Prelude To The Mahdiyya:

Prelude to the Mahdiyya Anders Bjorkelo, Anders Bjørkelo, 2003-02-13 This book analyses socio economic change among the peasants and traders during the the Turkiyya period of Sudanese history

Indigo in the Arab World Jenny Balfour-Paul, 2012-10-02 The role indigo has played elsewhere has been fairly well documented but in the case of the Arab world little or no thorough investigation has been previously undertaken Sets out to provide comprehensive coverage of the subject from its earliest history to the present day

Africans John Iliffe, 2017-07-13 An updated and comprehensive single volume history covering all periods from human origins to contemporary African situations

Historical Dictionary of the Sudan Robert S. Kramer, Richard A. Lobban Jr., Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 2013-03-22 The Republic of the Sudan was long the largest country in Africa and according to the general consensus also one of the least successful in many ways This was not entirely its fault since it lay along the fault line between Muslim and Christian Africa and between the Nile Valley civilizations and African Sudanic cultures This partly explains the long and bloody warfare waged by the Southerners to achieve independence which they did in July 2011 So this hefty book actually covers not one but two states This fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Sudan does so first through a lengthy and detailed chronology tracing its relatively few successes and numerous failures The introductory essay does an admirable job of putting it all in perspective But the most informative part is the dictionary with now over 700 entries for this fourth edition They deal with important personalities politics the economy society culture religion and inevitably the civil war There are also appendixes and an extensive bibliography

War and Peace In Sudan Mansour Khalid, 2012-10-12 First Published in 2003 Nearly half a century ago the first flares of Sudan s civil war were enkindled Today as the world enters a new century and a new millennium Sudan s civil war has degenerated into an inferno of carnage and destruction Sudan s war however is no different from wars elsewhere it is an entangled political cultural and social weave with equally intricate international ramifications This volume charts Sudanese s history of conflict

Islam: Islam and social movements Bryan S. Turner, 2003

Smugglers and Saints of the Sahara Judith Scheele, 2012-04-30 Smugglers and Saints of the Sahara describes life on and around the contemporary border between Algeria and Mali exploring current developments in a broad historical and socioeconomic context Basing her findings on long term fieldwork with trading families truckers smugglers and scholars Judith Scheele investigates the history of contemporary patterns of mobility from the late nineteenth century to the present Through a careful analysis of family ties and local economic records this book shows how long standing mobility and interdependence have shaped not only local economies but also notions of social hierarchy morality and political legitimacy creating patterns that endure today and that need to be taken into account in any empirically grounded study of the region

Race and Diplomacy in Zimbabwe Timothy Lewis Scarnecchia, 2023-03-09 Examining the role of racism within international relations bureaucracies during years of diplomacy before and after Zimbabwe s Independence in 1980 Timothy Scarnecchia offers a fresh perspective on how nationalist leaders used Cold War diplomacy to shape Zimbabwe's decolonization process Available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Development, (Dual) Citizenship and Its Discontents in Africa Robtel Neajai Pailey,2021-01-07

