Preaching the whole Bible as Christian Scripture Graeme Lister Goldsworthy, 2002

The Heart of Hebrews Leslie Powers, 2018-08-08 Making the presence of God known in the world goes to the very heart of the church's purpose Yet it is a formidable challenge How can the church make the presence and glory of God a reality in a world that both denies God and hates the church By the church bearing the image of Jesus Christ in the world through word and deed for as the unknown author of Hebrews declares Jesus is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of His being Hebrews 1:3 It is not the primary purpose of the church to specialize in economic social or political issues but rather to proclaim the good news of what God has accomplished in and through Jesus Christ When the church quits proclaiming Christ to proclaim a message of love acceptance tolerance and affirmation then it ceases to effectively fulfill its purpose and loses its relevancy Christ came into the world to proclaim the Gospel in the marketplace and He did so while never surrendering His identity or sacrificing His purpose for the sake of relevancy He expects his church in every age to do likewise The greatest need in the church today is exactly what the early church needed in the first century In a church that is infected with a spiritual apathy has forsaken her first love has compromised truth and is lukewarm a new vision of the risen and glorified Christ dwelling in her midst is needed The only method God designed to lead the church to recover the awareness of Christ's presence is prayer and preaching that focuses on Jesus Christ Thus if the church is to flourish again there is no greater need than a recovery of faithful powerful biblical preaching whose subject is Christ and the new birth

Biblical Preaching is employed in twelve expository messages with accompanying comments on each by the editor and interviews with each preacher Preaching to Be Heard Lucas O'Neill, 2019-02-13 If a sermon is preached in a church and no one is listening does it make a difference There are many expository preachers who forego dynamic delivery and many dynamic preachers who lose sight of faithfully communicating the biblical text Too often preachers feel they have to choose one or the other But dynamic delivery and faithful exposition are not mutually exclusive In Preaching to Be Heard Lucas O'Neill shows pastors that presenting engaging sermons that are biblically focused is not an impossibility In fact the key to commanding attention lies in the text itself Rather than relying on tricks or gimmicks his approach to sermon writing focuses on maintaining tension throughout while sticking close to the biblical text Using practical examples and a step by step method O'Neill shows pastors how relying on the inherent anticipation within Scripture can lead to sermons that are powerful and heard The Art and Craft of Biblical Preaching Haddon W. A Philosophy of Pastoral Preaching David A. Christensen, 2023-05-26 I am a pastor I preach Doesn't that make me a pastoral preacher Not necessarily Many preach missional rather than pastoral sermons designed to appeal to the unchurched not the church The popularity of regional churches and the global reach of the internet allow preachers to focus their sermons on people they do not know and market a message to an audience they never see Evangelical leaders produce many resources on attractional preaching but who is developing a vision for pastoral preaching David Christensen draws on years of experience to develop a philosophy of pastoral preaching He writes Social media changes the way we preach More and more pastors are preaching clickbait sermons These are sermons designed to get clicks or attract interest rather than teach truth We want catchy titles and clever analogies that will grab people's attention because the digital world is built on attention whatever will get likes or drive outrage However pastoral preaching builds community It is rooted in local soil to the people we know in the place we live We need a philosophy of preaching that shepherds a community of disciples who worship together in one place
