Precarious Dependencies Gender Class And Domestic Service In Bolivia:

Precarious Dependencies Lesley Gill, 1994 This examination of female domestic service concentrates on the mistress servant relationship across a 50 year period in Bolivia in order to understand why a dominant class of women hires others to carry out domestic duties Within this broader context the author explores female domestic service through oral histories with mistresses and servants court cases and interviews She explores how gender and ethnicity are mediated by class position and historical experience and how changing power relations have both sustained and altered social distinctions Gender,

Migration and Domestic Service Janet Henshall Momsen, 2003-09-02 This book examines a wide range of migration patterns which have arisen and exposes the tensions and difficulties including legal and empowerment issues cultural and language diversities and barriers the impact of live in employment The book features case studies taken from Europe South and North America the Caribbean Asia and Africa and uses original fieldwork using quantitative and qualitative methods

Handbook of Political Anthropology Harald Wydra, Bjørn Thomassen, 2018-11-30 This Handbook engages the reader in the major debates approaches methodologies and explanatory frames within political anthropology Examining the shifting borders of a moving field of enquiry it illustrates disciplinary paradigm shifts the role of humans in political structures ethnographies of the political and global processes Reflecting the variety of directions that surround political anthropology today this volume will be essential reading to understanding the interactions of humans within political frames in a globalising world The Great Gap Merike Blofield, 2015-08-21 The relationship between socioeconomic inequality and democratic politics has been one of the central questions in the social sciences from Aristotle on Recent waves of democratization combined with deepened global inequalities have made understanding this relationship ever more crucial In

The Great Gap Merike Blofield seeks to contribute to this understanding by analyzing inequality and politics in the region with the highest socioeconomic inequalities in the world Latin America The chapters written by prominent scholars in their fields address the socioeconomic context and inequality of opportunities elite culture public opinion and media framing capital mobility campaign financing representation and gender equality policies and taxation and social policies Aside from the editor the contributors are Pablo Alegre Mauricio Bugarin Daniela Campello Anna Crespo Francisco H G Ferreira Fernando Filgueira Liesl Haas Sallie Hughes Juan Pablo Luna James E Mahon Jr Juliana Martinez Franzoni Adriana Cuoco Portugal Paola Prado Elisa P Reis Luis Reygadas Sergio Naruhiko Sakurai and Koen Voorend Natives Making Nation

Andrew Canessa, 2011-08-01 In Bolivia today the ability to speak an indigenous language is highly valued among educated urbanites as a useful job skill but a rural person who speaks a native language is branded with lower social status Likewise chewing coca in the countryside spells inferior indian but in La Paz jazz bars it's decidedly cool In the Andes and elsewhere the commodification of indianness has impacted urban lifestyles as people co-opt indigenous cultures for qualities that emphasize the uniqueness of their national culture This volume looks at how metropolitan ideas of nation employed by politicians the media and education are produced reproduced and contested by people of the rural Andes people who have long been regarded as ethnically and racially distinct from more culturally European urban citizens Yet these peripheral natives are shown to be actively engaged with the idea of the nation in their own communities forcing us to re think the ways in which indigeneity is defined by its marginality The contributors examine the ways in which numerous identities racial generational ethnic regional national gender and sexual are both mutually informing and contradictory among subaltern Andean people who are more likely now to claim an allegiance to a nation than ever before Although indians are less often confronted with crude assimilationist policies they continue to face racism and discrimination as they struggle to assert an identity that is more than a mere refraction of the dominant culture Yet despite the language of multiculturalism employed even in constitutional reform any assertion of indian identity is likely to be resisted By exploring topics as varied as nation building in the 1930s or the chugila dance these authors expose a paradox in the relation between indians and the nation that the nation can be claimed as a source of power and distinct identity while simultaneously making some types of national imaginings unattainable Whether dancing together or simply talking to one another the people described in these essays are shown creating identity through processes that are inherently social and interactive To sing to eat to weave In the performance of these simple acts bodies move in particular spaces and contexts and do so within certain understandings of gender race and nation Through its presentation of this rich variety of ethnographic and historical contexts Natives Making Nation provides a finely nuanced view of contemporary Andean life

