Rebuilding Communities in a Refugee Settlement Lina Payne,1998 Includes statistics Rights in Exile Guglielmo Verdirame,Barbara E. Harrell-Bond,2005 Of the estimated 12 million refugees in the world more than 7 million have been confined to camps effectively warehoused in some cases for 10 years or more Holding refugees in camps was anathema to the founders of the refugee protection regime Today with most refugees encamped in the less developed parts of the world the humanitarian apparatus has been transformed into a custodial regime for innocent people Based on rich ethnographic data Rights in Exile exposes the gap between human rights norms and the mandates of international organisations on the one hand and the reality on the ground on the other It will be of wide interest to social scientists and to human rights and international law scholars Policy makers donor governments and humanitarian organizations especially those adopting a rights based approach will also find it an invaluable resource But it is the refugees themselves who could benefit the most if these actors absorb its lessons and apply them Transitional Settlement Tom Corsellis,Antonella Vitale,2005 Included on CD ROM Shelter training a training tool complementing the Transitional settlement displaced populations guidelines Shelter library key documents for the transitional settlement and shelter sector Habitat Debate ,1999 Post-Conflict Security in South Sudan Nyambura Wambugu,2019-07-25 Just eight years after the signing of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA and two years after gaining independence the world's newest nation state descended once more into violence and civil war Why have policies of liberal peacebuilding failed to bring lasting stability to the region And what now for South Sudan Nyambura Wambugu an academic with more than ten years practical advisory and policymaking experience adopts a holistic and multi thematic approach to answer these crucial questions Rooting her analysis as deeply as the initial militarisation of Sudan in the 1950s Wambugu considers the complex and overlapping issues that have afflicted the region since 2005 In the process Wambugu demonstrates the failure of the billions of dollars spent on liberal peacebuilding and elucidates the possibility of demilitarisation as a lasting and sustainable alternative Such issues are common in post conflict states and the book therefore acts as a case study for better understanding the deeply entrenched causes of instability and identifying the most sustainable paths to peace This meticulously researched account is essential reading for all students researchers and policymakers working on post conflict societies Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1998-06

Forced displacement is a major development challenge not only a humanitarian concern A surge in violent conflict as well as increasing levels of disaster risk and environmental degradation driven by climate change has forced people to leave or flee their homes both internally displaced as well as refugees The rate of forced displacement befalling in different countries all over the world today is phenomenal with an increasingly higher rate of the population being affected on daily basis than ever These displacement situations are becoming increasingly protracted many lasting over 5 years Therefore there is a need to develop more sustainable and resilient approaches to rebuild these displaced communities ensuring the long term satisfaction of communities and enhancing the social cohesion between the displaced and host communities Accordingly chapters are arranged around five main themes of rebuilding communities after displacement Response management for displaced communities The Built environment in resettlement planning Governance of displacement Socio Economic interventions for sustainable resettlement

The Crux of Refugee Resettlement Andrew Nelson, Alexander Rödlach, Roos Willems, 2018-12-13 While the world's refugee population reaches record high numbers countries offering third country resettlement are increasingly shifting toward policies of exclusion and austerity This edited volume envisions a more humane future for refugee resettlement Combining anthropology with a variety of professional perspectives education health care theology administration politics and social work ethnography is used to demonstrate the efficacy of programs and interventions that create and nurture social capital in culturally specific and accessible ways The contributors present case studies of resettlement in the United States England Australia and Canada and contend that social networks have an essential role are the crux in the reconfigurations of refugee well being belonging and place making vis vis the bureaucratic limitations of state and institutional factors This book includes short contributions from refugees representatives of resettlement organizations and government officials including Jhuma N Acharya Bimala Bastola Khada Bhandari Kiri Hata Govin Magar Madhu Neupane Natacha Nikokeza Angela K Plummer Lance Rasbridge Chris Sunderlin David Thatcher and John Tluang

Resettling Displaced Communities William L. Partridge, David B. Halmo, 2021 Global trends suggest that the number of people involuntarily displaced will increase exponentially in the coming decades The authors argue that when the agency time tested adaptations innovative capacities dignity and human rights of displaced people are respected as full participants in the rebuilding of their communities livelihoods and standards of living resettlement outcomes are more positive The goal of resettlement must be the sustainable social economic and human development of affected communities requiring a praxis of ethical commitment to effective actionable recommendations based on empirical observation The authors draw on case examples from Asia Africa and the Americas This book will be of interest to resettlement specialists planners administrators nongovernmental and civil society organizations and scholars and students of anthropology sociology development studies and social policy
