Treasured Moments with Mother Graham Rose Adams, Donna Lee Toney, 2012-01-01 Billy Graham describes Rose Adams as a delightful Christian woman who cared for my mother Morrow Coffey Graham in her last two years of life. Decades later, Rose would still visit the reverend and his wife Ruth, warming their hearts with memories of Mother Graham as she was known and how every conversation would lead back to the Bible. In time, Adams put these recollections on tape for Billy Graham. Deeply touched, he then suggested putting them into book form, knowing so many would draw comfort and strength from seeing how one younger woman learned so much from an older one. Treasured Moments with Mother Graham is the sparkling result, four months' worth of daily devotions built from the diary of Rose Adams. Each entry includes a word of Truth from Mother Graham, a related Scripture, and application, a recollection from Rose Adams to Billy Graham on the context and meaning of this teaching from his mother, and finally is complemented by reflections on this thought from Billy Graham. These are indeed treasured moments that span every book of the Bible and every facet of the Christian life.

On the Family Pope Francis, 2016-03-15 Pope Francis has often expressed his concern for the urgent pastoral needs of families in today's society. Underscoring that deep love and concern for the family, the Pope has spent many months speaking on this subject in his weekly Wednesday audience talks. This book is a collection of all of those talks about the family from Dec 17, 2014, to Sept 16, 2015. The Pope covers a wide variety of important subjects directly related to family life, speaking in his personal style that offers wisdom and practical insights for the modern family. His words are for families in general and also directed to the important roles of all those specific persons who make up family life: husbands, wives, parents, children, and grandparents. He emphasizes the deep crisis that the family and marriage are undergoing in the Western world and says that the family is a new mission field for the Church. He challenges families today to be witnesses to the world of love, fidelity, and service. Some of the specific topics his talks address include the example of the Holy Family of Nazareth, transmitting the faith, educating the children, family prayer, complementarity of male and female, celebration in family life, mercy, and forgiveness, dealing with illness and death, learning the value of work, poverty, and economic struggles, evangelizing the culture, and much more. Throughout his addresses, the Holy Father especially emphasizes the primary role of God and faith in family life and the crucial importance of regular family prayer to draw on God's grace for strength, love, joy, and unity within the home. The true joy which we experience in the family is not superficial; it does not come from material objects or from the fact that everything seems to be going well. True joy comes from a profound harmony between persons, something which we all feel in our hearts.
