Donne's use of sources both acknowledged and unacknowledged translate passages in foreign languages and gloss important and unfamiliar words Although largely neglected by previous scholarship these sermons emerge here as unique the only known sermons for churchings challenging for views on women and marriage more conservative than many of Donne's contemporaries and as evidence of Donne's Calvinist sacramental theology and his anti Catholicism They are also fine examples of Donne's skill in crafting emotionally compelling sermons suited to the unique demands of both occasion and auditory

The Oxford Handbook of Karl Barth Paul Dafydd Jones, Paul T. Nimmo, 2019 The Oxford Handbook of Karl Barth is an expansive guide to Barth's work Comprising over forty original chapters each of which is written by an expert in the field the handbook provides rich analysis of Barth's life and context

Sacramental Presence Ruthanna B. Hooke, 2023-05-22 Drawing on performance studies and sacramental and liturgical theology Ruthanna B Hooke develops a theology of proclamation grounded in the body's experience of preaching The author explores the claim that preaching is a sacramental event of communion with the triune God by comparing the steps involved in voice production with the fourfold shape of the Eucharist This comparison yields a description of preaching as an event of self offering that allows space for the humanity of the preacher and as an encounter with the Holy Spirit that is communal and prophetic Preaching draws participants into Christ's dying and rising and hence into a mode of power known in vulnerability Calling hearers into the eschatological event of the resurrection preaching inherently moves toward proclamation on political and ethical issues

Hooke uses this theological framework to offer ways of preaching on environmental crisis and on racism The author calls preachers to embodied engagement with preaching and describes a way for preachers to bear witness to Jesus Christ not only in the content of their proclamation but in their way of being in the preaching event     Prayers and Other Pieces
Thomas Becon,1844     Publications Parker Society (Great Britain),Parker Society (Great Britain).,1844     Prayers and Other Pieces of Thomas Becon Thomas Becon,1844     Prayers and Other Pieces of Thomas Becon, S.T.P., Chaplain to Archbishop Cranmer, Prebendary of Canterbury, &c Thomas Becon,1844
