Elster, Colin Renfrew, 2003-07-01 Recipient of the Jo Anne Stolaroff Cotsen Prize Volume 2 presents the concluding research on Sitagroi a prehistoric settlement mound in northeastern Greece excavated between 1968 and 1970 This volume offers a detailed report on the plant remains along with a full treatment of craft and technology artifacts of adornment tools of bone and flaked stone artifacts and tools of bone and ground and polished stone and petrology tools of the spinner weaver and mat maker pottery technology metallurgy and special clay finds such as seals miniatures and utensils This rich presentation offers unparalleled insights into the life of the prehistoric inhabitants of the area Sitagroi now becomes one of the most comprehensively published sites from prehistoric Europe and will be indispensable for all those concerned with European prehistory

Journal of Greek Archaeology Volume 3 2018, 2018-10-31 True to its initial aims the latest volume of the Journal of Greek Archaeology runs the whole chronological range of Greek Archaeology while including every kind of material culture

Prehistoric Sitagroi Colin Renfrew, Marija Gimbutas, Ernestine S. Elster, 2003

Athens and Attica in Prehistory: Proceedings of the International Conference, Athens, 27-31 May 2015 Nikolas Papadimitriou, James C. Wright, Sylvian Fachard, Naya Polychronakou-Sgouritsa, Eleni Andrikou, 2020-07-30 This book provides the most complete overview of the Attica region from the Neolithic to the end of the Late Bronze Age It paves the way for a new understanding of Attica in the Early Iron Age and indirectly throws new light on the origins of what will later become the polis of the Athenians

The Excavation of the Prehistoric Burial Tumulus at Lofkend, Albania Lorenc Bejko, Sarah P. Morris, John K. Papadopoulos, Lynne A. Schepartz, 2015-12-31 The burial tumulus of Lofkend lies in one of the richest archaeological areas of Albania ancient Illyria home to a number of burial tumuli spanning the Bronze and Iron Ages of later prehistory Some were robbed long ago others were reused for modern burials few were excavated under scientific conditions Modern understanding of the pre and protohistory of Illyria has largely been shaped by the contents of such burial mounds What inspired the systematic exploration of Lofkend by UCLA was more than the promise of an unlooted necropolis it was also a chance to revisit the significance of this tumulus and its fellows for the emergence of urbanism and complexity in ancient Illyria In addition to artifacts the recovery of surviving plant remains bones and other organic material contribute insights into the environmental and ecological history of the region

The Archaeology of Ritual Evangelos Kyriakidis, 2007-12-31 A wide spectrum of scholars historians art historians anthropologists students of performance students of religion archaeologists cognitive scientists and linguists were all asked to think and comment on how ritual can be traced in archaeology and which ways ritual research can go in that discipline The product is a fairly accurate representation of research on ritual and the archaeology of ritual scholars from various disciplines backgrounds and agendas arguing mostly in the most logical fashion yet with little agreement between them So this book should not be seen as presenting one unified attitude towards ritual and its study in archaeology It should rather be seen as a reflection of what the discourse in the archaeology of ritual is today The outcome has been extremely thought provoking often controversial but always of extremely high quality The Oxford Handbook of the Bronze Age Aegean Eric H. Cline, 2012-01-01 The Greek Bronze Age roughly 3000 to 1000 BCE witnessed the flourishing of the Minoan and Mycenaean civilizations the earliest expansion of trade in the Aegean and wider Mediterranean Sea the development of artistic techniques in a variety of media and the evolution of early Greek religious practices and mythology The period also witnessed a violent conflict in Asia Minor between warring peoples in the region a conflict commonly believed to be the historical basis for Homer's Trojan War The Oxford Handbook of the Bronze Age Aegean provides a detailed survey of these fascinating aspects of the period and many others in sixty six newly commissioned articles Divided into four sections the handbook begins with Background and Definitions which contains articles establishing the discipline in its historical geographical and chronological settings and in its relation to other disciplines The second section Chronology and Geography contains articles examining the Bronze Age Aegean by chronological period Early Bronze Age Middle Bronze Age Late Bronze Age Each of the periods are further subdivided geographically so that individual articles are concerned with Mainland Greece during the Early Bronze Age Crete during the Early Bronze Age the Cycladic Islands during the Early Bronze Age and the same for the Middle Bronze Age followed by the Late Bronze Age The third section Thematic and Specific Topics includes articles examining thematic topics that cannot be done justice in a strictly chronological geographical treatment including religion state and society trade warfare pottery writing and burial customs as well as specific events such as the eruption of Santorini and the Trojan War The fourth section Specific Sites and Areas contains articles examining the most important regions and sites in the Bronze Age Aegean including Mycenae Tiryns Pylos Knossos Kommos Rhodes the northern Aegean and the Uluburun shipwreck as well as adjacent areas such as the Levant Egypt and the western Mediterranean Containing new work by an international team of experts The Oxford Handbook of the Bronze Age Aegean represents the most comprehensive authoritative and up to date single volume survey of the field It will be indispensable for scholars and advanced students alike Communities,

