Potts,1988 Archaeological exploration of the Arabic Peninsula is not a new phenomenon but only in the last two decades or so has it received the scholarly attention it deserves Surveys are now taking place in the entire region and new excavations have begun in almost every country on the peninsula This collection of articles on Arabian archaeology takes its place among many of the recent works on the subject and the articles presented here contribute with both materials and ideas to the field of study Contributions range from palaeography and prehistory to the Islamic conquest Dosariyah: An Arabian Neolithic Coastal Community in the Central Gulf Philipp Drechsler,2018-08-13 Describes the work carried out by the joint German Saudi Dosariyah Archaeological Research Project DARP between 2010 and 2014 at Dosariyah located in the Eastern Province of Saudi Arabia Barrington Atlas of the Greek and Roman World Richard J.A. Talbert,2000-10-08 In 102 full color maps spread over 175 pages the Barrington Atlas re creates the entire world of the Greeks and Romans from the British Isles to the Indian subcontinent and deep into North Africa It spans the territory of more than 75 modern countries Its large format 13 1 4 x 18 in or 33 7 x 46 4 cm has been custom designed by the leading cartographic supplier MapQuest com Inc and is unrivaled for range clarity and detail Over 70 experts aided by an equal number of consultants have worked from satellite generated aeronautical charts to return the modern landscape to its ancient appearance and to mark ancient names and features in accordance with the most up to date historical scholarship and archaeological discoveries Chronologically the Barrington Atlas spans archaic Greece to the Late Roman Empire and no more than two standard scales 1 500 000 and 1 1 000 000 are used to represent most regions Since the 1870s all attempts to map the classical world comprehensively have failed The Barrington Atlas has finally achieved that elusive and challenging goal It began in 1988 at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill under the direction of the distinguished ancient historian Richard Talbert and has been developed with approximately 4 5 million in funding support The resulting Barrington Atlas is a reference work of permanent value It has an exceptionally broad appeal to everyone worldwide with an interest in the ancient Greeks and Romans the lands they penetrated and the peoples and cultures they encountered in Europe North Africa and Western Asia Scholars and libraries should find it essential It is also for students travelers lovers of fine cartography and anyone eager to retrace Alexander s eastward marches cross the Alps with Hannibal traverse the Eastern Mediterranean with St Paul or ponder the roads aqueducts and defense works of the

The Archaeology of the Arabian Gulf Michael Rice, 2002-03-11 The archaeological remains in the Gulf area are astounding and still relatively unexplored Michael Rice has produced the first up to date book which encompasses all the recent work in the area He shows that the Gulf has been a major channel of commerce for millenia and that its ancient culture was rich and complex to be counted with its great contemporaries in Sumer Egypt and south west Persia

Danish Archaeological Investigations in Qatar 1956-1974 Flemming Hojlund, 2017-09-15 The first archaeological surveys and excavations in the state of Qatar were carried out by Moesgaard Museum Denmark in 1956 1974 A volume on the Stone Age sites was released by JAS in 1967 and the present publication includes the remaining investigations Of special interest are several graves with iron swords and arrows and camels and a contemporary settlement with pottery showing close relations to Bahrain and the eastern province of Saudi Arabia The first excavations at the early Islamic site of Murwab are presented and the book is concluded with a full catalogue of the rock carvings from Jebel Jusasiyah

The Pre-Islamic Coinage of Eastern Arabia Daniel T. Potts, 1991 A presentation of the various indigenous coin issues that circulated in Eastern Arabia during the pre Islamic era as attested in five private collections studied by the author The basis for the classification is a corpus of 529 coins selected from those collections for publication here Geographically the coins came from two distinct regions which today comprise the Eastern Province of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the Emirate of Umm al Qaiwain in the United Arab Emirates Foreign issues were rare in these areas although a handful of Sasanian Roman Seleucid Greek Phoenician Nabataean Elymaean Parthian and Sabaean coins have been attested to in the collections that form the basis of this work

Miscellanea Hasaitica Daniel T. Potts, 1989 An essay on the finds from sites in the al Hasa region of Saudi Arabia The presentation is organised chronologically from the 3rd millennium to the Sasanian period

Prehistory in Northeastern Arabia Abdullah Hassan Masry, 2014-09-19 This manuscript in its original thesis form was published by Field Research Projects of Florida in 1974 It had a very limited circulation and was basically in the form of a mimeographed edition The version now published here represents the work for the first time as a proper publication in book form and has been revised and edited and is appropriately produced as a regular archaeological book Fundamentally this was and remains the seminal work on the subject and was the first in its field It is an integral work of scholarship of permanent value It is a work written in its own time and no attempt has been made to retrospectively interfere or change the nature of the text or its conclusions but to publish it for what it is The work has ushered in a series of field excavations and analyses that expand upon it and amplify the information already given in the work itself Thus one could say that this original work has had a seminal and indeed catalytic impact on the archaeology of the Gulf over the last two decades This edition first published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Mortuary and Bioarchaeological Perspectives on Bronze Age Arabia Kimberly D. Williams, Lesley A. Gregoricka, 2019-05-27 This volume brings together an international consortium of archaeologists and bioarchaeologists at the forefront of mortuary archaeology work across Arabia to examine continuity change in death and remembrance While mortuary archaeology and bioarchaeology contribute important perspectives to the interpretation of life death in ancient Arabia these subdisciplines are rarely brought together in this region and only recently have skeletal remains been recognized as a rich source of scientific data complementing burial context Such joint collaboration highlights the novel interdisciplinary perspective proposed in this volume resulting in a synthesis of new ideas and interpretations that will undoubtedly guide future archaeological endeavors in Arabia and beyond

 Encompassing a landmass greater than the rest of the Near East and Eastern Mediterranean combined the Arabian peninsula remains one of the last great unexplored regions of the ancient world This book provides the first extensive coverage of the archaeology of this region from c 9000 to 800 BC Peter Magee argues that a unique social system which relied on social cohesion and actively resisted the hierarchical structures of adjacent states emerged during the Neolithic and continued to contour society for millennia later The book also focuses on how the historical context in which Near Eastern archaeology was codified has led to a skewed understanding of the multiplicity of lifeways pursued by ancient peoples living throughout the Middle East Life and Land Use on the Bahrain Islands Curtis E. Larsen,1983 According to archeological and historical records the Bahrain Islands of the Arabian Gulf were the home of a flourishing civilization four thousand years ago Then as now these islands served as an important locus of maritime trade but they were also characterized as a land of copious artesian springs and fertile fields Modern Bahrain in contrast is beset by environmental and demographic problems the depletion of the artesian water supply abandonment of rural agricultural lands and rapid population growth In this exemplary