The Feeling Child Philippa Page, Inela

Selimovic, Camilla Sutherland, 2018-11-15 The Feeling Child Affect and Politics in Latin American Literature and Film compiles a series of essays focusing on the figure of the child within the specific context of the affective turn in the study of contemporary sociocultural settings across Latin America This edited volume looks specifically at the intersection between cultural constructions of childhood and the affective turn within the contemporary sociopolitical landscape of Latin America The editors and contributors share a common aim in furthering comprehension of the particular intensity of the child's affective presence spectatorial haptic silent and spectral among others in contemporary Latin American cultural expression The contributions herein approach this theoretical challenge through an interdisciplinary lens which brings together two burgeoning strands of inquiry The first is the notion of childhood as a significant and inherently political sociocultural space the second is the recognition that affect is integral and fundamental to gaining a more complex understanding of the manner in which contemporary social worlds are made In each case this affective presence is teased out as a register of society shedding light on the issues marking out the current sociopolitical landscape in particular the traces of the recent past in the regions represented This book brings together established international scholars and young academics focusing on Argentina Bolivia Chile Cuba and Peru

Immigrant Life in the US Donna R. Gabaccia, Colin Wayne Leach, 2004-03-01 Immigrant Life in the U S brings together scholars from across the disciplines to examine diverse examples of immigration to the paradigmatic nation of immigrants The volume covers a wide range of time periods ethnic and national groups and places of immigration Contemporary Chinese children brought to the U S through adoption Mexican laborers hired to work in the mid west in the 1930s Indian computer programmers hired to work in California and more are examined in a series of chapters that show the great diversity of issues facing immigrants in the past and in the present This book emphasizes the complex tapestry that is the everyday experience of life as an immigrant and turns a critical eye on the place of globalization in the everyday life of immigrants The contrasts it draws between past and present demonstrate the continued salience of national and ethnic identities while also describing how migrants can live almost simultaneously in two countries This book will be of essential interest to advanced students and researchers of Sociology History Ethnic Studies and American Studies

Hierarchies at Home Anasa Hicks, 2022-08-25 This book destabilizes racialized and gendered assumptions about labour in Cuba and challenges traditional chronologies of 20th century Cuban history Domestic Economies Susanna

Rosenbaum, 2017-12-21 In Domestic Economies Susanna Rosenbaum examines how two groups of women Mexican and Central American domestic workers and the predominantly white middle class women who employ them seek to achieve the American Dream By juxtaposing their understandings and experiences she illustrates how immigrant and native born women strive to reach that ideal how each group is indispensable to the other's quest and what a vital role reproductive labor plays in this pursuit Through in depth ethnographic research with these women at work at home and in the urban spaces of Los Angeles Rosenbaum positions domestic service as an intimate relationship that reveals two versions of female personhood Throughout Rosenbaum underscores the extent to which the ideology of the American Dream is racialized and gendered exposing how the struggle for personal worth and social recognition is shaped at the intersection of motherhood and paid employment

The Gendered Worlds of Latin American Women Workers Daniel James, 1997 In Latin American countries the modern factory originally was considered a hostile and threatening environment for women and family values Nine essays dealing with Argentina Brazil Chile Colombia and Guatemala describe the contradictory experiences of women whose work defied gender prescriptions but was deemed necessary by working class families in a world of need and scarcity 19 photos

Owners of the Sidewalk Daniel M. Goldstein, 2016-01-22 Many of Bolivia's poorest and most vulnerable citizens work as vendors in the Cancha mega market in the city of Cochabamba where they must navigate systems of informality and illegality in order to survive In Owners of the Sidewalk Daniel M Goldstein examines the ways these systems correlate in the marginal spaces of the Latin American city Collaborating with the Cancha's legal and permanent stall vendors fijos and its illegal and itinerant street and sidewalk vendors ambulantes Goldstein shows how the state's deliberate neglect and criminalization of the Cancha's poor a practice common to neoliberal modern cities makes the poor exploitable governable and consigns them to an insecure existence Goldstein's collaborative and engaged approach to ethnographic field research also opens up critical questions about what ethical scholarship entails

Hired Daughters Mary

Montgomery,2019-02-19 Hired Daughters examines a fading tradition of domestic service in which rural girls familiar to ordinary Moroccan families were placed in their homes until marriage In this tradition of bringing up the girls are considered daughters of the house and part of their role in the family is to help with the housework Gradually this tradition is transforming into one in which workers unfamiliar to their host families are paid a wage and may not stay long but where the Islamic ethics of charity religious reward and gratitude still inform expectations on both sides Mary Montgomery examines why Moroccans so often talk about their domestic workers as daughters what this means for workers and employers and how this is changing in contemporary Morocco Prioritizing the experiences and perspectives of these women Montgomery charts the tension that has developed between socially embedded loyal domestic workers who operate within narratives of kinship and obligation and women who seek greater individualization privacy and self empowerment Hired Daughters offers a nuanced understanding of a world that bridges public and private morality and money family and outsiders In doing so it provides an intimate consideration of contemporary Moroccan households as economic enterprises and sites of navigation between the traditional and the global

