Realism And Christian Faith God Grammar And Meaning:

Realism and Christian Faith Andrew Moore, 2003-03-27 The question of realism that is whether God exists independently of human beings is central to much contemporary theology and church life It is also an important topic in the philosophy of religion This book discusses the relationship between realism and Christian faith in a thorough and systematic way and uses the resources of both philosophy and theology to argue for a Christocentric narrative realism Many previous defences of realism have attempted to model Christian belief on scientific theory but Moore argues that this comparison is misleading and inadequate on both theological and philosophical grounds In dialogue with speech act theory and critiques of realism by both non realists and Wittgensteinians a new account of the meaningfulness of Christian language is proposed Moore uses this to develop a regulative conception of realism according to which God's independent reality is shown principally in Christ and then through Christian practices and the lives of Christians

Realism and Christian Faith Andrew Jonathan Moore, 1998 via media philosophy L. Bryan Williams, 2009-03-26 This book via media philosophy Holiness unto Truth Conversations between Wesleyan and Roman Catholic Voices records the first formal philosophical conversations between Wesleyan and Roman Catholic philosophers and theologians Although the Methodist community has developed numerous points of intersection with Roman Catholic counterparts authors from smaller Wesleyan Holiness groups along with Roman Catholic writers now offer new philosophical conversations This book begins that conversation with a review of Pope John Paul II's call in Fides et Ratio Faith and Reason for adequate dialogue by philosophers on crucial areas of mutual concern Important bridges between the two communities are developed within each chapter Examples of via media practices in the lives of Rev John Wesley and Cardinal John Henry Newman are highlighted An editorial thread of other via media practices is offered after each chapter A special contribution by Marquette Professor D Stephen Long Performing the Truth closes this conversation with a call for holiness unto truth to be made present in the world This book strives to facilitate early steps along a via media to a holy relationship unto truth between Wesleyan and Roman Catholic voices

Redeeming Transcendence in the Arts Jeremy Begbie, 2018-02-14 How can the arts witness to the transcendence of the Christian God Many people believe that there is something transcendent about the arts that they can awaken a profound sense of awe wonder and mystery of something beyond this world even for those who may have no use for conventional forms of Christianity In this book Jeremy Begbie a leading voice on theology and the arts employs a biblical Trinitarian imagination to show how Christian involvement in the arts can be shaped by the distinctive vision of God's transcendence opened up in and through Jesus Christ

The Problem of Perception and the Experience of God Sameer Yadav, 2015 Based on the author's thesis Th D Duke Divinity School 2014 titled The problem of perception and the perception of God John McDowell and the theology of religious experience Questioning the Incarnation Peter Shepherd, 2018-03-30 The classic Christological formulations of the 4th and 5th Centuries are basically meaningless today Questioning the Incarnation offers a new approach to Christology based on modern biblical scientific and philosophical studies Whilst using different concepts and language and courting controversy and disagreement the overall thrust of the study is to take Jesus humanity seriously whilst seeking to interpret what may be meant by his divinity in a way that remains fully Trinitarian and which takes seriously the intentions of the early Church Fathers

A Companion to Philosophy of Religion Charles Taliaferro, Paul Draper, Philip L. Quinn, 2010-01-19 In 85 new and updated essays this comprehensive volume provides an authoritative guide to the philosophy of religion Includes contributions from established philosophers and rising stars 22 new entries have now been added and all material from the previous edition has been updated and reorganized Broad coverage spans the areas of world religions theism atheism the problem of evil science and religion and ethics

T. F. Torrance's Reconstruction of Natural Theology Alexander J. D. Irving, 2019-07-15 T F Torrance's proposal for natural theology constitutes one of the most creative and provocative elements in his work By re-envisioning natural theology as the cognitive structure of theology determined by God's self-revelation in Jesus Christ and not as the task of philosophically reflecting on the nature or existence of God aside from religious presuppositions Torrance moves through and beyond Barth's resistance to natural theology This book establishes Torrance's unique reconstruction of natural theology within its proper intellectual context providing a fresh analysis of this important methodological innovation as it emerges from Torrance's realist epistemology As Irving demonstrates in Torrance's distinctive conception of science he operated with an approach to cognition that functions via a realist synthesis of experience and understanding and in Torrance's theological science this synthesis of experience and understanding is the synthesis of revealed theology and natural theology The author argues that this reconstruction of natural theology expresses a dramatic vision for human agency within theological cognition adding the necessity of the human knowing subject to the priority of the divine revealer Finally this book marries Torrance's accomplishments in reconstructing natural theology to his Christocentric theological method in which God is both revealed and known in the person of Jesus Christ fully God and fully human

Knowledge and the Transcendent Paul A Macdonald, 2009 This book advances the claim that the human mind is not bounded on the outside but actually remains open to the world and to God As such the mind is able to know the world and God with varying degrees of objectivity The author turns to the philosophical theology of Thomas Aquinas in order to explore claims that Aquinas makes about human cognition as well as our knowledge of God In this life while we cannot know or see God directly we nevertheless can enjoy some knowledge of God by way of reason and faith both of which are cognitive capacities for forming and holding true beliefs about God Consequently the author argues that Aquinas provides powerful philosophical and theological resources for rehabilitating the mind's relationship to God and thus also safeguarding our knowledge of transcendent being and truth

Beyond Evangelicalism Steven Knowles, 2016-12-05 A prolific author and thinker Stanley J Grenz was a respected and influential figure not only within evangelicalism but in the wider theological world Amongst the many issues tackled by him it is perhaps his revisioning of evangelical theology in the light of the postmodern challenge that has caused the biggest stir in the theological world. Advocating a nonfoundationalist methodology, Grenz attempts to reposition evangelical theology in line with postmodern concerns. This work examines the main traits of postmodern thought that would seem to directly challenge how evangelical theology is traditionally done. An examination of the seminal influences on Grenz will be traced in order to understand more fully the position he takes. A rigorous critique and assessment of his theological methodology will follow with the conclusion that his work goes beyond evangelicalism. This will be the first book-length treatment on Grenz's work on theological methodology and therefore will break new ground in this important area of study.
