Lionel Trilling Daniel T. O'Hara, 1988 Daniel T O'Hara reads the career of Trilling as a single completely comprehensive work of self-fashioning The intention of such work says O'Hara from the beginning and throughout Trilling's intellectual life was to create a self that when confronted with the great achievement of another mind was capable of imaginative sympathy and not solely resentful critique In order to reach that goal however Trilling had to adopt one of the conventional masks available to the intellectual in modern culture and adapt it to his needs and to those of his liberal time
