Myths are our collective dreams our inspiration and our aspiration they are the sacred stories that guide us in living a conscious life One of the most beloved myths of the West is that of King Arthur and his Companions of the Round Table and we find in this work that the spiritual teachings embodied in this myth are the same as those of the chakra system of the East Both map the development of human consciousness from conception to self realization Arthur of Britain transports us to the landscape and the time of King Arthur while opening our hearts to the power of myth to transcend time and space A retelling of some of the legends correlates the events of Arthur's life with the physical emotional mental and spiritual challenges that he and we encounter at each chakra Guided meditations use the archetypal symbols in the myth to help us negotiate those challenges and bring into consciousness the wisdom and self healing power that we all carry within This work is a valuable contribution to both the spiritual and mythological literature as it provides a bridge between the two and highlights the similarities rather than the differences of diverse traditions Also this book is available on Amazon and Barnes Noble A Moment in Time Carol Pierce-Davis

PhD, 2025-06-30 With clear vision scripture driven insight and a down to earth style Dr Carol Pierce Davis presents a collection of meditations titled A Moment in Time Meditations on the Seasons of Faith Loosely based on the church calendar to which she added a few new seasons of her own she leads you into a Biblical journey as contemporary as today touching on the realities of life and death love and division war and peace She showcases her love of scripture and her intimate relationship with the players in Biblical history In her meditation My Man Moses she writes I have always said that when I die and go to heaven presumptuous I know I am going to hang out with the cool guys Isaiah David and Jesus After reading today's scripture I have added another candidate Moses With his outrageous relationship with God he took down the walls of power and mystery between human and God to cajole annoy and get his way when it came to protecting God's people With her psychological awareness and grasp of scripture she offers a spiritual look into communication relationships and life transitions Add in her sense of humor and fearless theology and you have A Moment in Time Meditations on the Seasons of Faith How Much the Body Linda Lee McDonald, 2019-07-29

An Angel on His Wing Tay Thomas,2020-05-21 Here is a fascinating portrayal of the life and ministry of Bill Gordon dynamic and unorthodox leader of the Episcopal Church in Alaska for twenty six years It is a story too of a changing Alaska beginning in the 1940s and taking us to the post oil pipeline era of the 1970s Upon Bill s election as bishop in 1948 at the age of 29 the Gordons moved to Fairbanks and Bill assumed control of the enormous Missionary District Undaunted he learned to fly and soon was spending six months of his year traveling among the far flung Indian and Eskimo villages in his single engine plane He had many dose calls in the Alaskan wilderness crashing no less than six times Tireless in his dedication to his flock Bill could be a tough taskmaster Priests who came north to his parishes soon learned to rough it like their bishop who was often content with a pot of beaver stew and a sleeping bag in a one room hut Bill marched to a different drummer on many issues openly opposing the Vietnam war at a time when very few of his parishioners and fellow bishops did In the mid 1960s he began an ambitious and controversial program to raise up native clergy priests whose only training was on the spot This meant changing the canons of the Episcopal Church but Bill prevailed ordaining twenty seven native men and women in the early 1970s In 1974 after serving for twenty six years as a bishop Bill saw his work completed and resigned leaving an indelible mark on Alaska and the Episcopal Church Christianity Gordon Geddes,Jane Griffiths,2001
