Department of Bibliography, 1978 The American Military and the Far East Mary Ann Robinson, 1980 The Lost Mandate of Heaven Geoffrey D. T. Shaw, 2015-10-19 Ngo Dinh Diem the first president of the Republic of Vietnam possessed the Confucian Mandate of Heaven a moral and political authority that was widely recognized by all Vietnamese This devout Roman Catholic leader never lost this mandate in the eyes of his people rather he was taken down by a military coup sponsored by the U S government which resulted in his brutal murder The commonly held view runs contrary to the above assertion by military historian Geoffrey Shaw According to many American historians President Diem was a corrupt leader whose tyrannical actions lost him the loyalty of his people and the possibility of a military victory over the North Vietnamese The Kennedy Administration they argue had to withdraw its support of Diem Based on his research of original sources including declassified documents of the U S government Shaw chronicles the Kennedy administration s betrayal of this ally which proved to be not only a moral failure but also a political disaster that led America into a protracted and costly war Along the way Shaw reveals a President Diem very different from the despot portrayed by the press during its coverage of Vietnam From eyewitness accounts of military intelligence and diplomatic sources Shaw draws the portrait of a man with rare integrity a patriot who strove to free

his country from Western colonialism while protecting it from Communism A candid account of the killing of Ngo Dinh Diem the reasons for it who was responsible why it happened and the disastrous results Particularly agonizing for Americans who read this clearly stated and tightly argued book is the fact that the final Vietnam defeat was not really on battle grounds but on political and moral grounds The Vietnam War need not have been lost Overwhelming evidence supports it From the Foreword by James V Schall S J Professor Emeritus Georgetown University Did I find a veritable Conradian Heart of Darkness Yes I did but it was not in the quarter to which all popular American sources were pointing their accusatory fingers in other words not in Saigon but paradoxically within the Department of State back in Washington D C and within President Kennedy s closest White House advisory circle The actions of these men led to Diem s murder And with his death nine and a half years of careful work and partnership between the United States and South Vietnam was undone Geoffrey Shaw from the Preface