Landscapes, and Interaction in Neolithic Greece Apostolos Sarris, Evita Kalogiropoulou, Tuna Kalayci, Evagelia Karimali, 2018-08-17 The last three decades have witnessed a period of growing archaeological activity in Greece that have enhanced our awareness of the diversity and variability of ancient communities New sites offer rich datasets from many aspects of material culture that challenge traditional perceptions and suggest complex interpretations of the past This volume provides a synthetic overview of recent developments in the study of Neolithic Greece and reconsiders the dynamics of human environment interactions while recording the growing diversity in layers of social organization It fills an essential lacuna in contemporary literature and enhances our understanding of the Neolithic communities in the Greek Peninsula

Lithic Studies: Anatolia and Beyond Adnan Baysal, 2022-03-31 This volume aims to show networks of cultural interactions by focusing on the latest lithic studies from Turkey Greece and the Balkans bringing to the forefront the connectedness and techno cultural continuity of knapped and ground stone technologies      Communities in Transition Søren Dietz, Fanis Mavridis, Žarko Tankosić, Turan Takaoglu, 2017-11-30 Communities in Transition brings together scholars from different countries and backgrounds united by a common interest in the transition between the Neolithic and the Early Bronze Age in the lands around the Aegean Neolithic community was transformed in some places incrementally and in others rapidly during the 5th and 4th millennia BC into one that we would commonly associate with the Bronze Age Many different names have been assigned to this period Final Neolithic Chalcolithic Eneolithic Late Neolithic I II Copper Age which to some extent reflects the diversity of archaeological evidence from varied geographical regions During this long heterogeneous period developments occurred that led to significant changes in material culture the use of space the adoption of metallurgical practices establishment of far reaching interaction and exchange networks and increased social complexity The 5th to 4th millennium BC transition is one of inclusions entanglements connectivity and exchange of ideas raw materials finished products and quite possibly worldviews and belief systems Most of the papers presented here are multifaceted and complex in that they do not deal with only one topic or narrowly focus on a single line of reasoning or dataset Arranged geographically they explore a series of key themes Chronology cultural affinities and synchronization in material culture changing social structure and economy inter and intra site space use and settlement patterns caves and include both site reports and regional studies This volume presents a tour de force examination of many multifaceted aspects of the social cultural technological economic and ideological transformations that mark the transition from Neolithic to Early Bronze Age societies in the lands around the Aegean during the 5th and 4th millennium BC      The Archaeology of Grotta Scaloria Ernestine S. Elster, Eugenia Isetti, John Robb, Antonella Traverso, 2016-12-31 Grotta Scaloria a cave in Apulia was first discovered and explored in 1931 excavated briefly in 1967 and then excavated extensively from 1978 to 1980 by a joint UCLA University of Genoa team but it was never fully published The Save Scaloria Project was organized to locate this legacy data and to enhance that information by application of the newest methods of archaeological and scientific analysis This significant site is finally published in one comprehensive volume and in an online archive of additional data and photographs that gathers together the archaeological data from the upper and lower chambers of the cave These data indicate intense ritual and quotidian use during the Neolithic period circa 5600 5300 BCE The Grotta Scaloria project is also important as historiography since it illustrates a changing trajectory of research spanning three generations of European and American archaeology      Prehistoric Europe Andrew Jones, 2008-11-10 Prehistoric Europe Theory and Practice provides a comprehensive introduction to the range of critical contemporary thinking in the study of European prehistory Presents essays by some of the most dynamic researchers and leading European scholars in the field today Ranges from the Neolithic period to the early stages of the Iron Age and from Ireland and Scandinavia to the Urals and the Iberian Peninsula      Aegaeum , 1987      Socialising Complexity Sheila Kohring, Stephanie Wynne-Jones, 2007-11-30 Socialising Complexity

introduces the concept of complexity as a tool rather than a category for understanding social formations This new take on complexity moves beyond the traditional concern with what constitutes a complex society and focuses on the complexity inherent in various social forms through the structuring principles created within each society The aims and themes of the book can thus be summarized as follows to introduce the idea of complexity as a tool which is pertinent to the understanding of all types of society rather than an exclusionary type of society in its own right to examine concepts that can enhance our interpretation of societal complexity such as heterarchy materialization and contextualization These concepts are applied at different scales and in different ways illustrating their utility in a variety of different cases to reestablish social structure as a topic of study within archaeology which can be profitably studied by proponents of both processual and post processual methodologies

