Seven Wonders John C. Ryan, 1999 Consider your way of life and the effect that you have on the planet and ask yourself the following question If everyone on Earth lived like you what would the impact be on the natural world and its finite resources Probably catastrophic According to John Ryan it's time for us to reexamine our actions and reconsider our options In Seven Wonders Ryan informs readers of the extraordinary benefits of such familiar things as the bicycle the ceiling fan the clothesline the condom Thai food the public library and the ladybug and how using them can help solve critical global problems such as air pollution ozone layer depletion and toxic pesticide runoff Our high consumption American way of life creates enormous ecosystem damage John Ryan artfully demonstrates how we can adopt relatively easy ways to lessen this damage and at the same time improve the health of our shared natural environment and of our families