Based on rich oral histories this is an engaging study of citizenship construction and practice in Liberia Africa's first black republic In the Shadow of History Andrew Davidson,2018-01-16 The spread of modernity throughout the non Western world has had transformative effects not only on governments and economies but on the lives of individuals as well The constraints and opportunities of modernization inevitably lead to the breakdown and supplanting of older social relations and livelihoods In this volume Andrew P Davidson examines the Nuba Mountain region of western Sudan to show how individuals and families struggle to maintain or expand their well being in the face of continuous uncertainty when control of their destinies is increasingly slipping out of the comforting confines of the village As in many third world regions changes in agriculture and market activity have occurred in the Nuba mountains in a far more compressed time frame than in Europe Davidson charts the social effects of the rationalization process by concentrating on the household as a mediating structure between the individual and the larger society In his analysis the livelihood strategies of households act as a microcosm for the unevenness of development that is characteristic of modernizing economies Davidson offers a comparative and historical examination of economic life in three villages in order to better understand the capacities and limitations that ultimately condition what people can and cannot do He shows how the older lineage system based on communalism kinship and age based hierarchy is being displaced by new forces of social organization and individual orientation which have eroded village cohesion and left the Nuba vulnerable to the Islamic dominated government in Khartoum and the ravages of the continuing Sudanese civil war In its combination of empirical analysis ethnographic fieldwork and theoretical inquiry In the Shadow of History reconceptualizes development in such a way that the dynamics of historical transformation are made clear This study in the classic anthropological tradition will be a valuable resource for anthropologists economists historians and Africa area specialists Darfur's Sorrow M. W. Daly,2010-05-24 The second edition of the first ever general history of Darfur bringing the story up to date The Politics of Harmony Laurel L. Rose,1992-01-31 Laurel Rose analyzes how traditional ruling elites in Swaziland as in other parts of Africa use harmony ideologies to downplay and resolve land disputes Such disputes could be used by foreign development agents or indigenous new elites as justification for implementing land tenure changes including a reduction of traditional elites power based upon land control Swazi commoners accept the cultural value and legitimacy of most harmony ideologies but they adopt various strategies when disputing about particular land rights in order to produce more favorable outcomes This book is unusual in its focus on political rather than economic dimensions of land tenure and disputes It searches for links between individual concerns with land use rights and national concerns with land policy It also examines gender and leadership issues associated with land showing how women and new elites threaten land interests of men and traditional leaders The Value of Disorder Julien Brachet,Judith Scheele,2019-05-09 Based on long term research in northern Chad this book provides a unique account of mobility wealth and aspirations to political autonomy at the heart of the contemporary Sahara Conflict and Politics of Identity in Sudan A. Idris, 2005-08-19 This book explores the relationship between state formation and political identities in the context of Sudan's conflict Idris examines how hierarchy was historically constructed and politically institutionalized in the Sudan acknowledging the centrality of the historical legacy of slavery and colonialism in Sudan's postcolonial crisis National Liberation in Post-Colonial Southern Africa Christian A. Williams, 2015-10-08 Williams traces the South West Africa People's Organization of Namibia across three decades in exile in Tanzania Zambia and Angola Ethnic Patriotism and the East African Revival Derek R. Peterson, 2012-09-24 This book shows how cosmopolitan Christian converts and east African patriots struggled to define political community in the mid twentieth century Derek Peterson traces the history of the East African Revival an evangelical movement that challenged patriots effort to root people in place as inheritors of a cultural heritage The Politics of Poverty Felicitas Becker, 2019-06-20 An examination of poverty dynamics and developmental failure shifting emphasis from development as control to development as coping strategy Transforming Sudan Alden Young, 2018 This book traces the formation of the Sudanese state following the Second World War through a developmentalist ideology Political Identity and Conflict in Central Angola, 1975-2002 Justin Pearce, 2015-07-02 This book examines the internal politics of the war that divided Angola for more than a quarter century after independence In contrast to earlier studies its emphasis is on Angolan people's relationship to the rival political forces that prevented the development of a united nation Pearce's argument is based on original interviews with farmers and town dwellers soldiers and politicians in Central Angola He uses these to examine the ideologies about nation and state that elites deployed in pursuit of hegemony and traces how people responded to these efforts at politicisation The material presented here demonstrates the power of the ideas of state and nation in shaping perceptions of self interest and determining political loyalty Yet the book also shows how political allegiances could and did change in response to the experience of military force In so doing it brings the Angolan case to the centre of debates on conflict in post colonial Africa Trade and Enterprise Gad Gilbar, 2022-10-31 Until recently the historiography of Middle Eastern economic elites during the first globalization has ignored the significant role played by Muslim tujj r big merchant entrepreneurs Foreign firms and local minorities were considered the prime agents of economic change and the initiators of economic growth The 12 studies in this volume show that the Muslim tujj r played a major economic role in various regions of the Middle East during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Their investments mainly in commercial agriculture resulted in economic growth and changed economic structures and social relations in many Middle Eastern communities They were also involved in political developments some of which had a dramatic effect on the history of their countries as for instance in late Qajar Iran They also played a unique role in the process of cultural change Although they supported the ulam financially they also contributed to the establishment of new educational and cultural institutions The story of the tujj r is unique in the sense that it was the only indigenous elite group in the pre World War I Middle East to bridge between traditional forces and concepts and Western attitudes and practices CS