Flexible Stones Anna Stroulia, 2010-03-30 Despite their ubiquitous presence among prehistoric remains in Greece ground stone tools have yet to attract the same kind of attention as have other categories of archaeological material such as pottery or lithics Flexible Stones provides a detailed analysis of the material discovered during the excavations at Franchthi Cave Peloponnese Greece Approximately 500 tools the raw material used for their manufacture as well as the byproducts of such manufacture were found Most of this collection comes from the Neolithic component of the site including a small number of Palaeolithic and Mesolithic cases with a large number of the studied tools indicating multiple uses Anna Stroulia sees the multifunctional character of these tools as a conscious choice that reflects a flexible attitude of tool makers and users toward tools and raw materials

Archaeology and Women Sue Hamilton, Ruth D Whitehouse, Katherine I Wright, 2016-09-16 Archaeology and Women draws together from a variety of angles work currently being done within a contemporary framework on women in archaeology One section of this collection of original articles addresses the historical and contemporary roles of women in the discipline Another attempts to link contemporary archaeological theory and practice to work on women and gender in other fields Finally this volume presents a wide diversity of theoretical approaches and methods of study of women in the ancient world representing a cross section of work being carried out today under the broad banner of gender archaeology The geographical and chronological range of the contributions is also wide from Southeast Asia and South America to Western Asia Egypt and Europe from Great Britain to Greece and from 10 000 years ago to the recent past An ideal sampler for courses dealing with women and archaeology

Plants and People Alexandre Chevalier, Elena Marinova, Leonor Pena-Chocarro, 2014-04-30 This first monograph in the EARTH series The dynamics of non industrial agriculture 8 000 years of resilience and innovation approaches the great variety of agricultural practices in human terms It focuses on the relationship between plants and people the complexity of agricultural processes and their organisation within particular communities and societies Collaborative European research among archaeologists archaeobotanists ethnographers historians and agronomists using a broad analytical scale of investigation seeks to establish new common ground for integrating different approaches By means of interdisciplinary examples this book showcases the relationship between people and plants across wide ranging and diverse spatial and temporal milieus including crop diversity the use of wild foodstuffs social context status and choices of food plants

Tracing Prehistoric Social Networks through Technology Ann Brysbaert, 2014-05-30 This volume investigates smaller and larger networks of contacts within and across the Aegean and nearby regions covering periods from the Neolithic until Classical times 6000 323 BC It explores the world of technologies crafts and archaeological left overs in order to place social and technological networks in their larger economic and political contexts By investigating ways of production transport distribution and consumption this book covers a chronologically large period in order to expand our understanding of wider cultural developments inside the geographical boundaries of the Aegean and its regions of contact in the east Mediterranean This book brings together scholars expertise in a variety of different fields ranging from historical archaeology using textual evidence archaeometry geoarchaeology experimental work archaeobotany and archaeozoology Chapters in this volume study and contextualize archaeological remains and explore networks of crafts people craft traditions or people who employed various technologies to survive Central questions in this context are how and why traditions techniques and technologies change or remain stable or where and why cross cultural boundaries developed and disintegrated

A Bronze Age Landscape in the Russian Steppes David W. Anthony, Dorcas R. Brown, Aleksandr A. Khokhlov, Pavel F. Kuznetsov, Oleg D. Mochalov, 2016-12-31 The first English language monograph that describes seasonal and permanent Late Bronze Age settlements in the Russian steppes this is the final report of the Samara Valley Project a US Russian archaeological investigation conducted between 1995 and 2002 It explores the changing organization and subsistence resources of pastoral steppe economies from the Eneolithic 4500 BC through the Late Bronze Age 1900 1200 BC across a steppe and river valley landscape in the middle Volga region with particular attention to the role of agriculture during the unusual episode of sedentary settled pastoralism that spread across the Eurasian steppes with the Srubnaya and Andronovo cultures 1900 1200 BC Three astonishing discoveries were made by the SVP archaeologists agriculture played no role in the LBA diet across the region a surprise given the settled residential pattern a unique winter ritual was practiced at Krasnosamarskoe involving dog and wolf sacrifices possibly related to male initiation ceremonies and overlapping spheres of obligation cooperation and affiliation operated at different scales to integrate groups defined by politics economics and ritual behaviors
