The Culture of Islam Lawrence Rosen, 2004-04-01 Having worked for several decades in North Africa anthropologist Lawrence Rosen is uniquely placed to ask what factors contribute to the continuity and changes characterizing the present day Muslim world In The Culture of Islam he brings his erudition and his experiences to illuminating key aspects of Muslim life and how central tenets of that life are being challenged and culturally refashioned Through a series of poignant tales from the struggle by a group of friends against daily corruption to the contest over a saint's identity from nostalgia for the departed Jews to Salman Rushdie's vision of doubt in a world of religious certainty Rosen shows how a dazzling array of potential changes are occurring alongside deeply embedded continuity a process he compares to a game of chess in which infinite variations of moves can be achieved while fundamental aspects of the game have had a remarkably enduring quality Whether it is the potential fabrication of new forms of Islam by migrants to Europe creating a new Euro Islam as Rosen calls it the emphasis put on individuals rather than institutions or the heartrending problems Muslims may face when their marriages cross national boundaries each story and each interpretation offers a window into a world of contending concepts and challenged coherence The Culture of Islam is both an antidote to simplified versions of Islam circulating today and a consistent story of the continuities that account for much of ordinary Muslim life It offers in its human stories and its insights its own contribution as the author says to the mutual understanding and forgiveness that alone will make true peace possible
