Led by the Carpenter D. James Kennedy, 2008-11-13 Christians know that we are to walk the walk that Christ walked making everyday decisions as God would have us do The recent popularity of the WWJD Movement highlights this desire Yet few Christians take the time to explore God's Will in every aspect of their lives and set goals that reflect a biblical approach to everyday life D James Kennedy uses biblical principles forged in his own life and in the life of the church to highlight practical ways for believers to go deeper in their spiritual walk and set long term goals according to God's Will Readers will learn to partner with Christ and set goals that will affect the way they interact with family friends church community colleagues and their environment

Young People's Lives and Sexual Relationships in Rural Africa Mary Louisa Plummer, Daniel Wight, 2011-08-16 New infections with HIV remain an urgent problem among young people in Africa but many young Africans pursue sexual relationships with little thought about the epidemic This book examines young people's sexual relationships in a region typical of rural sub Saharan Africa and investigates why the risk of HIV infection generally was not a salient concern for them It is based on an extraordinarily large and representative qualitative study that was affiliated with an adolescent sexual health intervention trial and included three person years of participant observation conducted by young East Africans in nine Tanzanian villages The book describes typical patterns of sexual relationship formation in adolescence and early adult life the variety of young people's relationships and practices and the contradictory social ideals and expectations that led premarital and extramarital relationships to be concealed Young men's main motivations for sex were pleasure and masculine identity while young women's was to receive money or materials to meet their basic needs such as soap or a daytime meal By their late teens most young people had experienced one time sexual encounters open ended opportunistic relationships and main sometimes semi public partnerships Relationships could involve desire possessiveness and affection but romantic idealization of a partner was rare Many young people expected their partners to be monogamous but themselves had had concurrent relationships by age 20 The practice of hiding premarital sexual relationships from adults often also concealed them from other sexual partners which helped maintain concurrency and inhibited realistic risk perception Understanding of the biology of HIV AIDS was very limited Condoms were rarely used because they were associated with reduced pleasure infection and promiscuity Sexually transmitted infections were common but several factors hindered young people from seeking biomedical treatment for them Many instead relied on tradition

Wrestling with God and Men Steven Greenberg, 2004-02-23 For millennia two biblical verses have been understood to condemn sex between men as an act so abhorrent that it is punishable by death Traditionally Orthodox Jews believing the scripture to be the word of God have rejected homosexuality in accordance with this interpretation In 1999 Rabbi Steven Greenberg challenged this tradition when he became the first Orthodox rabbi ever to openly declare his homosexuality Wrestling with God and Men is the product of Rabbi Greenberg's ten year struggle to reconcile his two warring identities In this compelling and groundbreaking work Greenberg challenges long held assumptions of scriptural interpretation and religious identity as he marks a path that is both responsible to human realities and deeply committed to God and Torah Employing traditional rabbinic resources Greenberg presents readers with surprising biblical interpretations of the creation story the love of David and Jonathan the destruction of Sodom and the condemning verses of Leviticus But Greenberg goes beyond the question of whether homosexuality is biblically acceptable to ask how such relationships can be sacred In so doing he draws on a wide array of nonscriptural texts to introduce readers to occasions of same sex love in Talmudic narratives medieval Jewish poetry and prose and traditional Jewish case law literature Ultimately Greenberg argues that Orthodox communities must open up debate dialogue and discussion precisely the foundation upon which Jewish law rests to truly deal with the issue of homosexual love This book will appeal not only to members of the Orthodox faith but to all religious people struggling to resolve their belief in the scriptures with a desire to make their communities more open and accepting to gay and lesbian members 2005 Finalist for the Lambda Literary Awards for Religion Spirituality Wisdom for the Wait Tiffany Buckner, Wisdom for the Wait is an engaging self help guide for the women who choose to wait on God for their husbands This book is designed to encourage and exhort the women of God and to help them to see their seasons of singleness for what they are seasons of change and seasons of preparation In this powerful book you will come to understand the reason for the wait In addition to this you will better understand the purpose of abstinence and the process that we must undergo to be made ready for our husbands The Devil Tree Keith Rommel, 2015-05-01 Based on the Port St Lucie Legend this paranormal thriller novel revives a serial killer with crackling dialogue and a Satanic aura Hunter Shea author of Tortures of the Damned and The Montauk Monster Back in the 1970s a series of bizarre incidents occurred at what has since been known as The Devil Tree Beneath this ancient denizen evil was wrought by a sick serial killer calling upon forces most sinister and dark People were hung there and bodies buried there exhumed by the police Overcome by superstition some tried to cut down the tree to no avail Since then it has stood in a remote section of a local park left to its own devices quiet in its eerie repose until now Psychological thriller author Keith Rommel has imagined the whole tale anew He's brought the tree
