Predators with Pouches Menna Jones, Mike Archer, Chris Dickman, 2003-04-30 Predators with Pouches provides a unique synthesis of current knowledge of the world's carnivorous marsupials from Patagonia to New Guinea and North America to Tasmania Written by 63 experts in each field the book covers a comprehensive range of disciplines including evolution and systematics reproductive biology physiology ecology behaviour and conservation Predators with Pouches reveals the relationships between the American didelphids and the Australian dasyurids and explores the role of the marsupial fauna in the mammal community It introduces the geologically oldest marsupials from the Americas and examines the fall from former diversity of the larger marsupial carnivores and their convergent evolution with placental forms The book covers all aspects of carnivorous marsupials including interesting features of life history their unique reproduction the physiological basis for early senescence in semelparous dasyurids sex ratio variation and juvenile dispersal It looks at gradients in nutrition from omnivory to insectivory to carnivory as well as distributional ecology social structure and conservation dilemmas

Rattlesnakes, Airplanes and Gold Douglas Lowell Jack, 2021-06-09 This book begins with the story of how one American family found their own way into being part of the national pre occupation with Soviet aggression during the 1950s They acquired their own bomb shelter in the form of a 1500 foot long underground tunnel This tunnel was bored into a mountainside in central Nevada USA for the purpose of mining radio active Uranium ore The general idea was that everyone went underground before a nuclear attack After some time went by they would then all emerge out into the bright sunshine start everything back up again put the coffee on and life would be good minus the evil Soviet Union There were so many deadly rattlesnakes in the area they even considered sending a few of them in to the authorities along with the Uranium orders just to liven things up a bit Maybe just the threat of dropping a whole bomb load of angry rattlesnakes on the Russians would have been enough Who knows Before this Nevada adventure they had been gold mining in the snow filled rugged mountains of Idaho State This saga also included at one point having to be rescued by the US Airforce Even before all of that occurred the head of the family had spent 10 years in Alaska as a mining man and a bush pilot The whole chapter of his Alaskan arctic adventures reads almost like something out of an Errol Flynn movie The family then moved to the isolated and remote interior of British Columbia Canada where a whole new endeavour in placer gold mining and pioneer living was begun Airplanes and bush pilots became a big part of those stories as well This book was written by the oldest son of the family and contains first hand exciting informative and entertaining glimpses into a way of life in North America that is rapidly disappearing Hopefully for the older readers these stories will surely bring back vibrant memories of their own past adventures and for the younger readers this book will be a call to action to find and live their own dreams Through it all this family definitely had their share of Rattlesnakes Airplanes and Gold Gold from Seven Cities Clovis McCallister, 2018-07-09 Seven ships filled with gold silver and treasures of the Church sail from Hispania to escape invading Moors in the seventh century going westward where the wind carries them under divine guidance The foreigners and natives settle in an area now called Chaco Canyon to establish a religious center and build seven cities of gold and silver that historians and treasure hunters still talk about and seek The people and their cities of gold disappear without a trace centuries before fortune hunters come seeking the cities and the wealth they contain Only a select few people remain to oversee the secrets of the ancient people their treasure and the plan for using that treasure Gold Throne in Shadow M.C. Planck, 2015-10-13 The continuing adventures of Christopher Sinclair mechanical engineer turned priest of war Christopher raised from the dead and promoted to a moderate rank takes command of the army regiment he trained and equipped Sent south to an allegedly easy posting he finds himself in the way of several thousand rabid dog men Guns and fortifications turn back the horde but Christopher has other problems that cannot be solved with mere firepower a wicked assassin hostile clergymen dubious allies including a bard Lalanía with a connection to a mysterious group of scholars and worst of all his own impolitic tongue But all of these pale into mere distractions once he discovers the true enemy an invisible mind eating horror who plays the kingdom like a puppet master's stage Lalanía claims she can help but will it be enough
