Precious Jewel Person Barbara Ritter Garrison,1990      The Teachings of Rao: The Spiritual Avatar of the Red Sun Ed Russo,2018-01-10 This book presents the Teachings of Rao the God of Krypton By using a few references from other places I analyzed from a scientific orientation that shows through the model of a Tree of Life of how it relates to modern scientific models as Russell Quantum Mechanics and Psychology The teachings reveal the secret wisdom about the nature of the universe and of the psyche as well as a path to make the journey through transformation from mortal to immortal from man woman to superman superwoman The goal is to reclaim your state of balance and harmony with the Absolute This was the notion of the summon bonum or greatest good that we should aspire to A superman or supergirl that I am referring to isn't the comic book version with superpowers I am talking about more of the Nietzsche's concept the bermensch It's about being psychological superior than we are today the supermen and women will live by their own values as not seen since we followed those values more Pagan in nature      Spiritual Reflections for Every Day in the Year: with Morning and Evening Prayers Thomas Goyder,1849      Spiritual Reflections for Every Day in the Year. Spirituality in Social Work Edward R Canda,2012-11-12 As Spirituality in Social Work New Directions shows you there has been an increase of interest among social workers concerning spiritual matters In response to this collective interest Edward Canda and several other members of the Society for Spirituality and Social Work have compiled a thorough and timely compendium of social work research theory and practice Their book will guide you in your efforts to meet the needs of your families and clients while still remaining educated and respectful of the many religious and nonreligious views different people have In Spirituality in Social Work you'll get an update on the current state of spirituality social work scholarship and education From there you'll move on to current appraisals of the many specialized ways social work educators are teaching spirituality in MSW programs and you'll ultimately come full circle to a fuller understanding of the many ways social work and spirituality complement and inform each other in the classroom as well as in the field of practice Most importantly you'll get specific guidance on these topics how to enhance the intuition of social workers when to apply the Transcendental model to a dying adolescent where to engage in conceptions of spirituality in social work literature what Taoist insights can do to enhance social work practice how social work can prosper in future efforts to link spirituality and social work In many ways Spirituality in Social Work is a spiritual awakening in its own right for social workers for individuals and for communities at large The demand for social work practitioners educators and community officials to be cross trained in spirituality and social work is on the rise So if you're struggling to find new ways to deal with the ever increasing and ever diversifying demand for spiritual training in your particular social work setting pick up this insightful edition and find new hope and direction in the many different ways that social work and spirituality can work together for you      Mythology and Algorithms of

Consciousness. Correct Thinking is the Key to Spiritual Health Alexey Tolstykh, 2025-03-12 Mythology and Algorithms of Consciousness is a simple instructional message It serves two main purposes of Spiritual Constructology The first purpose is to determine the Personal Trend Stream The second purpose is to eliminate Component Perception Disorders This book is based on the principle of eliminating the influence of traditional forms of cultural historical religious contexts on the consciousness of a social subject

Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 4 (2013), 2013-11-21 Prayer is a phenomenon which seems to be characteristic not only of participants in every religion but also men and women who do not identify with traditional religions It can be practised even by those who do not believe either in a God or transcendent force In this sense therefore we may assert that the prayer is a typically human activity that has accompanied the development of different civilizations over the course of the centuries Both the material issues of concrete daily life as well as more symbolic elements expressed through words gestures body positions and community celebration are brought together in the act of praying