Tourism and the Power of Otherness David Picard,Michael A. Di

Giovine,2014-01-09 This book explores the paradoxes of Self Other relations in the field of tourism It particularly focuses on the power of different forms of Otherness to seduce and to disrupt and eventually also to renew the social and cosmological orders of modern culture and everyday life Drawing on a series of ethnographic case studies the contributors investigate the production socialisation and symbolic encompassment of different Others as a political and also an economic resource to govern social life in the present The volume provides a comparative inductive study on the modernist philosophical concepts of time Otherness and the self in practice and relates it to contemporary tourism and mobility

Domestic Service and the Formation of European Identity Antoinette Fauve-Chamoux,2004

Before the Servant Project began its activities on the initiative of the editor of this book the long term history of domestic service was still in its beginning stage This volume is the first wide ranging attempt to determine the role of domestic workers both in past and present times Domestic service was of major importance in the multi secular process of urbanization and socio economic development of European societies Today domestic workers mainly women represent an important component of international labour migrations to Western countries Instead of disappearing as expected for a long time paid domestic work is currently experiencing a kind of resurgence The contributions assembled in this volume analyze the situation of domestic workers and contribute to improve knowledge concerning their individual characteristics gender ethnic group religion origin motivation and cultural identity relationship with their own families and those of the employers Further topics are connections with the home country and place of destination legal status rights and duties in order to understand the current globalization of domestic work

A Concise History of Bolivia Herbert S. Klein,2011-01-31

In its first Spanish edition Herbert Klein s A Concise History of Bolivia won immediate acceptance within Bolivia as the new standard history of this important nation Surveying Bolivia s economic social cultural and political evolution from the arrival of early man in the Andes to the present this current version brings the history of this society up to the present day covering the fundamental changes that have occurred since the National Revolution of 1952 and the return of democracy in 1982 These changes have included the introduction of universal education and the rise of the mestizos and Indian populations to political power for the first time in national history This second edition brings this story through the first administration of the first self proclaimed Indian president in national history and the major changes that the government of Evo Morales has introduced in Bolivian society politics and economics Global

Uncertain Citizenship Megan Ryburn, 2018-10-19 Uncertain Citizenship explores how Bolivian migrants to Chile experience citizenship in their daily lives Intraregional migration is on the rise in Latin America and challenges how citizenship in the region is understood and experienced As Megan Ryburn powerfully argues many individuals occupy a state of uncertain citizenship as they navigate movement and migration across borders Drawing on multi-sited ethnographic research this book contributes to debates on the meaning and practice of citizenship in Latin America and for migrants throughout the world Criminal Capital Andrew Sanchez, 2016-04-14 Criminal Capital is an ethnographic analysis of the relationship between neoliberalism criminality and the reshaping of class in modern industrial India It examines the links between capitalism corruption trade unionism violence and labour politics in contemporary Indian society and public policy

Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 2017-12-15 Middle class Chinese women in the global city of Hong Kong have entered the workforce in unprecedented numbers over the past three decades and the demand for foreign domestic workers has soared A decade ago some foretold the decline in foreign workers and the influx of mainland workers But today over 120 000 women from the Philippines over 90 000 from Indonesia and thousands more from other parts of South and Southeast Asia serve as maids on two year contracts in Hong Kong sending much needed remittances to their families abroad Nicole Constable tells their story by updating Maid to Order in Hong Kong with a focus on the major changes that have taken place since Hong Kong's reunification with mainland China in 1997 the Asian financial crisis of the late 1990s and the outbreak of SARS in 2002 2003 Interweaving her analysis with the women's individual stories she shows how power is expressed in the day to day lives of Filipina domestic workers and more recent Indonesian arrivals      Compromised Positions Katherine Elaine Bliss, 2010-11-01 To illuminate the complex cultural foundations of state formation in modern Mexico Compromised Positions explains how and why female prostitution became politicized in the context of revolutionary social reform between 1910 and 1940 Focusing on the public debates over legalized sexual commerce and the spread of sexually transmitted disease in the first half of the twentieth century Katherine Bliss argues that political change was compromised time and again by reformers own antiquated ideas about gender and class by prostitutes outrage over official attempts to undermine their livelihood and by clients unwillingness to forgo visiting brothels despite revolutionary campaigns to promote monogamy sexual education and awareness of the health risks associated with sexual promiscuity In the Mexican public s imagination the prostitute symbolized the corruption of the old regime even as her redemption represented the new order s potential to dramatically alter gender relations through social policy Using medical records criminal case files and letters from prostitutes and their patrons to public officials Compromised Positions reveals how the contradictory revolutionary imperatives of individual freedom and public health clashed in the effort to eradicate prostitution and craft a model of morality suitable for leading Mexico into the modern era
