Producing Mayaland Claudia Fonseca Alfaro, 2023-04-10 Producing Mayaland Producing Mayaland powerfully captures the extent to which the abstract spaces of global capital are infused with colonial fantasies haunted by uncanny ruins and plagued by monstrous manifestations of ecological breakdown Through a compelling account of the maquiladora industry in the Yucatan Peninsula Claudia Fonseca Alfaro vividly conveys the inextricable entanglements of the capitalist production of space and the coloniality of power Japhy Wilson School of Social Sciences University of Manchester UK In Producing Mayaland Claudia Fonseca Alfaro finds a unique voice to narrate the contested relations between everyday life urbanization and the uneven development of capitalism in Motul Yucatán Mexico The remarkable insights of this work emerge from her innovative synthesis of critical urban theory anticolonialism and magical realism all grounded in an imaginative appropriation of Henri Lefebvre's oeuvre on the production of space Kanishka Goonewardena Professor of Geography and Planning University of Toronto Critical urban theory and postcolonial approaches are brought together in this compelling book to explore the relationship between colonial legacies urbanization and global capitalism in southern Mexico Producing Mayaland investigates the boom to bust story of maquiladoras in the state of Yucatán to shed light on how the built environment was shaped by discourse imaginaries and everyday practices In making sense of this social production of space the author examines infrastructure constructed to support the maquiladora project and traces the attempts of the state to portray Yucatán as an exotic and business friendly maquiladora paradise These practices stand in contrast to the livelihood strategies and life stories of maquiladora workers and residents Carefully weaving geography history and ethnography the author draws on a wide range of sources to illustrate a central tension in capitalism its tendency to homogenize while thriving in differentiation With important insights into an understudied location Producing Mayaland urges us to understand urbanization in the global South in new ways

Beauty Queens on the Global Stage Colleen Ballerion Cohen, Richard Wilk, Beverly Stoeltje, 2013-09-13 Modern beauty contests were invented by P T Barnum in the United States but in the 20th century pageants and contests have spread across the entire world from Nepal to Tierra Del Fuego Why are women and sometimes men in drag parading on stage such a universally appealing spectacle attracting an audience in the billions This book is the first global comparison of pageants from different parts of the world at the ways each contest is both intensely local and unique and simultaneously global and remarkable repetitious The authors use the latest tools of feminist ethnographic and literary scholarship to unpack and interpret one of the greatest and most universal

Altered Altitudes Lisa Robertsen, 2024-11-20 Miami a shimmering mirage of sun drenched opulence teeters on the brink of watery oblivion The turquoise embrace of the ocean once a playground for the privileged now laps ominously at the city's gleaming towers a chilling harbinger of its impending submergence In this precarious paradise where political machinations and ecological devastation collide an improbable love story unfolds amidst the rising tides Dr Benjamin Carter a brilliant but perpetually underestimated climatologist carries the weight of Miami's future on his shoulders Haunted by grim projections of inundated streets he tirelessly presents irrefutable data to a city council blinded by avarice and self preservation Each meticulously crafted report each impassioned plea falls on deaf ears leaving Ben isolated and increasingly desperate his warnings echoing unanswered in the opulent halls of power Maya Rodriguez an activist whose fiery spirit mirrors the encroaching ocean bursts
