Maloney, 2013-05-10 On June 9 2009 Carol M Maloney a veteran teacher experienced a transient ischemic attack in the left hemisphere of her brain She helplessly observed her mind deteriorate to the point where she could not speak walk read identify household objects or recall her family Maloney traveled between the worlds of the surreal and the logical The stroke resulted in aphasia the loss of communication and other functions of her left hemisphere After eighteen months of rehabilitation she was finally able to communicate with others by using her hand as a metronome The frustration of having the words and sentences formed in her mind but being unable to share them caused frustration and depression Her verbal abilities suffered along with her reading and comprehension skills Even so hard work strong will and persistence has allowed her to reach out to other teachers to offer new insight into the minds of her beloved special education and reading disabled students In this her story Maloney turns her experience into a unique opportunity to gain an understanding of her students difficulties and to share that knowledge with other teachers Ms Carol Maloney has written a compelling story that chronicles her amazing life before during and after her devastating stroke She writes with frankness that touches ones heart Her story will lend encouragement to those who have suffered a stroke as well as offer strategies to those who have a loved one recovering from one Carol Maloney developed aphasia after her stroke I am happy to say that she has survived and conquered both the devastation of her stroke and her aphasia I know this first hand she conducts amazing PowerPoint presentations to my graduate class at Rivier University each semester She is an inspiration to all who want to improve themselves In this book Carol clearly describes the strategies that she used to help her become the functioning writer and speaker that she is today J Diane Connell Ed D

Voice of the Victim Rick Ludwig,2023-07-15 A beloved husband scientist is shot in Maui s peaceful Iao Valley Olympic athletes are killed on luxury cruises around the world Can two of Maui s finest stop the violence Detective Sergeant Keone Boyd travels to the Mediterranean with his new bride while in Maui his boss Tony Alcala investigates a horrific shooting in the normally peaceful Iao Valley Since the victim is a former neighbor of his protégé Sgt Angela Beyers Alcala gives her the case. During her investigation, Angela discovers a file on the victim's computer with clues to the shooting. But the file was saved while the victim was in a coma and no one else had access. So who left the clues? And how? As Angela investigates, Keone honeymooned on a luxury cruise but is soon recruited by Europol to investigate a serial killer methodically eliminating Olympic athletes. The killer, who claims to be the Greek god of death, has targeted a group of Canadian Olympic medalists on the ship. Does the computer file contain actual memories or a vivid fantasy? Is it a mythical god sending athletes to Elysium or is a deranged maniac murdering them? Are the investigations related or are the lines between reality and fantasy dissolving both on Maui and twelve time zones away? Join Maui's finest as they investigate the most controversial and dangerous cases of their careers. Rick Ludwig has done it again. With Voice of the Victim, Ludwig expands his universe of clever detectives and intriguing mysteries with a hard-hitting examination of the past and how it shapes us into who we become. A beautiful, fast-paced novel you should pick up today. RJ Johnson, author of The Twelve Stones. An auto accident destroys Detective Sergeant Keone Boyd's roadster, plunging him into an unexpected realm as he grapples with a suspect's alternate reality and unexpected plot twists. This is not your typical investigation. Eyes of the Beholder is a gripping read that leaves you wondering what comes next. Kenneth Andrus, author of Arctic Menace. Doing Qualitative Research in Education Settings, Second Edition J. Amos Hatch, 2023-09-01 Doing Qualitative Research in Education Settings, Second Edition is a methods book that speaks directly to qualitative researchers in the field of education, providing a step-by-step guide to the development of a research project. Written in accessible language, the book emphasizes learning how to do qualitative work. Specific examples from real studies using real data and demonstrating real analyses are provided throughout. The book is designed to guide doctoral candidates through the dissertation process from unpacking assumptions and identifying research questions through project design, data collection and analysis to writing the final draft. Recommendations for publishing qualitative work are included. New to the second edition are a comprehensive updating of citations and references, new sections addressing the impact of computer-mediated communication, especially as related to data collection and analysis, an overview of the recent history of qualitative research, and an overall refresh that acknowledges the many changes that have occurred in society and academe since the original publication. Voice

Poetic Gesture Kristine S. Santilli,2013-12-16 This study addresses the problem of meaning as it is conveyed by poetic language attempting to move beyond some of the obstacles and boundaries of contemporary critical approaches By providing a phenomenological context and through a theoretical contemplation of certain myths as embodiments of the tacit logic of poetry the book argues that poems convey meaning much the way that spontaneous unreadable gestures do Moving between theory and practice and drawing upon the poetry of Wallace Stevens whose work is embedded with a richness and complexity of gesture the author shows how the poetic text sustains and embodies an inconvertible ancient and innately human form of linguistic knowledge Coming After Alice Notley,2010-03-10 Coming After gathers critical pieces by acclaimed poet Alice Notley author of Mysteries of Small Houses and Disobedience Notley explores the work of second generation New York School poets and their allies Ted Berrigan Anne Waldman Joanne Kyger Ron Padgett Lorenzo Thomas and others These essays and reviews are among the first to deal with a generation of poets notorious for their refusal to criticize and theorize assuming the stance that only the poems matter The essays are characterized by Notley's strong compelling voice which transfixes the reader even in the midst of professional detail Coming After revives the possibility of the readable book of criticism Northwest Musical Herald ,1928 Mommy, Teach Me to Read! Barbara Curtis,2007-06-01 No matter what type of long term education a mother prefers she can start to give her child a passion for books and a lifelong love of reading at home with Mommy Teach Me to Read The easy to learn and fun to follow reading programs and activities presented here offer a wonderfully rewarding way to spend time with your children before they start school This at home educational resource will help any child age 7 or younger become a better more enthusiastic reader in a world where reading means succeeding Masonic Voice-review ,1912 Nightmare Dina Khapaeva,2012-11-13 An analysis of the novels of Maturin Gogol Dostoevsky Mann Lovecraft and Pelevin through the prism of their interest in investigating the nature of the nightmare reveals the unstudied features of the nightmare as a mental state and traces the mosaic of coincidences leading from literary experiments to today's culture of nightmare consumption Finding a Voice While Learning to Teach Derek Featherstone, Hugh Munby, Tom Russell, 1997 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play's debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficult accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1986 Connecting Disciplinary Literacy and Digital Storytelling in K-12 Education Haas, Leslie, Tussey, Jill, 2021-01-15 The idea of storytelling goes beyond the borders of language culture or traditional education and has historically been a tie that bonds families communities and nations Digital storytelling offers opportunities for authentic academic and non academic literacy learning across a multitude of genres It is easily accessible to most members of society and has the potential to transform the boundaries of traditional education As concepts around traditional literacy education evolve and become more culturally and linguistically relevant and responsive the connections between digital storytelling and disciplinary literacy warrant considered exploration Connecting Disciplinary Literacy and Digital Storytelling in K 12 Education develops a conceptual framework around pedagogical connections to digital storytelling within K 12 disciplinary literacy practices This essential reference book supports student success through the integration of digital storytelling across content areas and grade levels Covering topics that include immersive storytelling multiliteracies social justice and pedagogical storytelling it is intended for stakeholders interested in innovative K 12 disciplinary literacy skill development research and practices including but not limited to curriculum directors education faculty educational researchers instructional facilitators literacy professionals teachers pre service teachers professional development coordinators teacher preparation programs and students The Voice of the Machines Gerald Stanley Lee, 1906 Hints on Preaching, 1879
