Rebellious Structures Woman Writers And The Crisis Of The Novel 18801900:

Reading Fin de Siècle Fictions Lyn Pykett, 2014-07-21 The fin de siècle the period 1880 1914 long associated with decadence and with the literary movements of aestheticism and symbolism has received renewed critical interest recently The essays in this volume form a valuable introduction to fin de siècle cultural studies and provide a commentary on important aspects of current critical debate and the place of culture in society

A Writing Halfway Between Theory and Fiction Miriam Wallraven, 2007 This book is focused on the surprisingly large number of feminist women writers in literary history who use different genres for their feminist ideas while subverting or transgressing established boundaries between fictional and theoretical writing In particular texts by such diverse authors as Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Hays Mary Robinson Harriet Martineau Olive Schreiner Virginia Woolf the French Feminists Hélène Cixous and Monique Wittig Margaret Cavendish and Michelle Roberts are analysed This chronological in depth reading of feminist texts is based on the interrelation of content genre and discourse The study provides the first analysis of the phenomenon of the gendering of genre and feminists' troubled involvement in theory as well as literature In this way key questions concerning the emergence of feminism during the last four hundred years are presented in a new and revealing light e.g. for what reason did Mary Wollstonecraft not only write her famous feminist treatise A Vindication of the Rights of Woman but also a novel in which she tests the arguments of her theoretical treatise by means of fiction What is the significance of Virginia Woolf's Novel Essay The Pargiters which seeks to connect theoretical and fictional parts by juxtaposing them How can the mixture of genres be interpreted which Catherine Clement attributes to the texts of Hélène Cixous as a writing halfway between theory and fiction

From Darwin to Weil Petra Broomans, 2009 Cultural transmitters or mediators play an important role in the transmission and reception of literature What is a cultural transmitter What role do women play in the field of cultural transfer and transmission and how active were women in developing the profession of cultural transmitter In this volume the first in the series Studies on Cultural Transfer and Transmission CTaT a select group of scholars from various disciplines from Belgium the Netherlands and Scandinavia discuss the concept of cultural transmitter from a gender perspective The importance of the ideologies women cultural transmitters themselves entertained concerning the reception of literature is also investigated The essays demonstrate that religious political and economic structures played guiding roles in the lives of many women cultural transmitters Therefore they dealt with feminism and sociopolitical issues sexual politics the practice of translation to earn money the role of women in society and how women were raised the position of women writers and critics and religion Examples of other fields in which women cultural transmitters were involved include science and philosophy Furthermore the discussion of the concept of cultural transmitter from a gender perspective reveals that religion nation womanhood and entrepreneurship are important aspects to be incorporated into any definition of a cultural transmitter While the focus is on Scandinavia and the Dutch speaking region in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the positions and activities of the cultural transmitters discussed can be translated into other language areas and transferred to other periods

Victorian Marriage Questn V1 Ann Heilmann, 2021-12-16 First published in 2004 This five volume set collects together a series of writings on the role of women in the late Victorian Era Volume 1 includes texts on the concept of the New Woman a social phenomenon around 1894 a woman with a college education professional aspirations and feminist convictions

Literary Translator Studies Klaus Kaindl, Waltraud Kolb, Daniela Schlager, 2021-04-15 This volume extends and deepens our understanding of Translator Studies by charting new territory in terms of theory methods and concepts The focus is on literary translators their roles identities and personalities The book introduces pertinent translator centered approaches in four sections historical biographical studies social scientific and process oriented methods and approaches that use paratexts or translations to study literary translators Drawing on a variety of concepts such as identity role self posture habitus and voice the various chapters showcase forgotten literary translators and shed new light on some well known figures they examine literary translators not as functioning units but as human beings in their uniqueness Literary Translator Studies as a subdiscipline of Translation Studies demonstrates how exploring the cultural social psychological and cognitive facets of translatorial subjects contributes to a holistic understanding of translation Margaret Harkness Flore Janssen, Lisa C.

Robertson, 2018-12-10 This collection places the life and work of Margaret Harkness at the heart of a broader consideration of the socially turbulent decades around the turn of the twentieth century in order to illuminate historical forms of women's political activism George Egerton Isobel Sigley, Whitney Standlee, 2024-11-26 George Egerton Terra Incognita is the first published work to focus solely on Egerton and her literary legacy It covers the range and extent of Egerton's life and literary career from her emergence into the milieu of London publishing in 1893 to her dramatic works both original and in translation and their performance history into the 1920s This work is an essential addition to ongoing recovery projects and is the first to focus on her lost and unpublished works mentorship of younger writers her experiments with characterisations and themes sociopolitical stances innovations with form and content and ultimately her literary legacy In doing so George Egerton Terra Incognita reassesses Egerton's broader contribution to fin de siècle and early twentieth century literature and drama and repositions her as among the most important of the literary innovators of period and a noteworthy precursor to later female literary modernisers including Katherine Mansfield Dorothy Richardson Elizabeth Bowen and Virginia Woolf

Portable Modernisms Emily Ridge, 2017-06-23 Luggage is an overlooked detail in the stock sketch of the expatriated modernist writer from the valise fashioned desks of both James Joyce and Vladimir Nabokov to the lost manuscript laden cases of Ernest Hemingway and Walter Benjamin While the trope of modernist exile has long been spotlighted little attention has been given to the material meaning of this condition What things and objects do modernism s exiles and emigres carry with them and how does the act of carriage enter into the modernist picture more broadly What are the implications and historical resonances of a portable outlook particularly from the angles of gender wartime conflict and character conception Above all how far does such an outlook impact upon artistic vision Portability represents the simultaneous transportation and repudiation of domesticity and the home those key frames of reference in the nineteenth century novel This book examines the multifarious ways in which the emergence of a modern culture of portability prompts a radical if often problematic departure from Victorian architectural conceptions of fiction towards more movable understandings of form and character

Impressionist Subjects Tamar Katz, 2023-02-13 Exploring the intersection of ideas about woman subjectivity and literary authority

Impressionist Subjects reveals the female subject as crucial in framing contradictions central to modernism particularly the tension between modernism's claim to timeless art and its critique of historical conditions Against the backdrop of the New Woman movement of the 1890s Tamar Katz establishes literary impressionism as integral to modernist form and to the modernist project of investigating the nature and function of subjectivity Focusing on a duality common to impressionism and contemporary ideas of feminine subjectivity Katz shows how the New Woman reconciled the paradox of a subject at once immersed in the world and securely enclosed in a mysterious interiority Book chapters feature discussion of modernists including Walter Pater George Egerton Sarah Grand Henry James Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Dorothy Richardson and Virginia Woolf Sophisticated and tightly argued Impressionist Subjects is a substantial contribution to the reassessment and expansion of the modernist fiction canon
